Spotlight on the Arts-City of Fairfax

Dedicated to showcasing the very best of the visual and performing arts in the City of Fairfax, Spotlight on the Arts is an annual three-week festival of artists at local venues each April. The event includes more than 40 diverse events-with enough variety to please all audience palettes.

A cooperative effort by the City of Fairfax and George Mason University, Spotlight was formed in 1985 with two aims in mind: to enhance the community's awareness of the many arts and cultural opportunities offered in Fairfax, and to encourage the expansion of the arts through support of fledgling community arts organizations. For more, call 703-352-ARTS.

Historic Blenheim

A place for history and romance, 3610 Old Lee Highway, 703-591-0560

The City of Fairfax purchased the historic Blenheim estate, an 1855 central-hall-plan brick farmhouse on 12 acres, in 1999 to preserve and develop into a Civil War house museum and open-air park. The site hosts the Fairfax Civil War Weekend held annually the first house is a must-see for one of the best-preserved examples of Civil War graffiti in the nation, a "diary on walls" containing more than 100 signatures, art and poetry created by Union soldiers during their occupation of the Fairfax Court House area in 1862-1863. The site also includes a newly constructed 5,000-square-foot Civil War Interpretive Center with exhibits, an assembly hall, outdoor pergola patio, gift shop and restrooms that are all ADA-accessible. The center is also a popular spot for weddings as well as history buffs.

Forget love— We'd rather fall in Chocolate!

Fairfax Chocolate Lovers Festival in Old Town Fairfax

www.chocolatefestival.net

For all things chocolate, plan to attend the Chocolate Lovers Festival, a two-day event that takes place each March in Old Town Fairfax. A family-friendly favorite, popular events include the Taste of Chocolate, featuring chocolate vendors selling anything and everything chocolate; the Chocolate Challenge, an arts extravaganza where pros and amateurs compete for prizes; the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast featuring chocolate chip pancakes; historic re-enactments; children's activities; open houses at historic buildings and much more.

Scoop it Up

Woody's Ice Cream, 10435 North Street. Fairfax 703-277-9553

Woody's, a Fairfax landmark, is a perennial "insiders" favorite. Started in 1998 by retired mechanic Woody Lashley, the atmosphere is casual with seating for almost 50 customers inside and locally-inspired paintings as décor. A spacious deck outside with plenty of picnic tables is both child and dog-friendly. When it's one of those humid summer afternoons (like now), locals stop at Woody's for sundaes, milkshakes, cones and other Woody's classics. Open April through October, when Lashley throws a party to close the season.

My Favorite Places State delegate shares tips on places to see, things to do.

By Eileen Filler-Corn State Del. (D-41)

Dear Connection Readers: Since 2010, I have been honored to serve the 41st District as your representative in the Virginia House of Delegates. The Virginia House is the Western Hemisphere's oldest continuously operating legislative body, a heritage extending back to 1619.

Although the Virginia General Assem-Perspective bly is a part-time citizen legislature, members serve year-round. Our annual session in Richmond is held over 6-8 weeks, beginning each year in mid-January. As your representative, I am always available to address any questions you may have regarding State Government, or assist with any problem you may be experiencing with such agencies as the Virginia Department of Transportation, the Division of Motor Vehicles, the Virginia Department of Social Services or other governmental services.

On a personal level, I have lived in Fairfax County for over 20 years, and my husband and I have raised our two children (now 16 and 18) in this area. While we are always finding new restaurants and interesting sites to visit, we have some favorite activities in the area that When our children were younger, we always enjoyed taking them to Burke Lake Park. This exceptional community facility offers beautiful natural scenery, a miniature golf course, a sightseeing train and carousel rides. Regardless of the ages of your young ones, the park offers entertainment options for ground. All those who attend receive a small carveable pumpkin as well as hay rides around the area. My own personal favorite annual events include the Mantua Community Association Parade and Picnic in June, the Orange Hunt 4th of July Parade, National Night Out events in August and the Burke Centre Festival in September.

As part of my responsibilities as State Delegate, I regularly travel throughout the 41st District—Burke, West Springfield, Fairfax and Fairfax Stationmeeting with constituents and organizations and attending events.

Please do not hesitate to contact my office if I can ever be of service. You can reach me at Eileen@EileenFillerCorn.com or by phone, at 571-249-3453. You can also visit my website at www.EileenFillerCorn.com.

Again, welcome to the 41st you may want to consider. House District of Virginia. I look forward to seeing you out and about.

Patriotic Celebration

City of Fairfax Annual July 4th Fireworks & Parade

If you spend more than a year in the area, and don't make it to the most spectacular display of fireworks in the region, you really haven't lived here. Festivities begin in the morning with the annual Independence Day Parade that starts in the Fairfax Historic District. After the parade, there's the Old-Fashioned Fireman's Day, where local firefighters compete in games involving fire hoses. (Spraying the crowd is part of the fun.) Fireworks are held at Fairfax High School, with games and activities for children, food vendors and live performances that include favorites such as the City of Fairfax Band and cover bands.

Newcomers & Community Guide 2012~13 Be a Braddock Insider

What every newcomer should know about living, working and playing in the Braddock District.

By Supervisor John Cook (R-Braddock) and his staff of "Insiders" raddock is very much a district of neighborhoods, a rarity in busy and booming Fairfax. Stretching from Annandale to the far edge of Fairfax by the Fairfax County Government Center, we are located in the center of Fairfax County. Braddock District contains key roads for the County such as Route 50, Route 29, Little River Turnpike, Braddock Road, the Fairfax County Parkway, Old Keene Mill, Rolling Road and 495. We are proud to have two institutes of higher learning, George Mason University and Northern Virginia Community College, which attract students from all over the world. Here's a short list of some must-do, must-see places, events and opportunities for newcomers (and old-timers).

GETTING AROUND — THE VIRGINIA RAIL-WAY EXPRESS STATION

The Virginia Railway Express (VRE) is a commuter rail service that operates Monday through Friday, from the Northern Virginia suburbs to Washington D.C. The VRE Station is a popular mode of transportation for many commuters. We have one location in the district at 10399 Premier Court in Burke. VRE does not operate service on weekends or federal holidays. For additional information, go to their website at www.vre.org.

INSIDER'S PERSPECTIVE

Welcome to the City of Fairfax!

Creative, historic and fun.

By R. Scott Silverthorne MAYOR/CITY OF FAIRFAX

s a Fairfax native, I've seen many changes in and around the City of Fairfax. In my role as mayor, I'm delighted to have the opportunity to share my personal thoughts about our communityand what makes this a special place to live, work, play and raise a family.

Nestled in the suburban expanse of the Washington, D.C. metro region, the City of Fairfax, Virginia, with its hallmark landscaped and leafy street medians, is an oasis, unique and brimming with vitality that recently has been recognized by Forbes as one of the top three places to live in the nation.

Our residents aren't surprised with the city's many top rankings on "quality-of-life" lists. It simply comes with the territory for this small city of nearly 24,000 known for its superior "small town" community feel situated in a world class metropolitan region.

Whether being recognized for receiving the nationally-prestigious gold medal for our parks and recreation programs, achieving the coveted AAA bond rating for our financial strength or placing 12th among all jurisdictions nationally for the percentage of city occupations in the "creative class," the city has a reputation for achievement, as well as a place of enjoyment and fun for its residents.

Our city is widely known for outstanding cultural amenities. Every year the city sponsors world-class events such as Fall for the Book, Spotlight on the Arts and a fun two-day Chocolate Lovers Festival. This is in addition to our three annual flagship events:

the day-long Independence Day Celebration, long recognized as having the best parade and most colorful fireworks in Virginia; our brilliant October Fall Festival where our closed-off downtown streets are filled with hundreds of renown craft merchants and thousands of visitors, and our Holiday Craft Show that fills our high school with amazing handcrafted wares that bring shoppers from surrounding states.

I'm proud that the City of Fairfax has experienced tremendous progress over the past decade. We have invested in many new amenities including a new community center, public library, four public schools Mayor R. Scott Silverthorne and purchased an additional 56 acres of open space. All of these, combined with an unprecedented private sector interest in our historic downtown and the redevelopment of Fairfax Boulevard, make this one of the most exciting times in our city's history.

Perhaps one of the most important areas of all, the city is rightfully proud of its support for the educational opportunities afforded its children. Fairfax High School recently received US News and World Report's Gold Award, its highest recognition, for placing in the top 250 out of more than 22,000 schools nationally. Broad-based community support for schools is evidenced by a recent passage of a General Obligation bond referendum by more than 80 percent of those at the polls. Acclaimed George Mason University sits on the city's southern border and, through a cooperative town-gown relationship, provides world-class thinkers, musical and cultural events, and nationally recognized sports teams with Olympic-caliber athletes.

I'm certain you will discover why our many residents, visitors, and business owners consider our community the "Heart of Northern Virginia."

My Favorite Places

Lisa Whetzel, executive director of Our Daily Bread in Fairfax

Q: Favorite Restaurants?

A: "We have so many great ones in Fairfax City! We hardly ever leave the city to go out to dinner. I like supporting locally owned businesses!"

*Cho's Korean BBQ: authentic experience, fresh fo and great service.

Courtside Thai: flavorful and fresh dishes, using produce from their sidewalk garden.

*Woody's-who doesn't love Woody and his famous ice cream?

The Wine House-hip atmosphere and knowledgeable staff.

Bollywood Bistro—The crunchy spinach appetizer and Okra dish are my favs.

O: Must-Do Activities?

♦Biking along the Accotink Trail from Arties to Accotink Lake and back-25 miles I think.

◆Take a class at the lovely Sherwood Center—I take yoga on Thursdays-love the instructor (who lives in the city too!).

♦Jog along the Daniels Run Trail—you feel like you are deep in the woods within city limits.

♦Join a neighborhood pool—most have strong summer swim teams and a relaxed atmosphere.

✤Farmers Markets on the weekends. www.ConnectionNewspapers.com

The Factory Vintage T-shirt shop at 10409 Main Street in the City of Fairfax sells vintage and custom t-shirts and other apparel.

Q: Great stores in the city?

♦ Oasis Bike Works—cannot beat them for quality service.

♦The Factory Vintage T-shirt shop is a favorite of my teen rocker.

◆Fair Trade Winds—diverse cool stuff and you know someone is getting paid fairly for their work. Love that. Owners are wonderful too.

Campers Trophies-dependable and wide selection of plaques and trophies.

Macro Systems—small IT networking company that is reliable and knowledgeable.

State Senator Chap Petersen (D-34) with his family in the annual 4th of July Parade in the City of Fairfax.

State Senator Shares Places-to-See

Chap Petersen (D-34) represents central and western Fairfax in the Virginia State Senate. He grew up and lives in Fairfax City.

Q: What tips do you have for someone getting to know your community?

A: Get involved! Join an athletic league, a house of worship or an advocacy

Q&A WITH group. There are hundreds to choose from. CHAP PETERSEN your community? You can't make friends sitting in front of a TV. Q: Do you have a favorite restaurant or mom-and-pop bakery? A: P.J. Skidoos in Fairfax. I'm a steak and potatoes man.

Q: Do you have a favorite park or bike/hiking trail?

A: I enjoy going for long runs or bike rides with my kids on the W&OD Trail in Vienna.

Q: Is there an organization or group you would recommend to newcomers?

A: Leadership Fairfax is a great resource for those "Type A's" who want to be involved in leading Fairfax County. If you're an athlete, my rugby team, the NOVA "Old Boys," is always looking for players over 35 vears old.

Q: Any government service, website, blog, etc. that you irginia State Senator think is particularly useful to newcomers?

A: Mine, of course! My conwebsite stitute is fairfaxsenator.com and my blog is oxroadsouth.com. Otherwise, check out vamegaprojects.com for info on local transportation projects-it has a ton of information.

Q: What are the must-see/ must-do events or festivals coming up in

A: The annual St. Mary's Labor Day Picnic is a great community tradition. (And don't miss the "Blessing of the Tools" which takes place that morning.)

Q: If you were crafting a "bucket list" of places to see, things to do before you move out of town, what would be on it?

A: 1. Visit the Manassas Battlefield. If possible, take a guided tour.

2. Have a drink in Old Town Alexandria (that's where I met my wife).

3. March in the Fourth of July Parade in Fairfax.

4. Have a chili dog at the Vienna Inn.

5. Ride a Harley Davidson in the Memorial Day "Ride to the Wall.'

OPINION About the Connection

Newcomers and Community Guide 2012-2013

he paper you're reading, the Vienna Connection is one of 15 papers published by the independent, locally owned Local Media Connection LLC, serving the suburbs of Metropolitan Washington, D.C, in Northern Virginia and Potomac, Md.

Our flagship paper, the Alexandria Gazette Packet, is one of the oldest continuously publishing papers in the country, beginning publication in 1784.

This spring, our papers won some very special awards, including the Virginia Press Association Award for Journalistic Integrity and Community Service and the Fairfax County

Editorials

Media Partnership Award, along with dozens of others. We're proud of our commitment to community service, and delighted when it results in awards. We have staff and contributors here at the Connection with remarkable talent and experience, far greater than one might expect. While the last few years have brought many challenges to the newspaper business everywhere, affecting us as well, we continue to publish 15 distinct papers every week that serve their communities in distinct ways.

As local, weekly newspapers, the Connection's mission is to bring the local news you need, to gather information about the best things in and near your community, to advocate for community good, to provide a forum for dialogue on local concerns and to celebrate and record milestones and events in community and people's lives.

Here in our Newcomers and Community Guide, we've included an insider's look at the parks, plus details of how to vote in the upcoming elections. Many voters will be surprised when they look at the map on our elections page and discover that their Congressional district has changed.

We invite newcomers and long-time residents alike to let us know how we're doing and let us know what is going on in your part of the community. If you have questions or ideas, send us an e-mail, contact us on Facebook or send us a tweet. You can even call.

We invite you to send letters to the editor or to send an e-mail with feedback about our coverage. You can read and comment on our stories online at www.ConnectionNewspapers.com.

We want to know if someone in your family or your community published a book, started a business, became an Eagle Scout, raised money for a good cause, accomplished some feat like running a marathon or having art included in an art show. We publish photos and notes of a variety of personal milestones and community events, including births, engagements, weddings, anniversaries, awards and obituaries. We are also interested in events at your church, mosque, synagogue, community center, pool, school, club, etc. Email us a photo and a note about the event. Be sure to include the names of all the people who are in a photo, and say when and where the photo was taken. We also publish notes about news and events from local businesses. Notes about openings, new employees, anniversaries are welcome. It is especially important to us to let people know about events ahead of time in our calendar of events. We appreciate getting notice at least two weeks ahead of the event, and we encourage photos.

Welcome to Fairfax County

By Sharon Bulova Chairman, Fairfax County Board of Supervisors

reetings and welcome to Fairfax County! Fairfax County is an exceptional place to live, work and play. We have a range of fantastic parks, trails and recreational attractions as well as one of the best public school systems in the country. We are also one of the safest jurisdictions of our size in the United States. I'm sure that after experiencing what Fairfax has to offer, you will see why so many families, professionals and top-tier businesses call Fairfax County home.

The Fairfax County Public School system, with a budget this year of $2.4 billion, is consistently ranked among the top public school systems in America. Twenty-three Fairfax county high schools have been featured in the Washington Post's 2012 list of 1,800 top high schools in the nation, putting these Fairfax County schools in the top nine percent nationwide.

Fairfax County is also home to George Mason University, which is centrally located and an easy commute from all parts of the County. Mason has become one of Virginia's premier universities and was recently added to Kiplinger's list of best value universities in the country.

We are a business-friendly community. Fairfax County is home to nearly 600,000 jobs, with companies ranging from startups to Fortune 500 companies, ten of which have located their headquarters here. Our range of business start-up resources via the Fairfax County Economic Development Authority makes it easier for firms of any size to thrive. In fact, about 97 percent of the companies in Fairfax County are small businesses with fewer than 100 employees and less than $1 million in annual revenue. When a corporate leader recently moved his medium sized technology company to Fairfax County, he announced that he did so because he liked the "mood" in Fairfax, explaining that he wanted to be close to others who were as excited as he about their work and engagement in the community.

Accredited and nationally recognized for excellence by the award of the prestigious Gold Medal for Parks and Recreation, Fairfax County's parks are ranked among the best in the nation. We have more than 22,500 acres in 416 parks, with 80 percent of residents utilizing our park services each year. Fairfax County also boasts more than 500 miles of bicycle and walking trails. The bicycle trail system is tied into the county transit system to make it easier to reach destinations without using a car. Fairfax Connector buses are all equipped with bicycle racks and VRE and Metro stations have bicycle racks or lockers – commuting by bicycle has never been easier!

Fairfax County also has a vibrant and growing arts community. The Workhouse Arts Center in Lorton, an historic county attraction and now converted arts space, allows visitors to watch artists perform their craft, and hosts many events ranging from exhibitions to plays.

As Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, I am elected at-large by all registered voters in Fairfax County. Community engagement is my hallmark. Visit my website at http:// www.fairfaxcounty.gov/chairman/ to be kept up-to-date on what is going on in the County. Whenever you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to email me at chairman@fairfaxcounty.gov or call my office at 703-324-2321.

Thanks for making Fairfax County your home!

INSIDERS PERSPECTIVE

What is the best thing about living in Fairfax? –Anagha Srikanth & Hannah Bunting

Nery Larrazabal, business advisor, Fairfax (pictured with son) "The community is very attractive. I mean we have theatres, activities for kids every week. There are many different activities, concerts. There's always something to do and that's the reason we live here."

Gagandeep Bajwal,

business owner (Bombay Café), Fairfax, resident 21 years "We like this area because it's nice, a nice neighborhood, everything is nice. My kids went to Fairfax High School, they've grown up here and I have my grandkids here now. [My kids] went to George Mason, which I like also. So it's a good place to live and to raise the kids."

Olivia Serio, rising senior (Fairfax High School), barista (Caribou Café), Fairfax, resident 6 years

"The reason I love it here is places like this, like Caribou, the sense of community. It's not just a coffee shop. Because of the people, the friends, it's more like a second home. Plus, you know, the fact that there's coffee helps."

Sarah Sertic, photographer, resident 4 years "I'm centrally located to everything. There's good food, a good farmers market and a good community to the arts."

Jessica Moore (left), hairstylist (Bubbles Salon), Fairfax, resident 25 years "The fact that you can escape whether you want to be on the countryside or to be somewhere busy, there's always something to do. [I like being] mostly in the middle, it just depends." Jenny Vo (right), hairstylist (Bubbles Salon), Fairfax, resident 2 months

"[I like] the diversity. You get so many different things and everything is in the area. You can go down the street and get Mexican food and Chinese food; everything is very multicultural."

'My Favorite Parks'

By Sharon Bulova

Chairman, Fairfax County Board of Supervisors

he tree I am standing next to in this photo is one of a number of large American Beech trees that populate the forests in Villa Park where I like to hike and jog. Villa Park is located in the central Fairfax area, with an entrance into the park off of Park Drive near Shirley Gate Road.

This park is unique. It has been left in its natural wooded condition and designated a Heritage Resource park to preserve features such as Native American quarries and work/chipping areas. It also contains remnants of the never-completed Independent line of the Manassas Gap Railroad. While no track was ever laid along this rail line, it played a significant role in the Civil War, serving as a little-known transportation route for both Confederate and Union soldiers. The earthworks served as protection during skirmishes.

A number of years ago a Civil War historian told me that he believed soldiers had carved their initials into trees located in Villa Park. The trees near my running path are covered with initials and symbols carved into the smooth grey bark. On the larger trees, the markings have become pretty much unreadable. I don't know if it's true or not, but I like to think these may be the trees my history buff friend was referring to.

When running along this trail, I imagine passing Native American Indians chipping arrow heads out of hunks of quartz and Civil War camp sites with soldiers drawing water from the Popes Head Creek and passing time by carving their initials or troop insignia in the smooth-barked Beech trees growing nearby. The experience is a perfect marriage of my love for history and nature. Some other favorite Fairfax parks that interpret our county's fascinating history and showcase its environmental beauty:

Riverbend Park in Great Falls, includes more than 400 acres of forest, meadow and ponds. Trails include a 2.5-mile portion of the Potomac Heritage Trail linking national and regional parkland. Kayakers and canoeists can enjoy exploring many islands in the Potomac River.

Riverbend's visitor center overlooks the Potomac River and has an outdoor deck that is an ideal place to relax or have a snack after a hike. It has a wonderful interpretative display about the historic Native American presence in the area.

✤ In the South County Hybla Valley area, Huntley Meadows Park contains 1,425 acres of majestic forests, wildflower-speckled meadows and vast wetlands bursting with life. Some of the best wildlife watching in the Washington metropolitan area is enjoyed here. From the wetland boardwalk trail and observation tower, people have excellent views of beavers, frogs, dragonflies and herons. Huntley Meadows is well known as a prime birding spot, with more than 200 species identified in the park.

✤ Lake Accotink Park, located on 7500 Accotink Park Road in Springfield, is one of my favorite parks. Not only is this 493-acre park one of the most scenic in the county, it is also one of the most fun. In addition to boating, hiking, canoeing, and mini-golfing, you can always find a nice quiet spot to enjoy a picnic on the lake. Children love the beautiful antique carousel.

Lake Accotink was originally created to provide drinking water for troops stationed at Camp Humphries (which is now Fort Belvoir) during the early 1900s. The Norfolk Southern Railroad tracks carry D.C.bound VRE commuter rail passengers over the Lake Accotink Dam. Remains of an older former railroad trestle make up part of the four-mile trail that winds around the lake and park.

INSIDER'S EDITION How To Register, Vote and Vote Early

Election Day is Nov. 6, but you can vote as early as Sept. 21.

By Mary Kimm The Connection

hy does it matter? How important is it for Virginia voters to turn out on or before Nov. 6? As a critical "battleground" state, Virginia will be key in determining who will be the next President of the United States. Who will represent Virginia in the U.S. Senate is also too close to call. Since polling shows that there are very few undecided voters in the Commonwealth, every eligible voter will want to be sure to cast a ballot.

This area has very high rates of voter registration. Consider that Fairfax County, with a population of just more than 1.1 million people, has 711,817 registered voters. And 24 percent of Fairfax County's population is under 18, so not eligible to vote.

Arlington has a population of about 216,000 and 157,236 registered voters. Sixteen percent are under 18.

The City of Alexandria has a population of about 144,000 with 101,887 registered voters; 17 percent are under 18.

REGISTER, CHANGE OF ADDRESS: In

order to vote on Election Day, you must be registered at your current address no later than Oct. 15, 2012. You can check your registration status online by going to www.sbe.virginia.gov. There you can also download a voter registration form and mail it to the elections office address, listed above.

Voter ID: New laws also affect what identification voters must bring with them to the polling place. Acceptable forms of identification include: Virginia voter identification card; valid Virginia driver's license; military ID; any Federal, Virginia state or local government-issued ID; employer issued photo ID card; concealed handgun permit; valid student ID issued by any institution of higher education located in the Commonwealth of Virginia; current utility bill, bank statement, government check or paycheck indicating the name and address of the voter.

Voters arriving to the polls without ID will be required to vote a provisional ballot and will have until noon on the Friday after the election to deliver a copy of identification to their locality's electoral board in order for their provisional ballot to be counted.

All Virginia active registered voters will be mailed a new Virginia voter identification card prior to the November 2012 General Election. Call 804-864-8901 or toll free 800-552-9745, TTY toll free: 800-260-3466. According to the State Board of Elections at presstime, some of the voter identification requirements listed are pending preclearance from the Department of Justice.

VOTING EARLY, ABSENTEE

Virtually every voter in Virginia is eligible to vote absentee, which includes voting inperson absentee at a variety of locations between Sept. 21 and Nov. 2.

There are many reasons that voters are allowed to vote absentee, but the most broad of these applies to almost anyone with a job: "Any person who, in the regular and orderly course of his business, profession, or occupation, will be at his place of work and commuting to and from his home to his place of work for 11 or more hours of the 13 that the polls are open (6 a.m. to 7 p.m.).

See http://www.sbe.virginia.gov/cms/ absentee_voting/index.html for a complete Map provided by Fairfax County government.

list of acceptable reasons to vote absentee, links to download a request for an absentee ballot and other instructions.

You can download an absentee ballot and mail it to your local voter registration office, or you can vote "absentee in person." Absentee Voting in Person, Fairfax County:

WHAT'S ON THE BALLOT?

Every voter in Virginia will vote for U.S senator and their member in the U.S. House of Representatives, in addition to President of the United States and two constitutional questions.

For Senate, Tim Kaine (D), former governor will face George Allen (R), also former governor and former U.S. senator, to replace U.S. Sen. Jim Webb (D) who is retiring from the Senate after a single term. Webb defeated George Allen six years ago. Connection coverage of the U.S. Senate race is http:// available at www.connectionnewspapers.com/news/ Election/National/Senate/

Two constitutional questions will appear on all Virginia ballots, one about the use of eminent domain and one about the timing of a particular session of the General Assembly to consider overriding vetoes by the governor of legislation that was passed by assembly. the See http:// www.sbe.virginia.gov/webdocs/ 201211ConstitutionalAmendmentsPoster.pdf.

In the races for U.S. House of Representatives, it's worth noting that redistricting resulted in significant changes in Northern Virginia in terms of who your U.S. representative will be. If you live in Reston, for example, while last election you were represented by Jim Moran and the 8th district, now you are in the 11th district where the incumbent is Gerry Connolly. See the map for details. Fairfax County is represented by three Congressional Districts, 8, 10 and 11. Connection coverage of congressional races is available at http:// www.connectionnewspapers.com/news/ Election/National/Representatives.

In the 8th District, incumbent Rep. Jim Moran (D), seeking his 12th term since being elected in 1990, will face Patrick Murray (R), and two independent candidates, Janet Murphy and Jason Howell. The 8th district includes all of Alexandria and Arlington, plus parts of Fairfax County including Mount Vernon, Lorton and parts of McLean, Tysons and Falls Church.

In the 10th District, Frank Wolf (R), elected to office in 1982, will face Democrat Kristin A. Cabral and independent J. Kevin Chisholm. The 10th district sprawls from McLean to Winchester, and includes Great Falls, Chantilly, parts of Fairfax Station, the Town of Clifton, part of Burke and Springfield.

In the 11th District, Gerry Connolly (D), former chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, elected to Congress in 2008, will face Republican Chris Perkins and Independents Joe Galdo and Peter M. Marchetti. The 10th district now includes the City of Fairfax, the Town of Herndon, Reston, central Fairfax County including parts of Burke, Springfield and Lorton.

IN FAIRFAX COUNTY, voters will also decide whether to invest in infrastructure based on four bond questions, answering yes or no to supporting $75 million for parks, $55 million for public safety facilities, $25 million for library facilities and $30 million for stormwater and sewer improvements. http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections/nov 2012 county bond issues.pdf

IN THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA, voters will also choose a mayor, members of the city council and school board.

The Alexandria City Council is composed of a Mayor and six Council members who are elected at-large for three-year terms. Incumbent mayor Bill Euille (D) will face Andrew H. Macdonald (I) in the race for mayor.

Voters will choose six City Council members from the list of 12: Frank H. Fannon IV (R)*, Alicia R. Hughes (R)*, John R. "Bob" Wood (R), John Taylor Chapman (D), Timothy Lovain (D), Del Pepper *(D), Allison Silberberg (D), Paul C. Smedberg (D), Justin M. Wilson (D), Glenda B. Davis (I), Robert Krause (L), Jermaine A. Mincey (I). 🛠 means incumbent.

The Alexandria City School Board is a nine-member elected body that adopts policy for the daily operation of schools and sees that school laws are properly explained, enforced, and observed. The city is divided into three voting districts, and three Board members are elected from each district. Each member serves a three-year term. Incumbents marked *.

School Board District A: Stephanie Amann Kapsis, William E. "Bill" Campbell*, Karen A. Graf, Helen F. Morris*, Joyce D. Rawlings, Heath E. Wells

School Board District B: Michael A. Brookbank, Chyrell D. Bucksell, Kelly Carmichael Booz, Justin P. Keating, Marc Williams 🍫

School Board District C: Ronnie M. Campbell*, Patricia A. "Pat" Hennig, Christopher J. Lewis, Jeff N. Zack.

IN ARLINGTON, voters will choose one member of the County Board and one member of the School Board. Both Arlington boards are made up entirely of at-large members, so both races will appear on all Arlington ballots.

Incumbent Libby Garvey (D) will face Matthew A. Wavro (R) and Audrey R. Clement (I) for the seat on the County Board.

For School Board, incumbent Emma N. Violand-Sanchez will face Noah L. Simon.

Arlington voters will also decide yes or no on four bond questions, whether to authorize raising $32 million public schools, $28 million for community infrastructure, $50 million for local parks and recreation, and $32 million for Metro and transportation. http://www.arlingtonva.us/departments/voterregistration/forms/ Bonds2012ENG.pdf championship team. Pitcher Joe Saunders (1999) led the Spartans to the 1998 state title and went on to pitch at Virginia Tech, where he compiled a 27-7 record. The Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim selected the left-hander in the first round (No. 12 overall) of the 2002 MLB draft. He now pitches for the Arizona Diamondbacks.

◆ Quotable: "Every elimination game, they played their best baseball. You can't ask for more than that from a team. They just love being in these situations. They play loose and they have a good time. They all love each other and that's what it takes to win games like this against a great team." —West Springfield baseball coach Jason Olms after the Spartans defeated Lake Braddock to win the 2012 region title.

Lake Braddock Secondary: Baseball program won its first state title in 2012.

School: Lake Braddock Secondary School. Mascot: Bruins. School Colors: Purple and gold.

From Sales to Service, Jack Taylor's Alexandria Toyota has offered an experience unlike any dealership I've ever seen. My family has been buying and servicing our cars there for over 20 years. And now with their Sign & Drive offers, there's truly never been a better way to get a new car. I got an upfront price, with no hidden fees or games once I got to the dealership. I simply got the car I wanted, at the price I wanted.
