2015 in Review: Calls for Transparency and Accountability

John Geer shooting death documents released, police practices reviewed, in-custody deaths questioned.

BY TIM PETERSON
THE CONNECTION

When Fairfax County released thousands of pages of documents and media related to the shooting death of Springfield resident John Geer on Jan. 30, 2015, under court order, it was the first major act of transparency since his death in August 2013.

Questions of accountability, transparency and use of force by the Fairfax County Police Department and Sheriff's Office were discussed and debated over the course of 2015. In Geer's case, County officials and Police Chief Edwin Roessler initially justified the length of time spent without releasing information, such as the name of the officer who shot Geer, with ongoing investigations being carried out by the Commonwealth's Attorney and the Department of Justice.

RESPONDING to the public demands, Board of Supervisors Chairman Sharon Bulova convened a 37-member Ad Hoc Commission to review police practices and policies. The body met eight times between March and October, and delivered a final set of 142 recommendations that included calls for creating an independent auditor position, a civilian review board and more robust crisis intervention training and management for dealing with individuals with intellectual disabilities or other mental health issues.

"We should understand policemen are going to make mistakes, no question about it," commission Chairman Michael Hirshman said when presenting the recommendations to the Supervisors on Oct. 20, "but we've got to make sure policies and procedures are in place to make sure mistakes are fewer and less."

In her inauguration address on Dec. 15, Bulova acknowledged the "recommended changes will help foster our culture of public trust and ensure the fair and timely resolution of Police-involved incidents. Our new Board of Supervisors is tasked with following through on the Commission's recommendations."

Adam Torres, a former Fairfax County Police Officer, was charged with murdering Geer after Commonwealth's Attorney Raymond F. Morrogh convened a special grand jury to decide on the matter over the summer. Torres had remained an administrative employee of the department nearly until his indictment.

A YEAR IN REVIEW

Highlights of 2015

Bipartisan Successes

Congressman Gerald E. Connolly (D-11): "It was a busy year for Congress which saw bipartisan action on major, long-overdue initiatives that will benefit every segment of our community. For starters, Congress passed another two-year bipartisan budget agreement that replaces some of the draconian sequester cuts, which have disproportionately harmed Northern Virginia. It's critical we maintain domestic and defense investments, and I will continue to push for relief from sequestration."

I was proud to represent Northern Virginia on the House-Senate conference committee that negotiated the new long-term transportation bill – the first in 10 years, which will provide more than $530 million in new road, transit, and safety improvements across Virginia. Congress also passed reforms to the Medicare payment formula to protect seniors and their doctors from harmful cuts, a perennial problem, and place it on a more sustainable path. We replaced the unpopular No Child Left Behind Act in favor of more flexible standards, and we passed new Trade Promotion Authority, setting rigorous labor, environmental, and enforcement standards for future trade deals. As you can see, Congress finally got something substantial done this year, and I hope these bipartisan successes will continue into 2016."

Gerald E. Connolly

Thank You to Retiring Supervisors

Sharon Bulova, Chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors: "This summer, Fairfax County showcased our impressive public safety capabilities during the exciting World Police and Fire Games."

In March, to build on and enhance an already great Police Department, I convened a Police Practices Review Commission.

Recommendations from this 30+ member Commission centered on use of force, response to offenders suffering from mental illness, communications, oversight and recruitment. Changes resulting from the work of the Commission will help foster our culture of public trust and ensure the fair and timely resolution of police-involved incidents.

I signed on to Michelle Obama's "Mayor's Challenge" to end Veteran Homelessness by the end of 2015. Thanks to our strong partnership with nonprofits and faith-based organizations, homeless veterans are now quickly identified and connected to support services and housing.

The year 2015 was an election year for local government. Please join me in saying "Thank you" to retiring supervisors Gerry Hyland and Mike Frey and "Welcome" to new Supervisors Dan Storck and Kathy Smith."

Sharon Bulova

Busy but Productive Year

Del. Eileen Filler-Corn (D-41): "Several of my legislative priorities were signed into law by Governor McAuliffe in 2015. One bill, allowing elementary and middle school students an expedited retake of a SOL exam, was included in the omnibus SOL reform bill. This helps avoid delays, giving students the same opportunity as those in high school. A bill I worked on again this year, requiring local or campus law enforcement to report investigations of campus sexual assault to the Commonwealth's Attorney within 48 hours of the victim filing a report, was incorporated into another bill and became law. Elements of my bill requiring fingerprint background checks for child-care providers were combined into an omnibus child-care safety bill. My bill, the Virginia ABLE Act, will allow families of children with disabilities to create tax-exempt, 529-like savings accounts for living expenses and the future security of loved ones. Busy but productive year in the General Assembly."

‘Honor, Humility, Humanity’

Members of Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, constitutional officers, sworn in.

Hundreds of friends, family, constituents and county employees came on Tuesday, Dec. 15 to see the swearing-in of the members of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors and constitutional officers.

Music was provided by the Chantilly High School Orchestra. Deputy Sheriff Rob Deer played the bagpipes, and the Fairfax County Sheriff's Office Singing Stars, Myrna Kinney, Sommer Grasty and Nicole Arnet, sang the national anthem and "America the Beautiful."

Sharon Bulova was sworn in for her third term as chairman of the Board of Supervisors, although she began as Braddock District supervisor in 1988 and has served on the board since then. The Board of Supervisors consists of the chairman, elected at large, and nine district members.

With two members of the board retiring, there are two new members, both previously serving as members of the school board. Daniel Storck (D-Mount Vernon) will replace longtime supervisor Gerry Hyland

Judge Penney S. Azcarate administers the oath of office to Supervisor Pat Herrity (R-Springfield). Herrity was first elected to the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors in 2007 and is a graduate of West Springfield High School and Virginia Tech. He is the chief financial officer of a local government contractor.

(D). Kathy Smith (D-Sully) will replace Michael Frey (R).

Other members sworn in include: John Cook (R-Braddock), John Foust (D-Dranesville), Penelope Gross (D-Mason), Pat Herrity (R-Springfield), Catherine Hudgins (D-Hunter Mill), Jeffrey McKay (D-Lee), and Linda Q. Smyth (D-Providence).

Also sworn in on Tuesday were the three constitutional officers, Commonwealth's

Supervisor John Cook (R), re-elected to serve the Braddock district, takes the oath of office. Cook was first elected in 2009 when Sharon Bulova became chairman, and is managing partner of the Fairfax law firm Cook, Craig & Francuzenko. Cook serves as the Board of Supervisors' representative to the Domestic Violence Prevention, Policy Coordinating Council of Fairfax County.

Attorney Raymond F. Morrogh, Sheriff Stacey A. Kincaid and Clerk of the Fairfax Circuit Court John Frey. Three members of the Northern Virginia Soil and Water Conservation District also took oaths as directors, Scott Cameron, George Lamb and Gerald O. Peters Jr.

Judge Penney S. Azcarate, who adminis-

Supervisor Jeffrey C. McKay (D-Lee) takes the oath of office from Judge Penney S. Azcarate. McKay was first elected in 2007. McKay chairs the Board's Transportation Committee, Legislative Committee and co-chairs the Board's Committee on Community Revitalization and Reinvestment.

tered the oath of office to each, reminded elected officials to serve with "honor, humility and humanity."

Bulova's inaugural speech included a note of serious gratitude:

"In light of recent racial and cultural tensions rising across the country, let us be grateful we live in a county that celebrates our differences and demonstrates acceptance and compassion for others."

Sheriff Stacey A. Kincaid (D) takes the oath of office.

Sharon Bulova (D), re-elected to her third term as chairman of the Board of Supervisors, takes the oath of office on Dec. 15. Bulova was first elected chairman in a special election in 2009, and served as Braddock District supervisor from 1988-2009.

OPINION

Merry Christmas

We wish you hope, peace, love and joy during this holiday season.

The pages of the Connection have been full of holiday spirit for more than a month. Menorah lightings, group and individual efforts to help the needy, stories of giving, secular celebrations, religious celebrations. Shopping locally. Giving locally.

Christmas is about the birth of Jesus Christ. Whether you believe the Christmas story literally or in spirit, you know it is the story of joy, hope and love, the promise of redemption.

It is also about embracing the teachings of Jesus: to love thy neighbor as thyself; to help the needy; to feed and clothe the poor; to care for those who are sick; to treat others as you would have them treat you.

Matthew 7:12 "So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets."

Matthew 25:35-40 "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me."

"Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?' Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

So let us share the verse relating the birth of Jesus from the Bible, Luke 2: 4-19:

"And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country, shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, 'Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.'

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, 'Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.' And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds."

The Time to Give

County promotes 11 ways to give back to your community.

BY WENDY LEMIEUX
FAIRFAX COUNTY OFFICE OF
PUBLIC PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS
(OP³)

It's the most wonderful time of the year ... to help others. Fairfax County has made it easy with its "Forget the Fruitcake — Ways to Give Campaign" that promotes 11 ways to give back to your community. Running through the end of the year, you can donate to any of these 11 county nonprofits, foundations and agencies in honor of anyone on your gift list. It makes shopping easy and offers you a nice tax deduction. But best of all, it helps those organizations succeed in bringing goods and services to those who need them most at this time of year.

On any given day more than 67,000 people go hungry in the county and more than 30 percent of the students in Fairfax County schools are eligible for free and reduced lunch. Despite its affluent status, Fairfax has a population that benefits from programs such as "Ways to Give." There is something for everyone on your list whether they like animals, education, summer fun or community spirit. Gifts that give back include books, a week at camp, medical care, bikes, trees and food for the hungry.

Through a partnership with ad agency Williams Whittle, Fairfax County's Office of Public Private Partnerships has honed the message and the graphics which has made a difference in the look and feel of the campaign. Williams Whittle liked the campaign in previous years and offered their professional services and contacts to make the program even better. And it's resulted in numerous pro bono advertisement and engagement from community stakeholders. One beneficiary of the increased exposure was the Fairfax County Restoration Project (FCRP) — whose mission is to restore the tree canopy in Fairfax County. When the first ad was placed in the Connection in mid-November, FCRP reported a 70 percent increase in visits to their website that offers to plant five native trees in honor of a family member or friend.

This is the fifth year of the "Ways to Give" campaign that so far has resulted in an increase of 50 percent in web traffic. Although donation numbers won't be available until January, participating agencies and nonprofits have reported a surge in traffic to their sites.

THE CONNECTION

The year 2015 included a pair of local programs winning both boys' and girls' state championships on the same day.

During the spring, the Robinson boys' and girls' lacrosse teams took home state titles at Lake Braddock Secondary School. In the fall, Lake Braddock took home boys' and girls' cross country championships at Great Meadow.

The following is a look at some of the top moments in Burke/Springfield/Fairfax/Fairfax Station sports from the year 2015.

Robinson Lacrosse Wins Two State Titles

The Robinson boys' lacrosse team returned to the top of the mountain with a thrilling victory over nemesis Chantilly. The Robinson girls' team got there for the first time, putting the finishing touch on a dominant season.

June 13 was a good day for the Rams.

The Robinson boys' and girls' lacrosse programs each won a state championship on the same day at Lake Braddock Secondary School. The boys defeated Chantilly 10-9 in double overtime, giving the Rams back-to-back state titles, and the girls beat Oakton 16-12 for their first state championship.

For the boys, it was their fourth meeting with Chantilly during the 2015 campaign. After Robinson won the regular-season meeting, Chantilly defeated the Rams in the Conference 5 championship game and the 6A North region final. The Chargers led 9-8 in the final minute of regulation of the state final, but Robinson's Johnny Daniel scored with 36 seconds remaining and forced overtime. Chapman Jasien scored the game-winner in the second overtime.

Jasien, Daniel and Chris White each scored three goals for Robinson.

The Robinson girls defeated Oakton for the third time, including a 15-6 victory in the region final. The Rams finished the season with a 21-1 record, won their final 15 games and captured Conference 5 and 6A North region championships along with their state title.

Izzy Obregon scored four goals for Robinson. Elli Kluegel, Katie Checkosky and Mackenzie Schuler each scored three goals.

Lake Braddock Boys, Girls XC Win State Titles

The Lake Braddock boys' and girls' cross country teams took home state titles on Nov. 13 at Great Meadow.

The boys' team repeated as state champion and finished in the top two for the third straight season. The Bruins posted a score of 46, well ahead of second-place Madison (106).

The Lake Braddock boys' cross country team repeated as state champion on Nov. 13.

Senior Colin Schaefer (fourth, 16:02), junior Conor Lyons (eighth, 16:16), senior Spencer Jolley (11th, 16:24) and senior Cavanaugh McGaw (14th, 16:26) each earned individual all-state honors for the Bruins.

The girls' team won its first state title since 2012 and finished in the top two for the second straight year. The Bruins finished with a score of 44, knocking off two-time defending state champion Oakton (76).

Lake Braddock junior Kate Murphy won the individual state title with a time of 18:20. Sophomore Sarah Daniels (10th, 19:07), junior Emily Schiesl (11th, 19:10) and senior Sonya Butseva (14th, 19:19) also earned all-state honors for the Bruins.

SoCo Football Beats Lake Braddock in OT

South County and Lake Braddock entered their regular-season matchup on Nov. 6 as the last two undefeated football teams remaining in the 6A North region.

The Bruins built a 27-7 first-half lead on their home field and appeared to stop the Stallions on fourth-and-goal from the 1-yard line. However, an observant play by South County quarterback DeAndre Clayton resulted in a touchdown and the first step in a Stallions comeback.

South County running back DeMarcus Ramsey fumbled on the fourth-and-goal carry and Clayton scooped the ball up and scored a touchdown, cutting the Lake Braddock lead to 13. By the end of the night, South County had overcome a 20-point deficit and defeated Lake Braddock 33-30 in overtime in both teams' regular-season finale. The victory wrapped up an undefeated regular season and the Conference 7 championship for the Stallions, who entered the postseason as the region's No. 1 seed.

Lake Braddock had won at least a share of the previous six Conference 7/Patriot District championships.

Ramsey finished the night with 30 carries for 157 yards and two touchdowns, including the game-winning 10-yard touchdown run on the first play of the Stallions' overtime possession.

A Year In Review

At his Aug. 19 arraignment, the trial date for Torres was set for Dec. 14, however a recent extension was granted to the defense, pushing the trial back to April 2016.

Bruce Waggoner, President of the Springfield Civic Association, said the work of the Police Department is admirable for the most part, as are the efforts of the Ad Hoc commission. But the handling of the Geer incident, he said, "just undermined it all. They've got to rebuild that."

The case of 37-year-old Natasha McKenna was another that developed the use of force dialog. McKenna died while incarcerated and in the custody of the Sheriff's Office in February. In September, the office released a video of McKenna, an African-American woman who struggled with mental illness, being removed from her holding cell for transportation to Alexandria police. As she resisted multiple deputies, she was forced to the ground and restrained before receiving four blasts from a deputy's taser.

Local community members and supporters from around the region demonstrated before and during a public forum meeting of the Ad Hoc commission at Walt Whitman Middle School in Mount Vernon on Sept. 14.

McKenna's death was attributed to "excited delirium" by the medical examiner's office. Commonwealth Attorney Raymond F. Morrogh stated in a 52-page report after he concluded his investigation that it was a "tragic accident" and none of the deputies had committed a criminal offense.

IN RESPONSE to those results, the Fairfax County NAACP staged a rally for McKenna at the Fairfax County Courthouse on Sept. 27.

"Anyone who watched the 48-minute video released last week of Natasha McKenna's last conscious moments cannot help but be horrified," Fairfax County NAACP President Shirley Ginwright said in a statement at the time. Ginwright was also a member of Bulova's Ad Hoc commission. "Those who have read the 52-page report from Fairfax County Commonwealth's Attorney Raymond Morrogh and his conclusion that it was a 'tragic accident' cannot help but wonder, 'What video was he watching?'"

The Fairfax Choral Society Adult Symphonic Chorus joined the City of Fairfax Band on several pieces as part of the "Christmas in Fairfax" program.

Fairfax Band Premieres New Piece at Annual Christmas Concert

Returning guest host John Lyon may have rolled out the same traditional folk songs "Santa Claus Express" and "The Marvelous Toy," but the City of Fairfax Band balanced the old with the new, premiering "Laudem Nativitatis" by Randol Alan Bass.

Bass was present in the packed Fairfax High School auditorium for the band's free "Christmas in Fairfax" performance on Dec. 19. Prior to the premiere, the band performed his arrangement of "The Night Before Christmas" with Lyon narrating.

The night's program also featured several excerpts from Tchaikovsky's "The Nutcracker" suite, collaboration with the Fairfax Choral Society Adult Symphonic Chorus and "A Christmas Celebration" medley by Alfred Reed.
