ONC Needs Clothes, Toys

And volunteers.

Each year at Christmastime, the nonprofit, all-volunteer organization, Our Neighbor's Child, provides new clothes and toys for families in need in the local area. But the need is so great that ONC can't do it without help from the local community. Below are dates, contact information and ways to lend a hand:

♦ Stone Middle School's National Junior Honor Society will host a "Panther Drop-Off" gift collection at their school, 5500 Sully Park Drive in Centreville, on Saturday, Dec. 5, from 9 a.m.-noon. That's when people may drop off donations of brand-new toys, books, games and clothing.

For more information, email her at Clothing@ourneighborschild.org.

♦ There are also many other ways to help Our Neighbor's Child. To volunteer for any of the needs below, go to www.ourneighborschild.org. At the top of the home page are links to "Calendar," "Volunteer Needs" or "Donate Now."

♦ Volunteers are needed Thursday, Dec. 10, for packaging day. That's when each recipient family's gifts are gathered up and packed in big bags for delivery. And with nearly 800 families receiving gifts, as much help as possible is needed on this critical day. Even if people can just work an hour or two, it will be a huge help.

♦ Some 20,000 homemade cookies will be delivered, along with the gifts, so anyone who can help bake them will be greatly appreciated. Bring cookies in disposable containers, Dec. 10, from noon-4 p.m., to the Virginia Run Community Center, 15355 Wetherburn Court, off Route 29 and Pleasant Valley Road, in Centreville.

♦ Sunday, Dec. 13, from 1-4 p.m. is delivery day. As many drivers as possible are needed to bring all the gifts to the families.

♦ Monetary donations are also vital so the ONC volunteers may buy the wished-for items that weren't selected from the giving trees. That way, no child will go without a gift. Checks may be sent to: Our Neighbor's Child, P.O. Box 276, Centreville, VA 20120, Attn: Karen Moore, Treasurer.

Serving Those Who Served

Chantilly High honors America's veterans.

Each year, Chantilly High and members of its National Honor Society (NHS) honor area veterans, and it's something both the hosts and guests eagerly anticipate. And the Nov. 18 event was no exception.

Attendees feasted on hors d'oeuvres and desserts made by the school's culinary arts students and then were treated to an evening of entertainment. Chantilly's Air Force JROTC presented the colors, and retired Chantilly teacher and Army vet Charles Demek led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The school's Chamber Chorale sang the National Anthem and "Blades of Grass and Pure White Stones." Theater students reenacted historical vignettes of note, and the orchestra performed several numbers, including an Armed Forces salute with the chorus.

"I love it," said Navy Cmdr. (ret.) Charlie Fontz, the librarian at Rocky Run Middle School. Before retiring in 1989, he was a helicopter pilot and communications specialist during the Vietnam War. Attending this veterans' celebration for his second time, he said, "It's wonderful bringing all the veterans together to be recognized. Chantilly puts on a good show and we really appreciate it."

NHS members Hyma Yaddanapudi and Neha Ankam, both freshmen, helped serve the food and were happy to participate. "It feels good to give something back to my community, said Yaddanapudi. "The veterans have done many things for us."

"I feel honored, serving a lot of great people," said Ankam. "And giving back to them is respectful because they worked hard for us."

NHS President Jordan Beeker, a senior, said some 80-90 NHS members volunteered for the event. "We all got here at 3:30 p.m. to set up tables, decorations and lighting," she said. "And after serving the food and beverages, they'll also do cleanup."

"This is something Chantilly has been part of for seven years," she said. "It's unique to our National Honor Society. We take pride in doing it every year, and the veterans look forward to it."

PFC Michelle Alexander is Officer of the Month.

PFC Michelle L. Alexander was recently recognized for a job well done. She was honored as the September Officer of the Month by the Sully District Police Station's Citizens Advisory Committee.

When PFC Tara Gerhard, the station's crime prevention officer (CPO), went on maternity leave for three months, Alexander stepped into her role. And according to Lt. Todd Kinhead, who nominated her for the award, she did so "welcomingly" and enthusiastically.

"Michelle stepped in with open eyes and a willingness to do whatever was asked and more," he wrote. "And she has exceeded our expectations."

Kinhead said the position of CPO "requires flexibility and adaptability to work through its many demands, and Michelle learned the job quickly so she could perform at a high level." And although a

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON WATER RATE AND PROPOSED 2016 BUDGET

At 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, December 17, 2015, Fairfax Water will conduct a public hearing on its proposed Schedule of Rates, Fees and Charges and its proposed 2016 Budget. The hearing will be held in Fairfax Water's offices at 8570 Executive Park Avenue, Fairfax, VA.

The proposed changes to the Schedule of Rates, Fees and Charges, to be effective April 1, 2016, include the following:

1. An increase in the Availability Charge from $3,950 to $4,100†.
2. An increase in the Local Facilities Charge from $9,750 to $10,240.
3. An increase in the Service Connection Charge from $1,090 to $1,150†.
4. An increase in the Account Charge from $36 to $37.
5. An increase in the Quarterly Billing Service Charge from $9.80 to $10.10†.
6. An increase in the base Commodity Charge from $2.55 to $2.68 per 1,000 gallons of water.
7. An increase in the Peak Use Charge from $3.55 to $3.80 per 1,000 gallons of water.
8. An increase in the Turn Off / Turn On Charge from $50 to $52.
9. An increase in the Fees for Use of Fairfax Water Fire Hydrants to include the increase in the Commodity Charge and Peak Use Charge.
10. A decrease in the Overhead Charge for Labor from 110% to 104%.
11. A decrease in the Overhead Charge for Materials from 25% to 16%.
12. An increase in the Installation of Sewer Use Meter Charge from $45 to $46.

†Charges reflect fees associated with a standard 5/8" residential meter. Changes in charges for larger residential and commercial meters are reflected in the proposed Schedule of Rates, Fees, and Charges.

Fairfax Water is proposing a $170.4 million budget for calendar year 2016*. Revenues are expected to be $170.4 million in 2016. Water sales are expected to provide $147.3 million. Approximately $23.1 million is expected from connection charges, investment income and other sources.

The major areas of operation and maintenance expense are:

CPO typically works business hours, evening and weekend commitments require constant adjustments.

He also noted that Alexander continued all the programs already in place and kept "a high level of service and personalization." Some of the many duties, programs and events she took over included: Kids Fest, preschool safety talks, CAC, homeowners association meetings, senior center talks, Worship Watch, Neighborhood Beams and National Night Out.

"Michelle has been very easy to work with and had a great attitude and desire to help during her time filling in as CPO," wrote Kinhead.

"She has even taken steps to further her knowledge in this area, attending the two-day training seminar put on yearly by the Piedmont Regional Crime Prevention Association. This illustrates her commitment to bettering herself and her abilities in the area of crime prevention."

Furthermore, he said, "I know she will continue to excel and be a great help to the Sully District Station's strategic goal in the area of community engagement. I commend PFC Michelle Alexander for a job well done and proudly nominate her for the Citizens Advisory Committee Officer of the Month award."

Alexander officially received the honor during the Oct. 14 CAC meeting, when the station commander, Capt. Bob Blakley, presented her with a certificate. "She went from being a patrol officer to doing something totally different, and she was great at it and will continue [in this position] through the end of the year. She dealt with the community well and this honor is very well-deserved."

CRIME REPORT

ROUNDUPS

Seeking Donations for Victims

The Fairfax County Police Department Victim Services Section is kicking off its Second Annual Holiday Gift Card Drive in an effort to provide holiday help for children of domestic and sexual violence.

Many of these children and families are facing the reality of not celebrating the holidays this year due to the financial burden that comes with being a victim of crime.

The Victim Services Section is seeking donations of gift cards for the families they have worked with this past year, the opportunity to bring a smile to the faces of their children — those who have witnessed or been a victim of domestic or sexual violence themselves.

Gift cards can be dropped off or mailed to the Victim Services Section main office located at 10600 Page Ave., Fairfax, VA 22030.

Bilingual Volunteers Needed

The Centreville Labor Resource Center (CLRC) is collaborating with GMU's school of Conflict Analysis and Resolution on a community assessment project. The CLRC is looking for bilingual volunteers to assist researchers with conducting interviews. Schedule varies depending on interview times. Contact Molly Maddra-Santiago at director@centrevillelrc.org if interested in this opportunity.

Free Carseat Inspections

Certified technicians from the Sully District Police Station will perform free, child safety carseat inspections Thursday, Dec. 10, from 5-8:30 p.m., at the station, 4900 Stonecroft Blvd. in Chantilly. No appointment is necessary. But residents should install the child safety seats themselves so technicians may properly inspect and adjust them, as needed.

Because of time constraints, only the first 35 vehicles arriving on each date will be inspected. That way, inspectors may have enough time to properly instruct the caregiver on the correct use of the child seat. Call 703-814-7000, ext. 5140, to confirm dates and times.

Food Donations for WFCM

Western Fairfax Christian Ministries' food pantry needs donations of 1-2 pound bags of rice, canned fruit (all types), canned pastas, canned meats (tuna, ham, chicken), cold and hot cereals, spaghetti and sauces, peanut butter, canned vegetables (including spinach, collar greens, beets) and cooking oil.

Toiletries needed, which WFCM clients cannot purchase with food stamps, include facial tissues, toothpaste, shampoo and solid deodorant.

Bring all items to WFCM's food pantry, weekdays, 9 a.m.-1:30 p.m., at 13888 Metrotech Drive, near Papa John's Pizza and Kumon Learning Center, in Chantilly's Sully Place Shopping Center. A volunteer stocker/bagger is needed Wednesdays, 4-6 p.m. Contact Annette Bosley at 703-988-9656, ext. 110, or abosley@wfcma.org.

Learn about Police Department

Throughout the year, the Fairfax County Police Department will host a series of lectures as part of its 75th anniversary.

Chantilly High Honors Veterans

Chairman Steve Hunt, a former county School Board member, visited with WWII veteran Bill Sheads, 92, who landed at Normandy on June 16, 1944, driving a truckload of explosives. Sheads was in the Army's 113th Armed Cavalry in Europe and later had a career with the Fairfax County Fire Department.

Hunt is a retired Naval flight officer who flew F4 and F14 aircraft during the Cold War. Pleased with Chantilly's annual veterans' event, he said, "I think it's just great. It's always fabulous, and the kids do a wonderful job with the food and music. And it's very special for them to get to meet the veterans and to honor them this way."

Greenbriar's Bob Mason is a former Marine who went in as a private and retired 31 years later as a colonel. Serving from 1952-83, he was in the infantry in Vietnam with the 26th Green Regiment and was the regiment's communications officer. Now, he goes to various elementary schools and talks to children about the Constitution, Bill of Rights and free-

At last week's event, he said, "Young people nowadays get such bad press that it's good to see these young kids doing something positive like this. My children went to Chantilly High and my grandson was in the AFROTC here."

AFROTC Cadet 1st Lt. Seung Gue Kang, a Chantilly senior, said 50 or more AFROTC members were there helping the veterans, guiding them around and answering their questions. "We thank them for their service, talk with them and get to know them a little more so we can better serve them," he said.

Delighted to participate, Kang said, "It's an opportunity we can't miss. It's an honor to meet all these veterans and learn their stories. And it reflects our unit positively."

The Air Force core values are 'integrity first, service before self and excellence in all we do,' and this is the service part of it. The veterans have gotten us to where we are today and this is our way of honoring them."

Forget the Fruitcake. Give a gift that really matters this holiday season.

Enough with all the snowflake ties and reindeer sweaters, too. This year, there are lots of great ways to give and give back at the same time. Now you can donate to any of these Fairfax County nonprofits in honor of anyone on your gift list. It makes shopping easy and offers you a nice tax deduction. Humidifier Causes Fire

Fairfax County Fire & Rescue Department units responded to a townhouse fire Wednesday, Nov. 18, at approximately 5:50 p.m., at 13605 Lavender Mist Lane.

Firefighters encountered smoke coming from the top floor of the three-story, middle unit townhouse upon arrival. Firefighters quickly extinguished the fire. A neighbor called 911 after hearing smoke alarms being activated inside the townhouse. No one was home when the fire broke out.

The occupants have been displaced. Red Cross support was offered but declined by the occupants. There were no injuries.

Damage is estimated at $37,500. According to fire investigators, the fire was accidental. A malfunctioning humidifier in the third floor master bathroom caused the fire.

Celebrate, Shop, Dine Locally

Every day can be “small business day.”

There is a joy to participating in community traditions and celebrations during the holidays, from walking along a sidewalk with the streets decked out for the holidays, to shopping in local stores, to being greeted by someone likely to be the owner of the store, to finding gifts that are not mass-produced.

One way to be sure holiday shopping comes with some holiday spirit is to do a portion of your shopping in some of the area's locally owned stores. There is special holiday ambience available by shopping in the heart of a town that is decked out for the season. Small retail shops are part of defining any community. Their livelihood depends on the livability and quality of the neighborhoods around them. A small business owner pays attention to every detail in his or her business in a way that is otherwise unmatched.

We all benefit when local stores thrive, when local business districts beckon. An effort to support locally owned businesses has resulted in the recognition of Small Business Saturday, the Saturday after Thanksgiving, also called Shop Small. This year that day is Nov. 28.

EDITORIAL

Locally owned retail shops, services, restaurants depend on vibrant local communities to thrive, and communities depend on those businesses as well. Most small, locally owned businesses invest in community, helping to transform our towns and communities with a sense of place.

Frequently, it is the small retail person who is active in fundraising for local charities, advocating for improvements, for fire and rescue service, for local schools and in organizing holiday events.

Local retail stores, mom-and-pop stores, face tough challenges right now. Com-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Need Is Great

To the Editor:

In response to the article regarding the WFCM Holiday Food Program, I would like to take time emphasizing the importance of not only this specific program, but also others like it.

As the article states, even though Northern Virginia is a wealthy area, there are many families who do not reap the benefits. Not only are 1 in 4 children in FCPS receiving free or reduced lunches at school, but according to the 2013 census, 5.9 percent of our residents and 7.8 percent of children live in poverty here in Fairfax County.

It is sad that there is such a harsh line being drawn, separating families who are struggling from those who are well off. This divide creates a hierarchy that only benefits a select few, and is especially damaging to that 7.8 percent of children that aren't getting the resources they need to succeed. Children living in poverty have access to at least one free, full meal a day at school but during holiday breaks, those kids often go without — an issue that other kids, due to being a part of a higher income family, do not have to worry about. It is also sad that many people are unaware of the level of poverty present in our community — and if they remain unaware, how can this issue be fixed?

That is why programs that spread awareness and get the community involved are so necessary, and which is why I encourage residents to support the WFCM Food Program. It can be your way to help bridge the gap between those in need and those who aren't by making food resources available so that everyone can have meals on the table during the holiday season.

As a FCPS graduate and someone who has only ever called Fairfax County home — I am glad to read about fellow residents reaching out to help one another, and I hope that this will become a priority for more people in the future.

Learning And Empathy

To the Editor:

After reading a letter to the editor by Shumaila Ahmad, “Hatred and Ignorance,” I was inspired to add my support and thoughts. On the topic of Admed Mohamed, a young Muslim student who was arrested, investigated, and suspended from school for building a clock the school thought was a bomb, I really felt for Ahmed. As a middle eastern that grew up and has permanent residence in Fairfax County, I was very pleased to see that this topic was at least touched on by someone. It would be interesting to see more awareness spread, as being a town newspaper, it would be reaching everyone in the community and be seen by most schools. I have the deepest empathy for Ahmed, as I myself have encountered stereotyped events in which I was at a disadvantage due to the ignorance and hatred felt by others.

Ahmed's family decided to move to Doha, Qatar, due to the accusations being thrown upon Ahmed and educational opportunities. Even though Ahmed was put through something no 14 year old should go through, all over a clock he did for an assignment, he was still suspended, and punished, for other kids' “safety.” This was a message to Ahmed and his family making them feel out of place. There should be more implementation and awareness of accepting and understanding differences in ethnicity, culture, race, etc. at a younger age. Learning provides empathy, which results in a good society.

What are you thankful for?

PHOTOS BY WILL PALENSCAR

Arya Rashidian, Centreville

"I am most grateful for being around family. I wish everyone around the world a lovely weekend and a Happy Thanksgiving."

Randy Allen, Centreville

"I am most grateful for my wife and my kids. I am also grateful for God and His word. I would also like to add that I have a sign over my door in my classroom that asks this same question: 'What are you most grateful for?'"

Elizabeth Mashakas, Centreville

"I am thankful for my extended family. I am fortunate to have both parents, so we are able to celebrate the generations."

Linda Braskamp, Herndon

"I am grateful for my son Zac, my dog Rufus, and family. I am also grateful for the opportunities we have in this area. I also have to add I am grateful for the Green Bay Packers who play on Thanksgiving Day."

James Hepler, Chantilly

"I am most grateful for public safety, family, and good health. I am also grateful that people are good to each other."

The No. 3-seed Westfield football team overcame a fourth-quarter deficit to defeat No. 6 South Lakes 24-13 on Nov. 20 in the 6A North region quarterfinals at Westfield High School.

The Bulldogs led 10-6 entering the fourth quarter. The Seahawks answered with a 3-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Devin Miles to Marvin Grunshie. Khalil Dover's extra point gave South Lakes the advantage at 13-10. However, Westfield's Tavon Greene returned a punt 70 yards for a touchdown and quarterback Tyler Scanlon rushed for his second score of the game with 6:19 remaining to close out scoring.

Westfield will travel to face No. 2 Lake Braddock in the region semifinals at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 28.

Westfield opened up scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Scanlon ran for his first of two scores. The first touchdown was a 22-yard burst which came with 29 seconds left in the second quarter. After Brian Delaney's extra point, Westfield was up 7-0.

In the third quarter, a Westfield punt was downed at the South Lakes 1-yard line. On the next play, South Lakes sophomore quarterback Miles took the snap and fired the ball to receiver Eric Kirlew, who took the ball 99 yards for the score. After a missed South Lakes extra point, Westfield held a 7-6 edge. Kirlew finished with four catches for 114 yards.

With 5:15 left in the third quarter Westfield's Delaney kicked a 32-yard field goal to give the Bulldogs a 10-6 lead heading onto the 4th quarter.

South Lakes ends its season with a 9-3 record. Westfield improved to 11-1.

All Four It

By KENNETH B. LOURIE

In fact, it was my idea (and I do think much of it), as it has been previously, but this time, my oncologist felt – to quote my late father: “The idea had merit.” And so, infusing forward, I will be visiting (I use that word loosely), the Infusion Center every four weeks instead of three. A change nearly seven years in the making. Now whether it hastens my demise or simply improves the quality of my life, I certainly don’t know. All I know is what little I know. Nevertheless, given my amazing good fortune to still be alive so many years after my original prognosis “prognosed” otherwise: “13 months to two years,” (as stated by my oncologist on 2/27/09), I suppose I’m living proof that cancer works in mysterious ways and not always according to medical expectations. Thank God!

Perhaps the future – and maybe even the present, is what I make of it. And though it’s difficult – but not impossible – to do so, among the rather grim tales that one hears in the lung cancer/cancer-in-general world, there are success stories, many of which I’ve actually heard. And the more of these stories I hear, the more I feel empowered and realize that even though we have not won the war on cancer, we are winning battles, not just skirmishes. Lung cancer patients are living longer, as I have been fortunate to do; now we’re going to try and improve the quality of that “living longer.”

Not that you readers can’t sort it for yourselves, but extending my infusion schedule by one week from three to four is not merely a 33 percent increase in that interval, it’s an exponential increase in my head; meaning it feels way more significant than one week. It almost seems as if I can breathe normally again (not that I have any cancer-related difficulty breathing other than climbing stairs, lifting heavy objects or otherwise over-exerting myself); the sensation now, the expectation now, is that I have control of my life for an extra week EVERY SINGLE MONTH that I’ve not had for almost seven years. I don’t want to go commercial here, but can you spell relief? For me, it’s not a product, it’s a lifestyle.

However, as relieved as I am, this decision/possibly even accommodation from my oncologist, is not because I’m cured, in remission or cancer-free. No. It’s because I asked and my most recent PET Scan answered by indicating that I was “stable,” according to my oncologist. News, I like to joke, with which I can live. But news which hardly extricates me from “Cancerville.” Rather, news that allows/enables my oncologist to consider some options that many cancer patients are unable to consider. For the record, though: this is unlikely to be permanent and guarantees are not being made. Still, to invoke Hubert H. Humphrey: “I’m pleased as punch.”

As a long-time salesman, I’ve heard many technique advisories. One I will mention here: “Don’t be afraid to take ‘yes’ for an answer.” Well, I’ve learned my lessons. I am going to take “yes” for an answer. I’m not looking for trouble. If my oncologist is happy to oblige/agree with the four-week interval, then who am I to question it? Question it is the last thing I’m going to do. I’m going to embrace and enjoy it. Besides, I deserve it. I only wish there hundreds/thousands of other “terminal” cancer patients receiving similar results and subsequent improvement in the quality of their lives. And though it may be temporary (until the results of my next CT Scan in January, that is), for the time I’m still being: “Oh, what a relief it shall be!”

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

14740 Flint Lee Road, Unit Q, Chantilly, Virginia 20170
Fairfax County

In execution of a Deed of Trust dated October 7, 2013, in the original principal amount of $180,000.00, recorded as Deed Book 23421 at Page 0043 in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Virginia, the undersigned Trustee will on Tuesday, December 8, 2015 at 9:30 a.m., by the front main entrance to the Fairfax County Courthouse, 4110 Chain Bridge Road, Fairfax, VA 22030, offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder the following property with improvements thereon commonly known as 14740 Flint Lee Road, Unit Q, Chantilly, Virginia 20170 and more particularly described as follows: Building 14740, Unit Q of Parcel A of FLINT LEE BUSINESS PARK CONDOMINIUM, as created by the Declaration and By-laws, Plats and Plans as recorded in Deed Book 7173 at Page 1896, among the land records of the County of Fairfax, Virginia, together with an undivided interest in the common elements as set forth in the Declaration and Exhibits. Tax Map Ref: 034 3 12 4740Q

This sale is subject to any reservations, restrictions on use, covenants, obligations, rights of way, conditions, easements, and mechanic's liens, if any, whether of record or not of record, to the extent any of the foregoing apply and take priority over the lien of the Deed of Trust. Deposit of $15,000.00, or 10% of the sales price, whichever is lower, by cashier's or certified check, shall be required to qualify as a bidder prior to the sale, except for the Noteholder. The deposit, without interest, is applied to the purchase price at settlement. Settlement will be held on or before fifteen (15) days after sale. Upon purchaser's default, the deposit shall be forfeited and the property shall be resold at the risk and costs of the defaulting purchaser. The balance of the purchase price shall be paid by certified or cashier's check, or wire transfer. Settlement shall be at the offices of the undersigned Trustee, or other mutually agreed upon location. The property and any improvements thereon shall be sold in "as is" condition without any warranties. The successful bidder shall assume all loss or damage to the property from and after the time of the sale. Purchaser shall be responsible for all costs of the conveyance, which shall be by special warranty including, but not limited to, the preparation of the deed and the grantor's tax. Real estate taxes shall be adjusted as of the sale date. The sale is subject to such additional terms as the Trustee may announce at the time of sale. The purchaser will be required to sign a Memorandum of Sale incorporating all the terms of the sale.
