A Glimpse of the Horizon Multifamily homes and a new building for The Lamb Center.

BY BONNIE HOBBS
THE CONNECTION

Several development projects are either proposed or in the works in the City of Fairfax. Below is a snapshot of some of them:

Novus Fairfax Gateway

The Fairfax City Council approved Novus Fairfax Gateway LLC's application to transform part of the Kamp Washington triangle between Fairfax Boulevard and Lee Highway into a modern, community-serving, mixed-use project.

Planned for the 8.33-acre site are 403 multifamily apartments – including 24 affordable dwelling units, 29,000 square feet of first-floor retail and commercial uses. There'll be a 4,000-square-foot office space for use by the nonprofit CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocates), plus a 5,000-square-foot restaurant and 11,000 square feet of residential amenities.

The commercial space and three- and four-story buildings will front on Lee Highway and Fairfax Boulevard. Five-story buildings will be centrally located and a seven-story parking garage will feature a half-story on top for a pool.

There'll be a through street with a connection at the Bevan Drive signal at Fairfax Boulevard, plus a new, un-signalized entrance on Lee Highway. The community's road network could correspond to the future redevelopment of the rest of the Kamp Washington triangle, while treating the section connecting Lee Highway to Fairfax Boulevard with several, traffic-calming elements to reduce cut-through traffic.

Also planned are trails connecting to adjacent properties, plus open space including a 5,600-square-foot contemplative space next to the Jermantown Cemetery. Novus will maintain this space as well as the cemetery.

Oak Knolls

The Oak Knolls Realty Corp. will demolish the existing, 110-unit, Oak Knolls apartment complex and redevelop the site with 102 brand-new condos and 30 townhouses. It'll also give money to the residents it displaces and contribute more than half a million dollars to the City of Fairfax toward affordable housing.

"Four years ago, there was no affordable-housing program in the City, at all," said Councilwoman Nancy Loftus. "This is the first time that a for-sale project is [making] an affordable-housing contribution – and that's a big step forward."

The site is 6 acres along Main and Oak streets in Fairfax. Planned are two, 32-unit condominium buildings with elevators; 38 stacked condo units and 30 townhomes, for 132 units total. None will be rentals; they'll all be for sale. The four-story, 32-unit condo buildings will have red-brick, fiber-cement siding, metal railings, stacked siding and bay windows on the corners. And a red-brick, courtyard wall along Oak Street will offer privacy to the 22-foot townhome units.

Oak Knolls was built in the early 1960s and, by right, the developer could just tear it down and construct some 90 units without going before the Council. But it wanted to do something bigger and better and, do so, it needed the City's approval for particular variances, a land rezoning to a Residential Planned Development district and a special-use permit allowing multifamily uses in that district.

In return, it will underground all utilities on site and in the adjacent rights of way on Oak and Main streets, construct a bus shelter, donate money for improvements in nearby Pat Rodio Park and contribute $550,000 toward affordable housing. It will also do streetscape improvements, provide a pedestrian connection to the park and reduce about 95 percent of Oak Knolls' currently unrestrained, surface water flow. The developer also promised to give $1,000 toward relocation to each family displaced by the new complex.

The Enclave

IDI-RJL Development LLC wants to build a residential development called The Enclave at the Mantua Professional Center on Pickett Road. But City residents have so many concerns about parking, water runoff, building height and affordable housing that the City Council has deferred action on this proposal until Sept. 8.

The site's zoned commercial planned development, meaning both office and condo uses may exist on it. Currently there are some office buildings, the New School of Northern Virginia and 181 parking spaces. And the developer wants The Enclave to join them.

Although the City's Comprehensive Plan earmarked five more office buildings for that site, they're no longer economically feasible in today's market. So the applicant hopes to replace them with two, four-story buildings containing 80 condos. Sixteen of the units would be one-bedroom; 48, two-bedroom; and 16, three-bedroom.

Comprising the indoor amenities would be a fitness center, community room, spacious lobbies and mail/packaging rooms. The 9,000 square feet of outdoor amenities proposed include a fire pit with seating, patio with seats and gas grills and two lawn areas for socializing.

The condo buildings would be constructed on 3.8 wooded acres, off Silver King Court, in the area formerly envisioned for three of the office buildings. The land on which the other two office buildings would have been built would, instead, be preserved as open space for a village green enjoyed by the residents, school and existing-office community. A total of 125 parking spaces are planned, and a bus shelter is proffered.

Internal access is planned between The Enclave, the New School and the office complex. The applicant proposes contributing $40,000 to public schools, $30,240 to parks and recreation – or $378/unit, and $216,960 to affordable housing – or $2,500/unit.

The developer wants a maximum building height of 75 feet, although the City height limit is 60 feet. Nearby Mantua residents have asked for balloons to be flown at the site so they'd have a better idea of just how high the condo buildings would be; but at press time, their request had yet to be fulfilled.

The Lamb Center

Since 1992, The Lamb Center in Fairfax has served as a place of refuge for the poor and homeless. It's a daytime, drop-in shelter providing hot meals, showers, laundry services, and recovery and employment counseling.

Now, though, it's in need of a home of its own so it may better serve its clientele in a larger facility in a more-appropriate location. So, with the blessing of the Fairfax City Council, it will move from a rented site on Old Lee Highway to a new building on Campbell Drive.

"We're thrilled; this is the answer to our prayers and a dream come true for The

The Best of Braddock District

Supervisor John Cook (R-Braddock) recommends places to see in his district.

Lake Accotink Park's 493 acres include a 55-acre lake, wetlands and streams offering unique views of waterfowl and marsh life.

Picnic areas, playground, pavilions, trails and open play fields are open daily year-round, 7 a.m. to dusk. Facilities and activities vary with the season and include bike rentals, canoe and pedal boat rentals, boat launch, tour boat rides, fishing, pavilion shelters and picnic areas with grills (some areas may be reserved, call 703-324-8732), restrooms, playground, sand volleyball court and basketball court.

Situated along the Cross County Trail, the park also has a four-mile loop, natural-surface hiking/biking trail. Boats powered by electric motors, sailboats under 15 feet and kayaks are allowed on the lake. Pay $2 launch fee at marina.

Swimming, windsurfing, paddle boarding and gas powered boat motors are prohibited. A Virginia State Fishing License is required for fishing.

The Center for the Arts is the centerpiece of performing arts on the Fairfax campus of George Mason University. Each year the Center welcomes thousands of community members into its 2000-seat Concert Hall for performances by renowned professional artists, accomplished faculty, and emerging student artists.

Great Performances at Mason, an annual season of national and international artists, features the best of classical music, opera, jazz, world music, dance, theater, global music and dance, and more. The Center for the Arts is also the performing home for the Fairfax Symphony Orchestra.

Fairfax Corner is a beautiful mixed-use shopping center that offers main street style shopping at both national chains and local boutiques. It features fun events and entertainment, a state of the art movie theater and some the best restaurants around.

Fairfax Corner also combines office space for rent and residential living to make it the ideal place to live, work, dine and shop.

Oak Hill Mansion, a privately owned 18th century Georgian-style home, is all that remains of the Ravensworth Tract – totaling more than 22,000 acres – dating from the 1670s.

Under an innovative agreement involving the County, the Park Authority and the Northern Virginia Conservation Trust, the home is privately owned and maintained, but preserved as a historic site and open to the public up to four times per year.

The EagleBank Arena (originally the Patriot Center) is a 10,000-seat arena located on the campus of George Mason University. It has attracted 9.6 million people to over 2,958 events.

On May 7, 2015, George Mason University announced that the name would be changed on July 1 to "EagleBank Arena at George Mason University," following a partnership deal with EagleBank. It's a great place to check out a sporting event or concert.

Bruce Springsteen, Keith Urban, Bob Dylan, Ricardo Arjona, Enrique Iglesias, the Harlem Globetrotters and Disney on Ice are only a few of the concerts and family shows that have performed at the arena over the past 29 years.

Royal Lake is a 42 acre lake is filled with fascinating wildlife within the woodlands and on the lakefront, including nocturnal animals such as bats and opossums. The lake itself contains bass, sunfish, crappie and catfish. There is also a two mile trail that circles the lake, making it a great spot for a run, a bike ride or a just a relaxing stroll.

Wakefield Chapel was built in 1899 on land donated by local sawmill owner, Oliver Besley.

The chapel was named for its first local preacher, the Reverend E. W. Wakefield, a colorful figure in Virginia Methodism and a Union Officer during the Civil War. The building served as a community church until 1951, and was later turned over to the Park Authority to be preserved for future generations.

A country Gothic structure with white clapboard siding and arched windows, Wakefield Chapel is a quaint setting for weddings or other services and ceremonies. It features original pews, two stained-glass windows and a beautifully restored pulpit.

Audrey Moore Recreation Center at Wakefield Park is approximately 76,000 square feet in size and houses a 50m pool with one 3m and two 1m diving boards. The natatorium also contains spectator seating, doors that lead to a spacious outdoor sundeck, and locker rooms containing saunas and showers. In addition to the various racquetball and squash courts, the center has a large gymnasium with six basketball hoops, and volleyball nets.

The center also contains a cycle studio, a dance room, a pottery lab and kiln, an arts and crafts room, three multi-purpose activity rooms, and a senior center. Wakefield Skate Park, located next to the rec center, offers a chance for people of all ages and skill levels to enjoy the thrills and excitement of skateboarding, inline skating, and BMX biking on our Freestyle and Competition courses.

Visitors utilize the many public computers at the City of Fairfax Regional Library. The bookcases photographed are only a portion of the resources the library has to offer.

Fairfax Landmarks: Regional Library

A large array of books and magazines, sleek cherry wood study tables, and the quiet atmosphere of the City of Fairfax Regional Library make it an inviting location for members of the community to visit.

The library shines mostly because of its Virginia Room. This room, located on the 2nd floor, houses a comprehensive collection of Civil War history, genealogy books, old maps, newspapers and manuscripts. The collection extends passed the state of Virginia, bringing in many curious citizens and researchers from various locations.

"It [the Virginia Room] is superb for the City of Fairfax, Fairfax County, and the state of Virginia," said Virginia Room librarian Laura Wickstead.

In addition to the Virginia Room, the library contains an extended room known as the Rare Books Room. This room is a special collection of even more of the historical archives of books, manuscripts, periodicals, and roughly 45,000 negatives from various decades. It is available to visitors upon request of a librarian.

The library attracts members of the community from all ages not only because of its resources, but also because of its regular events. One event called Tales to Tails brings children of all ages to practice reading to a therapy dog.

For more information about the library, Virginia Room, and upcoming events call 703-293-6227 or visit <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/library/branches/fx/>. The library is located at 10360 North Street, Fairfax.

NEWCOMERS & COMMUNITY GUIDE

Welcome from Police Chief Ed Roessler

Dear Community Members:

The Fairfax County Police Department was established on July 1, 1940 and today we have an authorized strength of 1,372 sworn law enforcement officers who protect and serve the communities of the County. On average, officers respond to over 400,000 calls for service each year. As we engage with the communities we serve, we understand our profession must always assess our services and constantly strive to challenge each other to re-engineer how we deliver essential law enforcement services in a community that exceeds 1.1 million residents. We are fortunate to have an engaged community which continues to assist us in preventing and fighting crime, increasing the culture of safety to preserve the sanctity of life for all, and keep pace with rapid urbanization.

Your Police Department proactively undertook an independent review of its use of force training, and related policies and procedures. The review, conducted by the Police Executive Research Forum, proposed 71 enhancement recommendations. The core theme of change is adopting the philosophy of the sanctity of life in all we do. We have initiated policy changes and embarked on many training programs which embrace state-of-the-art decision making models and best practices for de-escalation and escalation techniques and new initiatives to safely interact and divert from jail those suffering mental illness. Currently 43 percent of our patrol officers are certified in Crisis Intervention Team training and all recruits now receive parallel training.

Other recent policy changes include the concepts of being able to hold and contain events in order to develop successful resolutions to each call for service when possible.

In 2014 the Police Department began a self-assessment process to align all of its policies and procedures to comply with several hundred national standards established by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies. The on-site assessment, required to obtain accredited status, is scheduled for early 2016 and will be conducted by assessors from outside the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Department continues to maintain its accredited status from the Virginia Law Enforcement Professional Standards Commission.

During the last year the Department's social media presence has continued to expand in efforts toward sharing more information with the community. Recently the Department posted 10 years of officer-involved shooting case summaries and data on our public web site. Our goal is to share information on officer-involved shooting cases in order for the community to better understand the investigative processes of these events and to engage in dialogue on these matters.

In 2013, the Department created a Chief's Council on Diversity Recruitment. Its strategic mission is to assist the Department to increase the cultural diversity of the sworn, civilian, and volunteer workforce to better reflect the diversity of the communities we serve. When visiting the Chief's web site you can view the diversity scorecard accountability measure, read the Council's strategic plan document, and learn about the varied volunteer opportunities you can engage in with the Police Department.

Several community members have graciously volunteered time from their busy personal lives to establish and serve on a Communities of Trust Committee which is comprised of all public safety agencies and reports directly to the chairman of the County Board of Supervisors. This effort aligns well with recommendations from the Task Force on 21st Century Policing. Many forums have been held throughout the community and numerous initiatives are in development to increase public engagement with the community to build upon mutual trust.

The Police Department, along with the Community Services Board, other public safety agencies, and mental health advocates have partnered to develop additional crisis intervention programs, including a drop off center which will provide a viable jail diversion alternative for those in mental health crisis. We look forward to achieving this critical strategic goal.

In recent years a majority of our homicides have been domestic related. On July 1, 2015, the Fairfax County Police Department launched a Lethality Assessment Program in which all patrol officers have been trained to administer an assessment to provide resources to victims of domestic violence which are available 24/7. This program truly demonstrates engagement with many partners who share our goal in increasing services and eliminating domestic violence.

In early 2015 another community engagement endeavor was launched with the creation of the Ad Hoc Police Policy and Practices Commission. This Commission is comprised of five sub-committees which are conducting reviews of the Police Department as related to use of force; communications; recruitment, diversity, and applicant vetting; and independent oversight and investigations. The Commission will make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors this fall. The Police Department is highly engaged with all of the community members serving on the Commission and we look forward to positive change recommendations to better serve all of Fairfax County.

The Police Department values technology advances and we are migrating to a new records management system to assist all personnel in achieving an intelligence led community policing model. The Department is also preparing to institute an electronic summons system for issuing traffic and criminal violations. Our patrol cruisers are equipped with in-car video recording devices and we are exploring the viability of body worn cameras with community stakeholders.

The new site is in an industrial area on more than one-third of an acre where two lots will be consolidated.

Planned is a two-story building, possibly done in phases, depending on funding. There'll be a parking area and bike rack, plus landscaping improvements.

Inside will be a great room where meals are served, plus offices, classrooms and meeting rooms.

And there'll be a loitering-prevention plan and video monitoring. The facility will be open Monday-Friday, 8 a.m.-3 p.m.; and Saturday, 8 a.m.-12:30 p.m., with four full-time staff members and four volunteers there at all times.

The new location will be farther away from retail establishments, yet close to transportation. And since it'll be built to The Lamb Center's specifications, the new building will be more efficient than the current one.

As your local, weekly newspaper, the Connection's mission is to deliver the local news you need, to try to make sense of what is happening in your community, to gather information about the best things in and around your community, to advocate for community good, to provide a forum for dialogue on local concerns, and to celebrate and record achievements, milestones and events in the community and people's lives.

Here in our Newcomers and Community Guide, we've included an expanded and updated version of our award-winning Insider's Guide to the Parks, plus details of how to vote in the upcoming elections, information on local government, nonprofits and business organizations, plus tips and tidbits from the community.

We invite newcomers and long-time residents alike to let us know how we're doing and let us know what is going on in your part of the community. If you have questions or ideas, send us an e-mail or call us, contact us on Facebook or send us a tweet. We invite you to send letters to the editor or to send an email with feedback about our coverage.

We want to know if someone in your family or your community published a book, started a business, became an Eagle Scout, raised money for a good cause, accomplished some feat like running a marathon, supporting a cause or having art included in an art show. We publish photos and notes about personal milestones and community events, including births, engagements, weddings, anniversaries, awards and obituaries.

We are also interested in events at your church, mosque, synagogue, community center, pool, school, club, etc. Email us a note about the event, being sure to include when and where the photo was taken and the names of all the people who are in a photo. We also publish notes about news and events from local businesses. Notes about openings, new employees and anniversaries are welcome. It is especially important to us to let people know about events ahead of time in our calendar of events. We appreciate getting notice at least two weeks ahead of the event, and we encourage photos.

Your community Connection newspaper is one of 15 papers published by the independent, locally owned Local Media Connection LLC, serving the suburbs of Metropolitan Washington in Northern Virginia and Potomac, Md.

Our flagship paper, the Alexandria Gazette Packet, is one of the oldest continuously publishing papers in the country, beginning publication in 1784.

The Connection Newspapers have won hundreds of press awards in just the past few years, including the Virginia Press Association Award for Journalistic Integrity and Community Service, Best in Show for our Insiders Guide to the Parks, first place for our community guides, plus awards in news, art, business, special projects, sports, entertainment, design, photography and much more.

We have staff and contributors here at the Connection with remarkable talent and experience, far greater than one might expect. We continue to publish 15 distinct papers every week that serve their communities in distinct ways.

We welcome contributing writers, with the caveat that our freelance pay is nominal; if you are interested in covering news or events in your community, email editors@connectionnewspapers.com. We offer summer and year-round educational internships with information at www.connectionnewspapers.com/internships.

In addition to our weekly coverage, we have monthly special focus pages on Wellbeing; Education, Learning, Fun; and HomeLifeStyle, plus other seasonal specials including Real Estate, Senior Living, Fall Fun, Food and Entertainment (also Winter, Spring and Summer), a twice annual Pet Connection, and others. If you have story ideas for these, email editors@connectionnewspapers.com; if are interested in marketing, email sales@connectionnewspapers.com.

Meet the Candidates for County Board

All politics is local, in Fairfax County, too: Who runs for Board of Supervisors in November?

You may be surprised – or dismayed – to learn that the 10 men and women who occupy Fairfax County Board of Supervisors wield enormous power and influence over your everyday lives.

They set your tax rate, fund the public school system, and determine priorities and policies for issues ranging from affordable housing, homelessness and human services to economic development, traffic calming and the environment.

They manage a $7 billion budget, larger than the budgets of four states, and rule over a county with a diverse, well-educated population of more than a million people.

Their decisions can propel our community forward – or cost us our first-rate status in education, livability and culture.

If you happen to meet them this election season, thank them for the long-awaited Silver Line expansion, a success that directly benefits you and your property values. Or, you may want to chide them for the extra $185 you will pay in property taxes this year, or the generous $20,000 pay raise they gave themselves after increasing your property taxes.

They do want to hear from you. What they don't want to hear are complaints about potholes on your road. Not because they don't care, but because they can't do anything about it.

In the Commonwealth of Virginia, the state builds, maintains and operates local roads. Transportation funding, you will quickly learn, is a perennial hot topic in the Virginia General Assembly.

So is redistricting, also known as gerrymandering, which has kept the Commonwealth in another form of gridlock as Republicans and Democrats struggle ceaselessly for control of the legislature.

Another perennial problem is the socioeconomic divide between affluent Northern Virginia (NOVA) – where you now reside – and the Rest of Virginia (ROVA) – where a chunk of your tax dollars disappear. NOVA gets less back from Richmond than we send down there, and so Northern Virginians have the privilege of paying extra taxes (and tolls) to fund the badly-needed improvements to our transportation infrastructure. It drives us a little crazy.

As a newcomer, you may wonder why we still call ourselves a “Commonwealth,” instead of just an ordinary state. Good question. Virginia retained this nomenclature – as did Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania – when we adopted our first constitution in 1776, most likely to emphasize the fact that our new government was based upon the sovereignty of the people united for the common good. If we're really honest, we are also very proud of the ruckus we kicked up with the British Monarchy when we declared our independence. There's a reason our state motto is “Sic Semper Tyrannis,” Latin for “thus always to tyrants.”

So, dear newcomer: Wherever you are from, you are here now. In the Old Dominion, the Mother of Presidents. Let that sink in for a moment.

We hope you will appreciate the fact that you are here, reading this guide, during an important election season. We assume you will join the ranks of Fairfax County's prolific electorate, where nearly 43 percent of residents cast their ballots last year, and vote on Nov. 3.

To make it a little easier for you, and give you the opportunity to feel like “political insiders,” we asked each of the 19 BOS candidates to give you their answers to questions specifically geared toward newcomers.

Their responses are unedited and enlightening. We hope.

Questions

1) What should newcomers know about the impact the Board of Supervisors has on their daily lives? In other words - what do you do at the county level that's important enough to compel newcomers to vote in this election?

2) To make newcomers feel at home, what's a “must-see” place or event you recommend they check out in Fairfax County or your district?

3) What's your favorite sports team?

4) Fairfax County gained national and global Twitter prominence earlier this year when outraged FCPS students started the Twitter hashtag #closeFCPS after school officials did not call a snow day when it actually snowed. What Twitter or Instagram hashtag would you like to see trending in the coming year about Fairfax County or your district?

Money: How much have they raised?

We've compiled the most recent financial filings for candidates in the 2015 race for Fairfax County Board of Supervisors. The figures represent the reports candidates filed on July 15 for the period from Jan. 1, 2012 through June 30, 2015. The next financial report will be filed in September. For more details on candidates' financial filings, go to www.VPAP.org/localities/Fairfax-county-va/elections/tracked/

4) Trending: #FairfaxCounty/#model/EngagedCommunity
“I'd like to see #FairfaxModel become a trend for what we are doing in the area of mental health. I want others to look to us the way we are looking to Memphis and Bexar County for examples of how to adequately train public safety to deal with people suffering from mental illness and diverting those individuals from jail into treatment.”

ANSWERS: PARKER
1) Your commute depends on politics, More Trains, Less Traffic! Trains as fast as planes. Nationwide and local rail feeder systems. We need light rail to serve tourists and VRE service throughout the day and on weekends. The BOS can pressure the Virginia General Assembly and Virginia Congressional delegation to remove the barrier that prevents building rail mass transit and to encourage renewable energy – solar, wind, geothermal. Rail built anywhere in America benefits ALL of America.

ANSWERS: OLESZEK

1) Newcomers to Fairfax County should know the famous quip “all politics is local.”

Local politics IS the Fairfax Board of Supervisors, who decide on issues and policies that direct our police, emergency and fire departments, while at the same time fund our public schools, parks, libraries and social services. Water, sewers and garbage collection are important duties of the Board too. So you can easily see that your vote will directly influence who will be making the decisions that affect your daily life and protect the quality of our community. In this election, we will be deciding on issues of importance such as the future of Braddock Road, which voters will be hearing more about from me.

2) Braddock District is home to some of the very best high school athletic programs in Northern Virginia, so come check out some of the games during fall sports season this year! You can meet me at the Friday night football games.
3) We are a baseball family. My sons and husband love the Nationals. Their love and enthusiasm for the game has rubbed off on me. Go Nats!
4) #keepBraddockBeautiful

ANSWERS: CAMPBELL
1) It's your money. Vote. Help decide how your taxpayer cash is, or isn't spent! The Board of Supervisors decides the property tax rate for our homes. It sets fees. The Board then decides how money is spent. How much? Over $7 billion bucks last year.

Carey C. Campbell

I'm the Independent candidate in the nonpartisan Braddock District race. I'm for Green Growth. Smart Growth. The Green New Deal. Positive eco-solutions for the economy. Invest in money-making infrastructure. Get a return on our investment. Rail, bikeable, walkable, pedestrian-friendly communities increase the value of our homes, businesses, communities. That grows revenue for our schools, police, and fire departments.

You can make all the difference by voting. Your vote. Your money. Our community.
It's about your money. Let's grow our community, and get solid returns on investments in our community.

I ask for your vote for Braddock District Supervisor!
2) Must see: This Plus Green house. Plus means it creates more energy than it consumes.
Check out my house! 51 solar panels. Geothermal heating and cooling.

The first year installed the solar and geothermal produced 10 times the energy the house consumed. I'm making money. You can too! The exact same way. Every quarter I receive a check for my (SRECs). Last quarter the check was almost $1,400.00.

Here's the check on my Facebook page.
