Sully police collect, deliver holiday food to local families.

Santa's elves aren't the only ones lending a hand this holiday season. The men and women of the Sully District Police Station are doing their share, too. They "adopted" 30 local families in need, collected 2,009 pounds of food and then delivered it to them.

"We did a competition between the patrol squads to see which one could bring in the most food," said Capt. Bob Blakley, the station commander. "The winner was one mid-night squad of 11 officers which brought in 770 pounds. We make it fun, but the collection is also done in the spirit of the season."

1st Lt. Matt Owens, the assistant commander, said the winning squad received a fitting prize for its efforts. "They got a home-cooked, barbecue dinner from the wife of one of the officers," he said.

It's the second year the station has done this holiday-food project and, said Blakley, "We nearly doubled our last year's collection amount. Members of the community also contributed food, and the Westfield Business Owners Association donated a $20 grocery card for every recipient family."

"We're very proud," he continued. "Any time we get an opportunity to give back to the community in a positive way, we jump at the chance. This is a good example of a Sully District partnership because this is the police, the business community, residents and the

Moving Equipment Is Sought

The Centreville Labor Resource Center is in need of moving equipment to add to its tool supplies. Requested items are back braces, lift belts, sliders and straps that are used for moving jobs.

This equipment can be checked out by workers and brought back when they complete jobs. It will ensure that they're able to complete moving jobs more safely. In addition, the CLRC is seeking Spanish-speaking people to fill a number of volunteer positions. Contact Molly Maddra-Santiago at director@centrevillelrc.org.

Free Carseat Inspections

Certified technicians from the Sully District Police Station will perform free, child safety carseat inspections Thursday, Jan. 7, from 5-8:30 p.m., at the station, 4900 Stonecroft Blvd. in Chantilly. No appointment is necessary. But residents should install the child safety seats themselves so technicians may properly inspect and adjust them, as needed.

Because of time constraints, only the first 35 vehicles arriving on each date will be inspected. That way, inspectors may have enough time to properly instruct the caregiver on the correct use of the child seat. Call 703-814-7000, ext. 5140, to confirm dates and times.

Food Donations for WFCM

Western Fairfax Christian Ministries' food pantry needs donations of 1-2 pound bags of rice, canned fruit (all types), canned pastas, canned meats (tuna, ham, chicken), cold and hot cereals, spaghetti and sauces, peanut butter, canned vegetables (including spinach, collar greens, beets) and cooking oil.

Toiletries needed, which WFCM clients cannot purchase with food stamps, include facial tissues, toothpaste, shampoo and solid deodorant.

Bring all items to WFCM'S food pantry, weekdays, 9 a.m.-1:30 p.m., at 13888 Metrotech Drive, near Papa John's Pizza and Kumon Learning Center, in Chantilly's Sully Place Shopping Center. A volunteer stocker/bagger is needed Wednesdays, 4-6 p.m. Contact Annette Bosley at 703-988-9656, ext. 110, or abosley@wfcma.org.

Meals on Wheels Volunteers

Fairfax County needs Meals on Wheels drivers in Chantilly and group Meals on Wheels coordinators in both Chantilly and Fairfax. Contact Volunteer Solutions at 703-324-5406, TTY 711, VolunteerSolutions@fairfaxcounty.gov or visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dfs/olderadultservices/volunteer-solutions.htm.

Long-Term Care Advocates

The Northern Virginia Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program needs volunteer advocates for residents in assisted living and nursing facilities. Training is provided in September. Call 703-324-5861, TTY 711 or email Lisa.Callahan@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Fairfax County needs Respite Care volunteers throughout the county to give family caregivers of a frail older adult a well-deserved break.

Volunteers visit and oversee the safety of the older adult for a few hours each month. Volunteers are matched with families in or near their own neighborhoods. Support and training is provided. Contact Kristin Martin at 703-324-7577, TTY 711, or Kristin.Martin@fairfaxcounty.gov.

Drive Seniors to Appointments

Fairfax County needs volunteers to drive older adults to medical appointments and wellness programs. Call 703-324-5406, TTY 711, visit www.fairfaxcounty.gov/olderadults and link to Volunteer Solutions or email VolunteerSolutions@fairfaxcounty.gov.

WFCM connected the police with the families needing food, and all of them live in the Sully District. "Each family will get enough food for a holiday meal, but also for a week's sustenance," said Blakley. "And we'll take any leftover food to crime victims known to us."

Owens noted that each family's bag doesn't just contain items that can be eaten at dinner, but has food for breakfast and lunch, as well. "We think of the kids who are home from school for two weeks without free- or reduced-price lunches," said Blakley. "So we make sure we have enough food in the bags for their holiday break."

Trader Joe's and the Giant Foods store on Stone Road in Centreville donated the bags. "And we'll put holiday cards in each bag," said PFC Tara Gerhard, the station's crime-prevention officer. She also stressed how much receiving this food means to the families who need it so much.

"We call them in advance to arrange a delivery date so they'll be home when we arrive," she said. "And one woman actually cried on the phone, she was so appreciative."

The officers filled all the food bags Dec. 9-10 and then delivered them Dec. 17-18. Overall, said Gerhard, "It's been a lot of fun and the squads did a good job. We like the community to know we're supporting them and are here to help them."

Members of Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, constitutional officers, sworn in.

Hundreds of friends, family, constituents and county employees came on Tuesday, Dec. 15 to see the swearing-in of the members of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors and constitutional officers.

Music was provided by the Chantilly High School Orchestra. Deputy Sheriff Rob Deer played the bagpipes, and the Fairfax County Sheriff's Office Singing Stars, Myrna Kinney, Sommer Grasty and Nicole Arnet, sang the National Anthem and America the Beautiful.

Sharon Bulova was sworn in for her third term as chairman of the Board of Supervisors, although she began as Braddock District supervisor in 1988 and has served on the board since then. The Board of Supervisors consists of the chairman, elected at large, and nine district members.

With two members of the board retiring, there are two new members, both previously serving as members of the school board. Daniel Storck (D-Mount Vernon) will replace longtime supervisor Gerry Hyland (D). Kathy Smith (D-Sully) will replace Michael Frey (R).

Other members sworn in include: John Cook (R-Braddock), John Foust (D-Dranesville), Penelope Gross (D-Mason), Pat Herrity (R-Springfield), Catherine Hudgins (D-Hunter Mill), Jeffrey McKay (D-Lee), and Linda Q. Smyth (D-Providence).

Also sworn in on Tuesday were the three constitutional officers, Commonwealth's Attorney Raymond F. Morrogh, Sheriff Stacey A. Kincaid and Clerk of the Fairfax Circuit Court John Frey. Three members of the Northern Virginia Soil and Water Conservation District also took oaths as direc

Excerpts

From Board of Supervisors Chairman Sharon Bulova's inauguration speech:

One of the greatest rewards of local government, and service at the community level, is achieving tangible results. As public servants, we work with the community to turn ideas into real changes that directly impact our everyday lives. While we come from different political parties, there is no such thing as a Democrat storm drain or a Republican turf field.

Basic things we may take for granted like clean parks, helpful libraries, affordable RECenters, stormwater management to prevent homes and offices from flooding, and being the safest jurisdiction of our size in the nation are the services we expect, and rely upon, from local government.

That's what we're all about: ensuring tax dollars are spent responsibly in a way that invests in the priorities of the community as a whole. ...

One of the top priorities for all localities in our area is transportation. This truly is a regional issue. Gridlock doesn't stop at the county line. A traffic jam in Arlington can cause a ripple effect all the way to Prince William County. I-66 in particular, has become a highway that simply doesn't work. Improving I-66 inside and outside the Beltway will be an important issue for our new board in 2016.

The opening of Phase I of the Silver Line has helped take cars off the road, surpassing first year ridership estimates by over 1,000 travelers a day. Phase II of the Silver Line is scheduled to be completed in 2019.

Investments in major transit projects yield economic benefits in addition to transportation benefits. Since the Tysons Plan was adopted, Fairfax County has approved 31 million square feet of new development for the Tysons area. This is predicted to bring in 48,000 new jobs. Areas like Tysons, Reston and Merrifield have attracted corporate headquarters such as Northrop Grumman, General Dynamics, Capital One, and Intelsat. Fairfax County has more Fortune 500 companies than 30 states. Exciting revitalization projects and opportunities are taking place in the Richmond Highway Corridor, Springfield and Lorton.

This year our board approved our Strategic Plan to Facilitate Economic Success, which calls for diversifying our economy, improving our land use development process, making strong investments in infrastructure, and creating more "destination spots" where people enjoy spending their time.

Even through the Great Recession and years of a sluggish recovery, Fairfax County has continued our tradition of responsible financial management with a coveted Triple-A bond rating. Only nine states, 37 counties and 32 cities in the United States have an AAA rating from all three rating agencies, something that has saved county residents over $700 million over the decades.

Business wants to locate in places where their employees can live in vibrant communities, with top-tier schools. Even throughout this difficult fiscal climate, our Board of Supervisors has increased funding to the school system by over $200 million during the past five years, devoting almost 53 percent of our General Fund budget to education. This is a priority for us, and it is a priority for Gov. Terry McAuliffe. Our overarching priority during 2016 will be funding for the education of our children.

Almost 30 percent of children in Fairfax County Public Schools are eligible to receive free or reduced-price lunches, and for some, that meal is the only food they receive all day. Last year, 1,200 people in Fairfax County were literally homeless, surviving in tents in the woods or in their cars. Forty-six of these people were veterans. Last year, I signed on to Michelle Obama's "Mayor's

Merry Christmas

We wish you hope, peace, love and joy during this holiday season.

The pages of our newspapers have been full of holiday spirit for more than a month. Menorah lightings, group and individual efforts to help the needy, stories of giving, secular celebrations, religious celebrations. Shopping locally. Giving locally.

Christmas is about the birth of Jesus Christ. Whether you believe the Christmas story literally or in spirit, you know it is the story of joy, hope and love, the promise of redemption.

It is also about embracing the teachings of Jesus: to love thy neighbor as thyself; to help the needy; to feed and clothe the poor; to care for those who are sick; to treat others as you would have them treat you.

Matthew 7:12 "So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets."

Matthew 25:35-40 "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me."

"Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?' Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

So let us share the verse relating the birth of Jesus from the Bible, Luke 2: 4-19:

"And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, 'Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. '

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, 'Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.' And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds."

The Time to Give

County promotes 11 ways to give back to your community.

BY WENDY LEMIEUX
FAIRFAX COUNTY OFFICE OF
PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS
(OP<sup>3</sup>)

It's the most wonderful time of the year ... to help others. Fairfax County has made it easy with its "Forget the Fruitcake — Ways to Give Campaign" that promotes 11 ways to give back to your community. Running through the end of the year, you can donate to any of these 11 county nonprofits, foundations and agencies in honor of anyone on your gift list. It makes shopping easy and offers you a nice tax deduction. But best of all, it helps those organizations succeed in bringing goods and services to those who need them most at this time of year.

On any given day more than 67,000 people go hungry in the county and more than 30 percent of the students in Fairfax County schools are eligible for free and reduced lunch. Despite its affluent status, Fairfax has a population that benefits from programs such as "Ways to Give." There is something for everyone on your list whether they like animals, education, summer fun or community spirit. Gifts that give back include books, a week at camp, medical care, bikes, trees and food for the hungry.

Through a partnership with ad agency Williams Whittle, Fairfax County's Office of Public Private Partnerships has honed the message and the graphics which has made a difference in the look and feel of the campaign. Williams Whittle liked the campaign in previous years and offered their professional services and contacts to make the program even better. And it's resulted in numerous pro bono advertisement and engagement from community stakeholders. One beneficiary of the increased exposure was the Fairfax County Restoration Project (FCRP) — whose mission is to restore the tree canopy in Fairfax County. When the first ad was placed in the Connection in mid-November, FCRP reported a 70 percent increase in visits to their website that offers to plant five native trees in honor of a family member or friend.

This is the fifth year of the "Ways to Give" campaign that so far has resulted in an increase of 50 percent in web traffic. Although donation numbers won't be available until January, participating agencies and nonprofits have reported a surge in traffic to their sites.

Westfield, Chantilly, Centreville produce state champions.

Area high schools produced multiple team and individual state championships in 2015. The Westfield football team needed triple overtime to knock off unbeaten Oscar Smith in the state final. The Chantilly golf team finished in the top two for the fifth straight year and former Centreville wrestler Tyler Love ended his high school career as a repeat champion.

The following is a look at some of the top moments from the last year.

Chantilly Golf Wins 2nd State Title in 3 Years

The Chantilly golf team carded a 607 and won the 2015 6A state championship, finishing 20 strokes ahead of runner-up Riverbend. It was the fifth consecutive season the Chargers finished in the state top two. Chantilly won it all in 2013, producing a 583 while finishing 14 strokes ahead of Riverbend.

Chantilly senior Nick Antonacci tied for fourth in the individual standings with a two-day 147. Sophomore Sam Jung tied for sixth with a 149. Freshman Gary Bullard tied for 16th with a 158, and senior Joe Miller finished 18th with a 159.

Dec. 12 in Charlottesville, including losing four fumbles and allowing more than 500 yards of offense to the Tigers.

But after regulation ended with the score tied at 28, Westfield couldn't be stopped.

The Bulldogs scored a touchdown on each of their three overtime possessions, including a pair of touchdowns by running back Tim Beard, and Westfield won the 6A stat championship with a 49-42 triple overtime victory over Oscar Smith. The Bulldogs defense forced Tigers quarterback Shon Mitchell to throw incomplete on fourth down from the 2-yard line in the third overtime, securing Westfield its first state title since 2007. Beard carried 37 times for 234 yards and three touchdowns. Quarterback Rehman Johnson, making his third start, rushed 20 times for 110 yards and three touchdowns, and passes for 106 yards and a score. Westfield finished the season with a 14-1 record, winning its final 13 games.

Centreville's Love Repeats as 195-Pound Champion

Tyler Scanlon helps cut down the net after the Westfield boys' basketball team won the 2015 6A North region title.

School graduate, was a standout football player and wrestler for the Wildcats.

As a linebacker, he played in two football state finals, helping Centreville win it all in 2013.

On the wrestling mat, Love followed his 195-pound state title in 2014 by repeating in 2015.

Love pinned Colonial Forge's Cameron Houston in the 195-pound final on Feb. 20 at Robinson Secondary School. Love and teammates Victor Echeverria (113-pound champion) and Michael Vu (132-pound runner-up) helped Centreville finish state runner-up in the team standings, as well.

Love is now a freshman on the University of Virginia wrestling team.

Westfield Field Hockey Wins Region Title

The Westfield field hockey team failed to score during regulation, but sophomore Mackenzie Karl found the back of the cage in overtime, giving the Bulldogs a 1-0 victory over T.C. Williams in the 6A North region final on Nov. 5.

The Bulldogs lost to First Colonial 5-0 in the state semifinals on Nov. 13 and finished the season with a 20-3 record.

Westfield Basketball Wins in Triple OT in State Semis

After winning the 6A North region championship, the Westfield boys' basketball team earned a trip to the state final by beating Landstown 64-60 in triple overtime in the state semifinals on March 13 at VCU's Siegel Center in Richmond.

The Westfield/Landstown game tied for the second-longest contest in final four history. Booker T. Washington and T.C. Williams needed four overtimes in 1980.

Tyler Scanlon led the Bulldogs with 20 points and Blake Francis added 17.

The following night, Westfield lost to Colonial Forge 47-46 in the state final.

Honorable mention: Westfield wrestlers Justin Yorkdale (132) and Austin Knies (285) win state championships.

Chantilly baseball reaches second straight state final.

Success with A Little Help

Determination along with assistance from Northern Virginia Family Service.

Cystal Farrington isn't afraid to work. In fact, she worked at a dry cleaning company for seven years and increased her salary by 50 percent in that time. The problem is that going from $8 per hour to $12 per hour still leaves one living in poverty. In trying to make ends meet, Farrington went to social services in spring 2013. She and some family members were living in a hotel on Route 1 in Mount Vernon at the time.

FROM NVFS FILES She was told that she didn't qualify for much because her income was too high. However, she noticed a sign about the Vehicles for Change (VFC) program, which led her to Northern Virginia Family Service.

As the NVFS caseworker helped Crystal get an affordable vehicle to get to and from work, she saw something in Farrington ... a drive and tenacity. She told her, "You are supposed to do something much greater Crystal." The caseworker told her about the Training Futures program, located in Tysons Corner.

Just weeks later, Farrington's mother died of pancreatic cancer. Farrington said that she felt as if her VFC caseworker took her under her wings and let her cry on her shoulder. She also encouraged her again to apply for Training Futures and in October 2013,

Crystal Farrington

Farrington began the Training Futures program which required that Farrington reduce her hours at the dry cleaning company. She found another nonprofit to assist her with affordable housing which required that she pay a modest stipend enabling her to focus on the Training Futures program.

"It amazed me that a stranger could have more faith in me than I did in myself," Farrington said. In March 2014, she graduated from Training Futures and was selected by her classmates as a keynote speaker. She said that the program gave her confidence and purpose. It also landed her a job. Farrington is now a concierge in an office building in downtown D.C. She is the "go to person" for 12 businesses covering administrative tasks and distributing weekly events.

Her job is to say abreast of all that is happening in the city. With regular 8 a.m.-5 p.m. hours, a $35,000 salary and benefits, Farrington sees a bright future for herself and her children.

Having grown up poor, Farrington is proud to shout out to the world, "I'm above the poverty line!"

Present Accounted For

By KENNETH B. LOURIE

Last week I was "naive and delusional." This week, not so much. Meaning: I'm well aware of my circumstances and not minding what usually matters. To that point, there's no doubt there are days/weeks that are more challenging than others. And even though I'm a veteran of the cancer wars, seven years and counting come this Feb. 27, I have been to have been blessed with the proper temperament and attitude for the task at hand: enduring the stress and strain of dealing with a cancer diagnosis and all its effects and affects and not going negative/dark in the process. It's not as if cancer has become my new best friend, more like a roommate I've learned to accept — who's not moving out any time soon, but I have learned to manage, mostly. (I am a Libra after all, and balance is my symbol.)

Still, over time, you do get used to the demands. You find a way to ignore the symptoms, not so much that it risks your health, but enough so it doesn't "anguish" your daily life. Because there's definitely no future — or rather not much of one, when every day becomes an emotional battle to the hopefully-not, death, so to speak. I don't want to give cancer too much credit but, it's a fairly powerful adversary and contributing to its strength serves no purpose and creates no advantage. It doesn't need any help doing all the harmful physical, emotional and spiritual, things it does. Granted, nipping it all in the bud is much easier in the garden than it is in the doctor's office/infusion center, but unless you become the master of your domain, the king of the castle, the lord of the manor, the more difficult your cancer experience will be.

This is not to imply that a positive attitude cures cancer. (But I doubt it hurts.) This is more to say that being miserable, feeling sorry for yourself or "woeing" is me, though understandable under the circumstances is boring and as Prince Kuragin (a character from Downton Abbey) said: "Nothing is more tedious than other person's misfortunes." And I certainly don't want to be tedious and boring. As a matter of fact, I'll make the extra effort — even when I don't feel like it, to avoid being thought of as anything but healthy and dare I say, normal. The more positivity I can exude, the more positivity I likely will receive in turn. It's not exactly chemotherapy, targeted treatment or immunotherapy, but "Good Vibrations" is more than just a Beach Boys classic. It's a way to my heart and soul, and hopefully to my lungs as well.

When it comes to being a cancer patient, I know what I know/what I feel, and more importantly — in my mind, anyway, I know what I don't know. Facts, figures, protocols, drugs, clinical trials, I don't know, As my wife's deceased, maternal grandmother, Franny would say: I'm as "dumb as a post." For me, ignorance is sort of bliss. I don't worry about what I don't know; I already have enough trouble worrying about what I do know.

Ergo my strategy: take the good with the bad — which is easy, and when there is bad, compartmentalize it somehow; put it in "the vault." To summarize; and with all credit and respect to Bing Crosby (singing in "White Christmas"): I must "Accentuate the positive. Eliminate the negative. Latch on to the affirmative." Moreover, I have to believe if I want to feel good, I have to think good — thoughts that is. And the more humor and normalcy I have in my life, the better I'll feel and think. I don't know if my future will be any better because of it but my present sure will be.

Kenny Lourie is an Advertising Representative for The Potomac Almanac & The Connection Newspapers.

Excerpts

Challenge" where mayors and chairs across the country pledged to end veteran homelessness as we know it by the end of 2015. Thanks to our strong partnership with nonprofits and faith-based organizations homeless veterans are now quickly identified and connected to support services and housing. When homelessness occurs, it must be rare, brief and non-recurring. Our new board will continue to lead in this effort to ensure our progress to end homelessness in Fairfax County by 2018 stays on target.

Recent college grads, servers at restaurants, retail workers, entry-level technicians, teachers, and older adults on fixed incomes, often find it hard to afford to live here in Fairfax County. It's important that Fairfax County does not price out hard-working people from living here. Creating more affordable housing choices is a priority and allows employees to live closer to where they work. This not only improves the quality of life for many of our residents, but also helps alleviate traffic congestion and our clean air challenges.

Fairfax County is the safest jurisdiction of its size in the nation, due in no small part to the hard work and dedication of our public safety personnel. We had a wonderful opportunity to showcase our impressive public safety capabilities at this year's World Police and Fire Games.

To build on and enhance, what is already a great Police Department, I convened an Ad Hoc Police Practices Review Commission this year. Recommendations from the commission centered on use of force, mental health, communications, oversight, and recruitment. Recommended changes will help foster our culture of public trust and ensure the fair and timely resolution of police-involved incidents.

Another element of public safety we will be addressing is the treatment of people suffering from mental illness who become involved with law enforcement.

Fairfax County needs to focus on diverting non-violent offenders suffering from mental illness into treatment, instead of incarceration. Diversion First will help individuals with mental illness get the help they need.

I am proud to lead a county that appreciates many cultures and celebrates the diversity of all those who live here.

In light of recent racial and cultural tensions rising across the country, let us be grateful we live in a county that celebrates our differences and demonstrates acceptance and compassion for others. These simple values set Fairfax County apart as a fantastic place to live, work, play and raise a family. This board is committed to maintaining and nurturing this exceptional culture.
