West Springfield Welcomes Spartans

Unsuspecting underclassmen may have heard rumors of a nonexistent “third floor” at West Springfield High School. Soon enough, principal Michael Mukai pointed out, there will actually be one. A massive renovation is scheduled for this school year, and prominent in Mukai’s mind on the first day of school.

“Just getting everything in order — it’s a big shift,” he said. There are already trailers set up in the rear of the school to house displaced classrooms. And then there’s the matter of parking: All students and as many as 30 faculty members will lose the spots for their cars on school grounds during the renovation.

Sports practices may not be able to be held in the same place, and school plays might not be able to show in the auditorium. “We have to be prepared to deal with day to day changes,” Mukai said.

But on a warm, sunny first day of school, only two out of all the school’s buses were late, and just by a few minutes, the principal said. He doesn’t have to displace any drivers just yet. “We have a great community, to go with whatever happens and make adjustments.”

No Criminal Charges in Death of Natasha McKenna

Tasers did not directly cause Natasha McKenna’s death, nor are any of the Fairfax County Sheriff’s Office deputies involved with the case being charged with a crime. Those are the positions announced Tuesday, Sept. 8 by Commonwealth’s Attorney Raymond F. Morrogh.

Morrogh spoke in the late afternoon at a press conference outside the Fairfax Courthouse.

“Nobody is disputing the death of Natasha McKenna was indeed a tragedy,” Morrogh said.

McKenna was a 37-year-old woman with a history of mental illness including schizophrenia, bipolar disorder and depression. On February 8, McKenna died while in custody of the Sheriff’s Office.

Days before, Sheriff’s deputies had been attempting to move her from a cell to transportation to the City of Alexandria, where there was a felony warrant issued for her arrest.

During the attempted transport, McKenna was combative, spit and kicked, according to a 51-page report Morrogh released Tuesday. The deputies, having difficulty restraining her, repeatedly used a Conducted Energy Weapon, also referred to as a “Taser,” in an attempt to subdue her.

The April 28 Office of the Medical Examiner autopsy report for McKenna concluded her cause of death was “excited delirium associated with physical restraint including use of conducted energy device” and that the cause was an accident with contributing factors being the schizophrenia and bipolar disorder.

“The fact she was struggling might not be a conscious decision on her part,” Morrogh said, adding that people’s actions while dealing with these disorders “are no fault of their own.”

Morrogh’s report describes some of McKenna’s medical and mental health background, her hospitalizations at INOVA Springfield Healthplex, INOVA Alexandria Hospital and INOVA Mount Vernon Hospital for mental illness.

The report also describes her incarceration tion in Fairfax County, leading up to the day she was to be moved, Feb. 3. The description of her "extraction" by the Sheriff's Office deputies includes some statements from the deputies themselves that she was one of the strongest and difficult individuals they'd ever dealt with — male or female.

Though the video of the events leading up to and including the use of the Taser has still not been released to the public, Morrogh's report includes a written description of it with approximate time markers linked to specific actions, such as four marks of different uses of the Taser.

After reviewing the autopsy report, other cases of excited delirium, the guidelines and standards for operation of the Taser, Morrogh said "not difficult to apply the law to the facts of the case."

"In my legal opinion, no deputy involved in the case is in any way criminally responsible."

Morrogh's report is available online through the Fairfax County website at www.fairfaxcounty.gov/news/2015/report\_of\_investigation\_of\_incustody\_death.pdf

Focusing on Suicide Prevention

Help is a phone call away.

This week is Suicide Prevention Week. Preventing suicide means paying attention to mental health and treating depression, and there is no better time to focus on that than the first week of school.

In 2013, more than 41,000 people ended their own lives in the United States, more than 21,000 with firearms. (Compare to the number of murders in 2013, 16,120.) In 2013, more than 800,000 people were treated in U.S. emergency departments for self-inflicted injuries. More than a million adults report making a suicide attempt each year, while many more people struggle with thoughts of suicide, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Suicide is the 10th leading cause of death for Americans overall and the second leading cause of death among adolescents and young adults aged 15-29. More than half of suicides involve firearms.

In 2013, 1,047 Virginians died by suicide, with white males accounting for 716 of those deaths. The Southside region had the highest suicide rate at 19.3 per 100,000 in 2013, while the Northern region had the lowest rate at 10.1 deaths. (By comparison, there were 383 homicides in Virginia in 2013.)

Two groups particularly at risk are youth and the elderly. Data from the Virginia Department of Health indicates that rates of suicide in Virginia were higher for older people than youth — but suicide is a leading cause of death for young people.

One strategy to prevent suicide is to learn about the warning signs of suicide, which can include individuals talking about wanting to hurt themselves, increasing substance use, and having changes in their mood, diet, or sleeping patterns, according to the CDC. When these warning signs appear, quickly connecting the person to supportive services is critical. Promoting opportunities and settings that strengthen connections among people, families, and communities is another suicide prevention goal.

Exhibiting any of the signs listed below is reason for an immediate call to the National Suicide Prevention hotline at 1-800-273-8255 (TALK). If you cannot reach someone on this line, go to an emergency room, make sure you or your loved one is not alone until professional help arrives and remove all firearms, sharp objects, drugs, alcohol and other things that could be used in a suicide attempt.

- ❖ Talking about wanting to die or kill oneself.
- ❖ Talking or writing about suicide or death.
- ❖ Talking about feeling hopeless or having no reason to live.
- ❖ Talking about being a burden to others and how the world would be better off without him/her.
- ❖ Talking about being trapped or in unbearable pain.

Safety Is Paramount for the New School Year

A message from the Chief of Police about safety and the start of the new school year:

Dear Community Member,
As each school year comes to an end, the Fairfax County Police Department in partnership with our great community, Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS), and the Virginia Department of Transportation, begins a process to prepare for the start of school in the fall. Our mutual goal has always been and continues to be the safety of your children, pedestrians, and commuters to and from schools at the beginning and end of each day.

Your Police Department is committed to ensuring all children are safe at all crossings while maintaining efficient vehicle traffic flow. Based on your input, through an audit process, we have retrained crossing guards and upgraded several positions which are now certified in directing and controlling vehicle traffic outside the scope of the crosswalk to help alleviate traffic congestion. We will continue to audit all locations throughout the school year as mandated by our policy. Should you have any questions or comments, please contact Captain Michael F. Grinnan, Commander of the Traffic Division, at Michael.Grinnan@fairfaxcounty.gov.

The following links are available to learn more about school crossings:

You can visit the Fairfax County Police Department map of all school crossing sites at <http://fairfaxcountygis.maps.arcgis.com/apps/Viewer/index.html?appid=708ad1ef5c924029a9d12125d4c17ee8%20>

To view the Police Department's policy on school crossing guards, please visit: FCPD General Order 530.3.

For more information regarding your school start time, please visit: FCPS 2015-2016 Bell Schedule.

As a reminder, the beginning of each school year requires all of us to take extra caution in traveling our roadways and to be patient as others adjust to new routines in our day to logistically get our children to and from school. As your Chief of Police, we welcome your input to improve the safety of our children.

Sincerely,
Edwin C. Roessler Jr, Col
Chief of Police

Giving Diplomacy a Chance

To the Editor:

I thank Senator Mark Warner for his September 3 statement supporting the deal our government has jointly negotiated with other world powers to curb Iran's nuclear ambitions.

Nothing will be easy going forward with Iran. However, Senator Warner, like nearly 10,000 Virginians whose petitions we presented to him on Aug. 26, has rightly recognized that we must give diplomacy a chance well before force can be considered as a last, necessary choice.

Northern Virginia can be thank-

- ❖ Complete withdrawal.
- ❖ Showing rage or talking about seeking revenge.
- ❖ Displaying extreme mood swings and acting recklessly.
- ❖ Looking for ways to kill oneself, such as searching online or obtaining access to firearms, pills, or other means to kill oneself.
- ❖ Giving away prized possessions and other personal things; tying up loose ends.

Correction

In last week's editorial ("How to Vote; It Matters," Sept. 2, 2015), a list of offices up for election in Fairfax County failed to mention school board races. Here is the corrected text:

Each voter in Fairfax County will vote a ballot with choices in one State Senate district, one House of Delegates district, Clerk of the Court, Commonwealth's Attorney, Sheriff, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, District member of the Board of Supervisors, District member of the School Board, School Board At-large (vote for three), Soil and Water Conservation Board (vote for Three), School Bond for $310 million, Public Safety Bond for $151 million. See <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections/upcoming.htm>

ful that both our U.S. Senators plus Congressmen like Gerry Connolly and Don Beyer favor pursuing our best available option, which is the negotiated deal on the table, rather than precipitously risk putting our country again down the pathway to unnecessary war. We can only hope many more of their colleagues in Congress will see the logic and morality of this choice.

Thinking of downsizing?

Free seminar will focus on moving to a smaller place without sacrificing style.

BY MARILYN CAMPBELL
THE CONNECTION

Homeowners considering a move from a large home to a smaller dwelling will have an opportunity to receive expert advice on their transition later this month. Representatives from the real estate, moving and home design industries will host a lifestyle seminar to discuss downsizing issues like interior design, organizing and packing.

"The lifestyle seminar will address all aspects of moving and condo living, including what to keep, what to donate and how to decide," said Christine Basso of TTR Sotheby's International Realty. "The experts at Town & Country Movers will discuss ways to make the entire moving process run smoothly from starting early to the most effective ways to pack to determining what goes where."

According to Basso, seminar attendees will also hear from design experts who will offer guidance on personalizing one's living space. They will also give advice on topics such as measuring existing and new furniture for space placement and incorporating an art collection into a home's design.

The seminar will be held Sunday, Sept. 20 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Quarry Springs estate condominiums, located at 8101 River Road in Bethesda, Maryland. The Quarry Springs complex will open later this year.

To RSVP to the free event, contact Christine Basso at 202-302-2508. Visit <http://www.quarrysprings.com> for more information.

'Remodeled Home Tour'

A 3,700-square-foot, four-bedroom center hall Colonial renovated in phases over nearly two decades will be featured in a "Remodeled Home Tour" sponsored by Sun Design Remodeling. The house, at 1611 Noral Place in Alexandria, is owned by Paul and Laurie Carter. The residence will open to the public Sept. 12, noon-4 p.m.

Purchased by the Carters in 1998, the home has evolved steadily over the years. Originally a production house with builder-grade finishes, the whole house remodel now on display demonstrates the kinds of improvements and upgrades that can occur when owners continue to occupy, modifying the environment to suit evolving interests.

"The ideal of long term ownership is the option to create a home that, over time, becomes more supportive of favored activities and aesthetic preferences," says Bob Gallagher, Sun Design executive vice president.

"We are finding this kind of on-going commitment to personalizing a residence much more frequently than in decades past."

Sun Design Remodeling frequently sponsors tours of recently remodeled homes as well as workshops on home remodeling topics. Headquartered in Burke, the firm recently opened a second office in McLean. Call 703-425-5588 or visit www.SunDesignInc.com for more.

— JOHN BYRD

BEFORE: The original kitchen relied on rows of builder-grade cabinets for storage. Eliminating walls initially seemed impossible to Laurie, but custom cabinets by Sun Design's Jeremy Fleming created the opportunity for a wholly different floorplan.

AFTER: Paul and Laurie Carter, who remodeled their Alexandria home in several phases over nearly two decades, have made their home available for an "open house" Saturday, Sept. 12. The open kitchen plan (shown) was part of the final phase. Sun Design Remodeling introduced a transitional-style interior design.

Muskett Leads West Springfield to Season-Opening Win Over Robinson

Junior quarterback throws four touchdown passes, rushes for one.

BY JON ROETMAN
THE CONNECTION

With the score tied and 1:17 remaining in the fourth quarter of Friday's contest against Robinson, West Springfield quarterback Peter Muskett took the shotgun snap and headed around left end.

Moments later, the Spartan signal caller was sprinting down the sideline, turning a decent gain into a game-winning touchdown, putting the finishing touch on a fantastic season-opening effort.

Moments after Robinson tied the score, Muskett turned a quarterback trap play into a 55-yard touchdown, propelling the Spartans to a 35-28 victory on Sept. 4 at West Springfield High School. The junior and second-year varsity starter played a role in each of the Spartans' five touchdowns, leading West Springfield to its first season-opening win since 2012.

"He's a stud and he's only going to get better," third-year head coach Jason Eldredge said. "As soon as he actually starts reading the field, he's really going to be a scary football player."

Muskett took over as West Springfield's starting quarterback early in his sophomore season and led the Spartans to a share of the 2014 Conference 7 championship. West Springfield defeated Washington-Lee in the opening round of the 6A North playoffs before suffering a 27-24 season-ending loss to Lake Braddock in the quarterfinals.

THIS SEASON, West Springfield returns nine starters on offense and retained offensive coordinator Anthony Parker, bringing continuity to that side of the ball while helping Muskett grow as a quarterback.

"The continuity thing is priceless," Eldredge said. "Unfortunately, one of [Muskett's] weaknesses early on is his ability to read and make quick decisions. That he's overcoming now, as you can see. Obviously, the physical gifts he brings to the table [are] something special, but at that position it's your mind that has to be just as sharp. Being in the same offense one year to the next is a huge help to that."

Muskett completed 11 of 18 passes for 287 yards and four touchdowns, with one interception against Robinson. He also carried 19 times for 130 yards and a score.

"I feel a lot more confident and we're clicking easier," Muskett said about his second season as a varsity starter, "and it's just completely different from last year."

Muskett connected with sophomore Jordan Hughes for a 57-yard touchdown late in the fourth quarter, extending West Springfield's lead to 28-20 with 2:49 remaining. Robinson responded with a six-play, 60-yard drive, capped by quarterback Alex Miller's 1-yard sneak for a touchdown. Senior running back Sean Foncha reached the ball out and broke the plane of the goal line on the ensuing two-point conversion attempt, tying the score at 28 with 1:26 remaining.

Muskett would score the game-winning touchdown on the first play of West Springfield's ensuing drive.

"He's much faster," senior left tackle Brock Vaughn said about Muskett, who increased his speed by running track. "... When he gets in the open field ... he's just gone."

After West Springfield and Robinson traded punts for much of the first quarter, Muskett gave the Spartans a 7-0 lead with a 94-yard touchdown pass to junior Daniel Adu with 1:38 remaining in the opening quarter.

Robinson led 14-7 late in the third quarter, when Muskett connected with senior Darean Robertson for a game-tying 48-yard touchdown.

On West Springfield's next possession, Muskett again found Adu, this time for a 26-yard score, giving the Spartans a 21-14 advantage.

"Honestly, [Muskett] put the team on his shoulders and when we needed it, he responded," Eldredge said. "That's the character of that kid. He works his tail off in the offseason. For him to do what he did today, he's a stud."

Foncha scored on a 17-yard run with 7:08 remaining in the fourth quarter, diving into the end zone to cut West Springfield's lead to one. The Spartans blocked the Rams' ensuing extra-point attempt and maintained the lead at 21-20.

Foncha carried 16 times for 89 yards and one touchdown. Senior running back Dajon Lee led Robinson with 119 yards on 16 carries. His 7-yard touchdown run with 2:41 left in the second quarter tied the score at 7.

Miller completed 4 of 10 passes for 47 yards and a touchdown.

FOR WEST SPRINGFIELD, Adu finished with four receptions for 143 yards and two touchdowns. Hughes had four catches for 68 yards and a score.

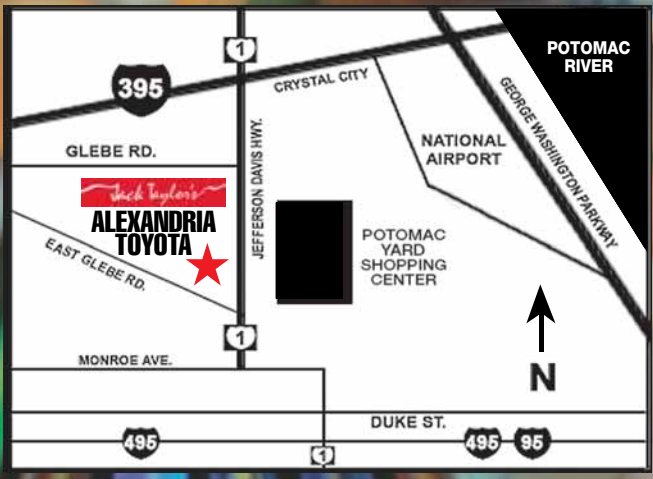

"[Our] ultimate goal is [a] state championship, but we view anything less than our 9-3 record last year as a disappointment," Muskett said. "We want to match that and surpass it."

West Springfield (1-0) will open conference play on the road against Mount Vernon (1-0) at 7 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 11. Robinson (0-1) will host Woodson (0-1) at 7 p.m.

"We had injuries," Eldredge said. "We were down to our last guys — we had a JV linebacker crew out there in the fourth quarter — so to me, we gutted it out. The irony of that is the way we lost our season last year, on the 1-yard line in the quarterfinal against Braddock with 1 second to go, for us to come out and win in the last seconds, means that maybe we've grown up a little bit."
