Neighborhood Development Outlook Update

GSA Warehouse 6808 Loisdale Road, Building A

The large warehouse off Loisdale Road in Springfield is in the running to become the new headquarters of the FBI. The building, owned by the General Services Administration (GSA) is competing with sites in Greenbelt and Landover. Environmental impact statements regarding the three sites are expected to be released this fall, with the final contract scheduled to be awarded in spring 2016.

Corridor study of Van Dorn Street from Kingstowne to Alexandria city

Supervisor Jeff McKay (D-Lee) is interested in tapping into an Alexandria study of the corridor, extending it to Kingstowne and potentially bringing a bus rapid transit system to Van Dorn. The County is working with Alexandria to make sure the stretch is part of the conversation.

Bonefish Grille parking lot area

5920 Kingstowne Town Center, Alexandria
The Bonefish parking lot area has been approved for the building of four office structures, including a special exception to allow for a residential component and ground-level retail. However no detailed plans have been provided. The mix of condos, apartments and age-restricted housing has gone through rezoning but is still in very early stages.

Gambrill Pointe subdivision
Gambrill Pointe Court and Ridge Creek Way

These 20 homes on roughly 11 acres are built and finished selling.

Corbet Manor Around 7717 Gambrill Road

Seven single-family homes are going into 4.5 acres of what were previously unconsolidated parcels of land. The project has been approved, but construction is pending.

Park Pointe subdivision East side of Gambrill Road, near the Fairfax County

Homes are finished selling in the new Gambrill Pointe subdivision.

Parkway.

Eighteen single-family homes on 7.7 acres have been approved; the plan is still under site review.

Wegmans at Hilltop Village Center (corner of Telegraph Road and Beulah Street)

The long-awaited grocery experiencing destination opened June 14. The 126,000 square-foot store includes a full-service "Pub" bar-restaurant.

Liberty View 13.45-acre site near Beulah Street and the Fairfax County Parkway.

This was approved for single family home neighborhoods, four office buildings and fifth structure that would be either a hotel or office building. It was rezoned in 2011 and previous structures have been demolished.

Springfield Town Center 6500 Springfield Mall, Springfield

Since the Oct. 14 2014 release of the tenants roster, owner Pennsylvania Real Estate Investment Trust announced there have been over 60,000 square feet of new tenant leases executed at the rebuilt version of what was once called Springfield Mall. Later stages of redevelopment planning for the area include residential, office and hotel space.

But their execution will be dictated by the performance of the Springfield Town Center market. Dave and Busters have applied for permits and are hopeful to be open by the end of 2015.

Jennings Toyota and new field 7601 Loisdale Road, Springfield

The Japanese car brand dealership has already been completed. Part of that construction included a proffer for a new artificial turf field at Loisdale Park. The field is now open to local sports groups after a ribbon cutting ceremony on April 23.

U-Haul Warehouse at 5285 Port Royal Road.

U-Haul is planning to repurpose a previously vacant personal storage facility for a truck rental business. The Planning Commission recommended approval of the re-zoning required for the project in its May 21 meeting. The Board of Supervisors approved amending the zoning ordinance and special exception application in its June 23 meeting.

schools both academically and athletically in the country. As a West Springfield High School alumnus there's few things I enjoy more than getting to a football game in the fall where there's a buzz in the air and a little snap of cold from the changing seasons. So cheer on your local high school team at West Springfield, Lake Braddock, Fairfax, Chantilly, South County, Robinson or Centreville (nationally ranked in 2015).

4. WSHS Job Fair: On March 12, 2016, I will be hosting a job fair for teens and recent graduates at West Springfield High School. The last one I hosted was a great success with over 35 local companies looking for employees. Many students got jobs right at the job fair, and others were given opportunities to interview at a company. This is a great way to connect our youngsters with our business community, so if your child is looking for full time or part time employment mark your calendar for March 12 and sign up to my email list where I will publish more details by emailing springfield@fairfaxcounty.gov. I am planning a second job fair in the western part of the district.

5. The Children's Science Center Lab: The newly opened Children's Science Center Lab in Fair Oaks Mall is a fantastic museum that allows children (and their parents) to get hands on experience with STEM concepts (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math). Education is so important, and this museum which is designed for kids between 2 and 12 years old does an excellent job of challenging and shaping young minds. Be sure to stay and shop and/or eat at one of the best malls in the area.

—SUPERVISOR PAT HERRITY (R-SPRINGFIELD)

There are so many quality places to visit in the Springfield District, it is hard to pick five. Here is my attempt:

1. Burke Lake Park: Burke Lake Park is the most visited park in Fairfax County's Park system, and after going there you will see why. The park contains a trail that goes around the lake and is great for walking (with or without your dog), running and cycling. There is also fishing, boat rentals, camping, disc golf, mini-golf, an 18 hole golf course, a driving range, volleyball courts and a miniature train ride. There's something for everyone.

2. Clifton: Clifton is a beautiful town that feels like you're a million miles from the hustle and bustle of Fairfax County. It is tucked away in the southwestern portion of the Springfield district. There are regular events such as Clifton Day, the Labor Day Car Show and the Clifton Wine Festival that attract visitors from all over Northern Virginia, but I personally like going there when it feels like I can have the whole place to myself and I can enjoy the excellent restaurants there and get a "Pat Herrity Root Beer Float" from Peterson's Ice Cream to finish the day.

3. Friday Night Lights: The Springfield District has some of the best high

NEWCOMERS & COMMUNITY GUIDE

Welcome from Police Chief Ed Roessler

Dear Community Members:

The Fairfax County Police Department was established on July 1, 1940 and today we have an authorized strength of 1,372 sworn law enforcement officers who protect and serve the communities of the County. On average, officers respond to over 400,000 calls for service each year. As we engage with the communities we serve, we understand our profession must always assess our services and constantly strive to challenge each other to re-engineer how we deliver essential law enforcement services in a community that exceeds 1.1 million residents. We are fortunate to have an engaged community which continues to assist us in preventing and fighting crime, increasing the culture of safety to preserve the sanctity of life for all, and keep pace with rapid urbanization.

Your Police Department proactively undertook an independent review of its use of force training, and related policies and procedures. The review, conducted by the Police Executive Research Forum, proposed 71 enhancement recommendations. The core theme of change is adopting the philosophy of the sanctity of life in all we do. We have initiated policy changes and embarked on many training programs which embrace state-of-the-art decision making models and best practices for de-escalation and escalation techniques and new initiatives to safely interact and divert from jail those suffering mental illness. Currently 43 percent of our patrol officers are certified in Crisis Intervention Team training and all recruits now receive parallel training.

Other recent policy changes include the concepts of being able to hold and contain events in order to develop successful resolutions to each call for service when possible.

In 2014 the Police Department began a self-assessment process to align all of its policies and procedures to comply with several hundred national standards established by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies. The on-site assessment, required to obtain accredited status, is scheduled for early 2016 and will be conducted by assessors from outside the Commonwealth of Virginia. The Department continues to maintain its accredited status from the Virginia Law Enforcement Professional Standards Commission.

During the last year the Department's social media presence has continued to expand in efforts toward sharing more information with the community. Recently the Department posted 10 years of officer-involved shooting case summaries and data on our public web site. Our goal is to share information on officer-involved shooting cases in order for the community to better understand the investigative processes of these events and to engage in dialogue on these matters.

In 2013, the Department created a Chief's Council on Diversity Recruitment. Its strategic mission is to assist the Department to increase the cultural diversity of the sworn, civilian, and volunteer workforce to better reflect the diversity of the communities we serve. When visiting the Chief's web site you can view the diversity scorecard accountability measure, read the Council's strategic plan document, and learn about the varied volunteer opportunities you can engage in with the Police Department.

Several community members have graciously volunteered time from their busy personal lives to establish and serve on a Communities of Trust Committee which is comprised of all public safety agencies and reports directly to the chairman of the County Board of Supervisors. This effort aligns well with recommendations from the Task Force on 21st Century Policing. Many forums have been held throughout the community and numerous initiatives are in development to increase public engagement with the community to build upon mutual trust.

The Police Department, along with the Community Services Board, other public safety agencies, and mental health advocates have partnered to develop additional crisis intervention programs, including a drop off center which will provide a viable jail diversion alternative for those in mental health crisis. We look forward to achieving this critical strategic goal.

In recent years a majority of our homicides have been domestic related. On July 1, 2015, the Fairfax County Police Department launched a Lethality Assessment Program in which all patrol officers have been trained to administer an assessment to provide resources to victims of domestic violence which are available 24/7. This program truly demonstrates engagement with many partners who share our goal in increasing services and eliminating domestic violence.

In early 2015 another community engagement endeavor was launched with the creation of the Ad Hoc Police Policy and Practices Commission. This Commission is comprised of five sub-committees which are conducting reviews of the Police Department as related to use of force; communications; recruitment, diversity, and applicant vetting; and independent oversight and investigations. The Commission will make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors this fall. The Police Department is highly engaged with all of the community members serving on the Commission and we look forward to positive change recommendations to better serve all of Fairfax County.

The Police Department values technology advances and we are migrating to a new records management system to assist all personnel in achieving an intelligence led community policing model. The Department is also preparing to institute an electronic summons system for issuing traffic and criminal violations. Our patrol cruisers are equipped with in-car video recording devices and we are exploring the viability of body worn cameras with community stakeholders.

NEWCOMERS & COMMUNITY GUIDE

Supervisor Welcomes You to Lee District

Supervisor Jeff McKay (D-Lee) reflects on must-visit places in his district.

Dear Lee District Newcomer: Welcome to Fairfax County and Lee District. I am very pleased to meet you and I'm sure you won't be a newcomer for long. Lee District is a friendly place, filled with a mix of longtime residents and those who've come here from somewhere else. The first thing I'd like to do is invite you to drop by my office to meet me and my staff. We'll be happy to tell you about the district, provide information about Fairfax County and its many opportunities, and answer any questions you may have. We're at 6121 Franconia Road in the Alexandria section of Fairfax County and we share the building with the Franconia Police Station and the Franconia Museum.

There are some wonderful places to visit in Lee District. If you're in the mood for shopping, don't miss the Springfield Town Center and Wegmans. The Springfield Town Center is on Franconia Road, just a short distance from the Franconia-Springfield Metro Station. It's got loads of great restaurants and retail and it hosts a farmers market on Saturday mornings. (<http://springfieldtowncenter.com/>)

Wegmans, at the corner of Beulah Street and Telegraph Road is a must-visit and I challenge you to leave with empty hands.

Once you've had your fill of shopping, head over to Huntley Meadows Park, often called the jewel of the Fairfax County Park System. Huntley Meadows Park is more than 1,500 acres with majestic forests, wildflower-filled meadows and wetlands bursting with life. Take a walk on the wetlands boardwalk—and experience some of the best wildlife watching in the Washington metropolitan area. From the half mile long wetlands boardwalk trail and observation tower, you'll see beavers, frogs, dragonflies and herons. Huntley Meadows is well known as a prime birding spot, with over 200 species identified in the park. (<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/huntley-meadows-park/>) This 19th century architectural gem is located at 6918 Harrison Lane. You can visit the house for scheduled programs and tours as well as Saturday tours between the months of April and October.

The Lee District ReCenter and park has two unique features—an accessible treehouse and Our Special Harbor accessible spraypark. The complex features Chesapeake Bay-themed attractions including a spraying osprey nest, Chessie the sea serpent, misting sunflowers and a lighthouse. The beach area is quieter with softer bubblers and interactive water tables. The computerized water maze and dumping crab basket provide more lively activity. In addition to the spraypark, the family recreation area has a fully accessible tree house, and a playground for children of all abilities from ages 5 to 12. (<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/rec/leerec/lee-spraypark.htm>)

In keeping with our park theme, be sure to visit Lake Accotink Park and its 493 acres including a 55-acre lake, wetlands, and streams with splendid views of waterfowl and marsh life. I particularly recommend the tour boat rides on the lake—especially at sunset—and the canine cruises. (<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/lake-accotink/>)

Now that you've relaxed with nature and parks, it's time to experience some history.

Just a short walk from the main entrance to Huntley Meadows Park, you'll find Historic Huntley, the house that was built for Thomson Francis Mason. Thomson Francis Mason was the mayor of Alexandria, D.C. from 1827-30 and a grandson of George Mason, as well as author of the Virginia Declaration of Rights. He used the federal period villa, which was built for him in 1825, as a summer retreat. (<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/huntley-meadows-park/historic-huntley.htm>)

It's hard to imagine that busy Franconia Road was once a rural road for Virginia tobacco on its way to the port city of Alexandria. Before it was a bedroom community, Franconia was the birthplace of the first Virginia governor from Northern Virginia, witness to a Mosby raid, and a thriving Afro-American community called Carrolltown. The Franconia Museum, co-located with my office and the police station at 6121 Franconia Road, offers a glimpse into the Franconia of yesterday.

About the Connection

Keep in Touch

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR: Email to editors@connectionnewspapers.com or submit online at <http://www.connectionnewspapers.com/contact/letter/>

As your local, weekly newspaper, the Connection's mission is to deliver the local news you need, to try to make sense of what is happening in your community, to gather information about the best things in and around your community, to advocate for community good, to provide a forum for dialogue on local concerns, and to celebrate and record achievements, milestones and events in the community and people's lives.

Here in our Newcomers and Community Guide, we've included an expanded and updated version of our award-winning Insider's Guide to the Parks, plus details of how to vote in the upcoming elections, information on local government, nonprofits and business organizations, plus tips and tidbits from the community.

We invite newcomers and long-time residents alike to let us know how we're doing and let us know what is going on in your part of the community. If you have questions or ideas, send us an e-mail or call us, contact us on Facebook or send us a tweet. We invite you to send letters to the editor or to send an email with feedback about our coverage.

We want to know if someone in your family or your community published a book, started a business, became an Eagle Scout, raised money for a good cause, accomplished some feat like running a marathon, supporting a cause or having art included in an art show. We publish photos and notes about personal milestones and community events, including births, engagements, weddings, anniversaries, awards and obituaries.

We are also interested in events at your church, mosque, synagogue, community center, pool, school, club, etc. Email us a note about the event, being sure to include when and where the photo was taken and the names of all the people who are in a photo. We also publish notes about news and events from local businesses. Notes about openings, new employees and anniversaries are welcome. It is especially important to us to let people know about events ahead of time in our calendar of events. We appreciate getting notice at least two weeks ahead of the event, and we encourage photos.

Your community Connection newspaper is one of 15 papers published by the independent, locally owned Local Media Connection LLC, serving the suburbs of Metropolitan Washington in Northern Virginia and Potomac, Md.

Our flagship paper, the Alexandria Gazette Packet, is one of the oldest continuously publishing papers in the country, beginning publication in 1784.

The Connection Newspapers have won hundreds of press awards in just the past few years, including the Virginia Press Association Award for Journalistic Integrity and Community Service, Best in Show for our Insiders Guide to the Parks, first place for our community guides, plus awards in news, art, business, special projects, sports, entertainment, design, photography and much more.

We have staff and contributors here at the Connection with remarkable talent and experience, far greater than one might expect. We continue to publish 15 distinct papers every week that serve their communities in distinct ways.

We welcome contributing writers, with the caveat that our freelance pay is nominal; if you are interested in covering news or events in your community, email editors@connectionnewspapers.com. We offer summer and year-round educational internships with information at www.connectionnewspapers.com/internships.

In addition to our weekly coverage, we have monthly special focus pages on Wellbeing; Education, Learning, Fun; and HomeLifeStyle, plus other seasonal specials including Real Estate, Senior Living, Fall Fun, Food and Entertainment (also Winter, Spring and Summer), a twice annual Pet Connection, and others. ## Meet the Candidates for County Board

All politics is local, in Fairfax County, too: Who runs for Board of Supervisors in November?

You may be surprised – or dismayed – to learn that the 10 men and women who occupy Fairfax County Board of Supervisors wield enormous power and influence over your everyday lives.

They set your tax rate, fund the public school system, and determine priorities and policies for issues ranging from affordable housing, homelessness and human services to economic development, traffic calming and the environment.

They manage a $7 billion budget, larger than the budgets of four states, and rule over a county with a diverse, well-educated population of more than a million people.

Their decisions can propel our community forward – or cost us our first-rate status in education, livability and culture.

If you happen to meet them this election season, thank them for the long-awaited Silver Line expansion, a success that directly benefits you and your property values. Or, you may want to chide them for the extra $185 you will pay in property taxes this year, or the generous $20,000 pay raise they gave themselves after increasing your property taxes.

They do want to hear from you. What they don't want to hear are complaints about potholes on your road. Not because they don't care, but because they can't do anything about it.

In the Commonwealth of Virginia, the state builds, maintains and operates local roads. Transportation funding, you will quickly learn, is a perennial hot topic in the Virginia General Assembly.

So is redistricting, also known as gerrymandering, which has kept the Commonwealth in another form of gridlock as Republicans and Democrats struggle ceaselessly for control of the legislature.

Another perennial problem is the socioeconomic divide between affluent Northern Virginia (NOVA) – where you now reside – and the Rest of Virginia (ROVA) – where a chunk of your tax dollars disappear. NOVA gets less back from Richmond than we send down there, and so Northern Virginians have the privilege of paying extra taxes (and tolls) to fund the badly-needed improvements to our transportation infrastructure. It drives us a little crazy.

As a newcomer, you may wonder why we still call ourselves a “Commonwealth,” instead of just an ordinary state. Good question. Virginia retained this nomenclature – as did Kentucky, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania – when we adopted our first constitution in 1776, most likely to emphasize the fact that our new government was based upon the sovereignty of the people united for the common good. If we're really honest, we are also very proud of the ruckus we kicked up with the British Monarchy when we declared our independence. There's a reason our state motto is “Sic Semper Tyrannis,” Latin for “thus always to tyrants.”

So, dear newcomer: Wherever you are from, you are here now. In the Old Dominion, the Mother of Presidents. Let that sink in for a moment.

We hope you will appreciate the fact that you are here, reading this guide, during an important election season. We assume you will join the ranks of Fairfax County's prolific electorate, where nearly 43 percent of residents cast their ballots last year, and vote on Nov. 3.

To make it a little easier for you, and give you the opportunity to feel like “political insiders,” we asked each of the 19 BOS candidates to give you their answers to questions specifically geared toward newcomers.

Their responses are unedited and enlightening. We hope.

Questions

1) What should newcomers know about the impact the Board of Supervisors has on their daily lives? In other words - what do you do at the county level that's important enough to compel newcomers to vote in this election?

2) To make newcomers feel at home, what's a “must-see” place or event you recommend they check out in Fairfax County or your district?

3) What's your favorite sports team?
4) Fairfax County gained national and global Twitter prominence earlier this year when outraged FCPS students started the Twitter hashtag #closeFCPS after school officials did not call a snow day when it actually snowed. What Twitter or Instagram hashtag would you like to see trending in the coming year about Fairfax County or your district?

Money: How much have they raised?

We've compiled the most recent financial filings for candidates in the 2015 race for Fairfax County Board of Supervisors. The figures represent the reports candidates filed on July 15 for the period from Jan. 1, 2012 through June 30, 2015. The next financial report will be filed in September. I want others to look to us the way we are looking to Memphis and Bexar County for examples of how to adequately train public safety to deal with people suffering from mental illness and diverting those individuals from jail into treatment.”

4) #WSHSJobs – I will be holding my second annual job fair for teens and recent graduates at WSHS on March 12, 2016.

ANSWERS: FOLEY

1) As full-time Springfield Supervisor, I will provide leadership and community engagement for affordable taxes to maintain outstanding school system and safe neighborhoods. Vote for me, Corazon S. Foley, because the incumbent is not doing his job of constituent service to improve our quality of life, particularly for seniors. In particular, he has ignored our proposed solutions to redress unfairness toward Springfield senior taxpayers and families; other districts have 17 permanent senior centers, Springfield District NONE!
2) My three Burke history books describe former Coffey properties in Springfield: Burke/Coffey home (1825); and Braddock: Second Coffey Home (1790); Little Zion Baptist Church (1891).
3) The Burke/West Springfield Senior Center Without Walls (BWSSCWoW) Line Dance Teams won for three years the gold and silver medals in the Northern Virginia Senior Olympics – and have been providing public service with free performances at numerous community events.

ANSWERS: MCKAY

1) The County Board is the elected body closest to the people and has the most direct impact on residents' quality of life—everything from zoning enforcement to schools, libraries, parks, human services and transportation. We set the property tax rate. We are where residents go for information and assistance, often for matters involving the state and federal government even when they are not our responsibility.
2) The new Springfield Town Center—light years away from its predecessor and a vibrant shopping and dining center that appeals to residents and visitors alike.

Getting to Know Area High School Sports

West Springfield

Highlights: Girls' basketball won fifth conference/district title in six years.

School: West Springfield High School

Mascot: Spartans.

School Colors: Blue and orange.

Athletic Director: Andy Muir, 703-913-3861.

Notable: The girls' basketball program has won at least 21 games in seven consecutive seasons. During that stretch, the Spartans have a record of 171-25 with five Conference 7/Patriot District championships, one AAA Northern Region title and four trips to the state tournament.

Quotable: "They know [regionals is] next. You go undefeated in district, you feel a little good about that and you feel we should win [the conference tournament], no two ways about it. If we go out and play like we can play, we're going to win, but you've still got to go out and do it and that's what they did." — West Springfield girls' basketball coach Bill Gibson about the Spartans' less-than-ecstatic response to winning the conference title.

Lee High School

Highlights: Softball, boys', girls' basketball teams made regionals.

Quotable: "It's a huge win for us because being a No. 4 seed, not too many people expected us to be here and [nobody] expected us to beat what everybody was telling us was the best pitcher in the region. It's huge for us. These kids are ball players. All of them are serious ball players. Usually ... we have maybe four, five kids who are serious, then we've got another four who are fringe players, but I've got nine players here that can play ball." — Hayfield softball coach Ron Giovannucci after the Hawks upset Lake Braddock in the opening round of regionals.

Field Hockey Coach: Ginger White.

Boys' Basketball Coach: Terry Henderson.

Girls' Basketball Coach: Dianne Lewis.

Baseball Coach: Adam Wells.

Boys' Lacrosse Coach: Jason Jeffries.

Girls' Lacrosse Coach: Samantha Shterengarts

What happened last year: The girls' basketball team won its third straight region championship, second at the 5A level. The boys' basketball team finished Conference 13 runner-up and reached the region quarterfinals. The girls' lacrosse team went 10-5 and finished conference runner-up.

Quotable: "He found a crease and they couldn't catch him. Do I think it deflated [Mount Vernon]? I really do. They had a really long drive — they drove right on down, they scored, we got the ball, we scored in one play and it was over." — Then-Edison football coach Scott Woodlief about Moses Kamara's 70-yard touchdown run during a 26-6 victory over Mount Vernon in 2014.

Edison running back Moses Kamara rushed for 166 yards and two touchdowns during a victory against Mount Vernon in 2014.

Mega Road Projects in Northern Virginia Keep Traffic Moving

In Northern Virginia, the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) is working to keep up with growth in the area with transportation projects at both ends of the spectrum. Whether it's a new highway overpass, intersection improvement, or high occupancy toll lanes, the goal at VDOT is to keep the traffic moving.

On the Capital Beltway (I-495), the 495 Express Lanes opened in 2012 to give motorists an option when traveling through this busy corridor. Two additional lanes were constructed on the beltway in each direction between the Springfield Interchange (where I-95, I-495 and I-395 meet south of Washington) and a point on the beltway just north of the Dulles Toll Road. These lanes are free to vehicles with three or more occupants, while vehicles with one or two occupants will be able to use the lanes by paying a toll electronically. The express lanes use dynamic pricing to manage the flow of traffic and keep motorists moving, and roadside equipment monitors traffic, adjusting toll prices periodically to maintain free-flowing travel. As traffic increases, the toll price goes up to manage demand.

IN DECEMBER 2014, VDOT opened a 29-mile stretch of express lanes on I-95/395 between a point just north of Edsall Road in Alexandria, to Garrisonville Road (Route 610) in the south. These express lanes are reversible: on weekday mornings, the lanes head north to cater to commuters heading to busy employment centers like Tysons

In the overnight hours, crews pour the deck for the Seminary Road bridge over I-395.

Corner and Washington, D.C.; and in the afternoons, the lanes head south. Again, vehicles with three occupants can use the 95 Express Lanes for free, while cars with one or two occupants can choose to use the lanes by paying a toll, which varies depending on the number of cars in the lanes at that time. All vehicles using the 495 or 95 Express Lanes need an E-ZPass, or an E-ZPass Flex, which has a switch to engage the toll-free option when there are three or more occupants. Another highway construction project is underway at Seminary Road and I-395 in Alexandria. There VDOT is building a multi-faceted project that include a new 0.8-mile auxiliary lane on I-395 North between Duke Street and Seminary Road, as well as a new ramp from the HOV lanes to the Seminary Road bridge overpass, and a new pedestrian bridge over I-395. These projects are intended to improve the flow of traffic associated with the Mark Center, a federal government building located in that area. The auxiliary lane opened in February with the HOV ramp and the stand-alone pedestrian bridge scheduled to open later this fall.

Other recently opened "Megaprojects" include the Fairfax County Parkway Extension, linking Springfield to Richmond Highway in southern Fairfax County; the fourth lane widening project, which added an extra lane on I-95 North and South between Springfield and Occoquan; the Telegraph Road interchange on the Capital Beltway in Alexandria; and the 495 Shoulder Lane project on the inner loop of I-495 between the 495 Express Lanes' northern endpoint and the George Washington Memorial Highway. Similar to the shoulder lane on I-66, this shoulder lane is open during the morning and evening rush hours, with a red "X" or green arrow signaling its availability for travel. In Arlington, just west of I-395, VDOT is putting finishing touches this summer on a new bridge carrying Washington Boulevard over Columbia Pike. This new bridge replaces a 1940's-era bridge, and includes bike and pedestrian access along Columbia Pike plus room for a future streetcar if needed. The bridge was renamed the Freedmans Bridge after the historical "Freedmans Village," a community the Federal government established in 1863 for newly freed slaves, that once occupied this area of Arlington.

VDOT officials are now looking to transform Northern Virginia's Interstate 66 into a multi-modal corridor that moves traffic and people quicker and in a more reliable way. The project, known as Transform 66, is a multi-modal proposal that will incorporate transit, carpooling and express lanes. The project is divided into a 25-mile stretch between Haymarket and the Capital Beltway, and a separate project inside the beltway with a toll option for travel through Falls Church and Arlington.
