Looking Ahead to the Summer in Area

Fresh fruits and cardboard boats are coming up this summer.

BY MIKE SALMON
THE CONNECTION

The summer is coming. Here's a look ahead to activities this summer so families and residents of Springfield and Burke can make plans:

Bike To Work Day

On Friday, May 17, Commuter Connections and the Washington Area Bicyclist Association is celebrating bicycling as a clean, fun, and healthy way to get to work. Be one of the first 20,000 to register and attend this free event, and receive a free T-shirt, refreshments, and be entered into a raffle for a new bicycle at the selected pit stop. For Springfield bicyclists, the pit stop will be in the Walker Avenue gazebo like in previous years.

Memorial Day Wreath Laying Ceremony

On Friday, May 24, at 11:30 a.m., the Greater Springfield Chamber of Commerce Veterans Committee is holding a Memorial Day Wreath Laying Ceremony to honor and celebrate Veterans in the Greater Springfield Area. This event is outdoors at the Ameri-

Farmers Markets

The Fairfax County Farmers Markets are open across the County with 10 farmers markets, under the Fairfax County Park Authority. By providing access to locally grown foods, the farmers market program strives to improve the health of Fairfax County citizens, support local food producers, and protect the environment. Markets in the Springfield/Burke area include:

❖ Wakefield, Wednesdays from 2 p.m. - 6 p.m. through October 30, at Wakefield Park, 8100 Braddock Road

❖ Kingstowne, Fridays from 4 p.m. - 7 p.m. through Oct. 25, in the Giant parking lot, 5870 Kingstowne Towne Center

❖ Burke, Saturdays 8 a.m. - Noon, through Dec. 21, in the VRE parking Lot, 5671 Roberts Parkway

❖ Lorton, Sundays, 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. through Nov. 17, VRE parking lot, 8990 Lorton Station Blvd.

Springfield Days Festival

Weekend of June 1, there will be activities celebrating the community of Springfield. The event kicks off Saturday morning, June 1, with the car show in the Legion parking lot on Amherst Avenue. Later that day, from noon-5 p.m., Springfield Town Center will host the Taste of Springfield Festival featuring food, exhibitors, entertainment and live music. On Sunday, June 2, Lake Accotink Park will host the locally famous Cardboard Boat Regatta.

Meet the Candidates for County Board Chairman

Four to contend in June 11 Democratic Primary to seek to replace retiring Sharon Bulova.

BY ANDREA WORKER
THE CONNECTION

As Chair of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors Sharon Bulova prepares to retire at the end of the year, four Democrats have come forward, looking to fill her spot as the county's top elected official. With multiple candidates, election rules call for a Primary Election to decide a winner who will go on to the November 5 ballot, when all of the Board member seats will be up for grabs.

Vying for the position are:

❖ Current Lee District Supervisor Jeff C. McKay, who has served on the Board since 2007.

❖ Ryan McElveen, At-Large Member, Fairfax County Public Schools Board since 2012.

❖ Tim Chapman, Reston-based real estate developer and businessmen

❖ Alicia Plerhoples, tenured law professor at Georgetown Law.

The Connection sent out identical questionnaires to all four, asking each to provide voters with some basic information about themselves, and then to explain why they are running, what they see as the top issues facing the county, and in what key ways they differ from their opponents.

Here are their responses:

Jeffrey C. McKay

Age: 43

Education: James Madison University (1996), Sorensen Institute for Political Leadership (1998)

Family: Wife, Crystal, children Leann and Aidan, retired racing greyhound Pascal.

Native of: Fairfax County
Moved to Your District: Lifelong Lee District resident

Prior and current professional, political and civic experiences, community involvement, etc.:

❖ Fairfax County Board of Supervisors – Lee District

❖ Chairman, Budget Committee, Board of Supervisors

❖ Chairman, Legislative Committee

❖ Co-Chair, Revitalization Committee

❖ Member, Successful Children and Youth Policy Team

❖ Member, Northern Virginia Regional Commission

❖ Member, Virginia Railway Express Board

❖ First VP, Virginia Assoc. of Counties Board of Directors

❖ Two-time former Chair, current Member, Northern Virginia Transportation Commission

❖ Coach, Woodlawn Little League, Pioneer Baseball League, Mount Vernon Sports Club

Q: Why are you running?

A: I am a lifelong Fairfax County resident, proudly born and raised along the Route One Corridor. From an early age, my grandmother instilled in me the importance of helping others, especially those less fortunate than ourselves. Those teachings, combined with my own experiences ... are the reasons why I ultimately sought public office.

I am running for Chairman this year to build on the successes we've had and to push us forward ... I'm proud of Fairfax County and the community we've built together. Now, more than ever, those values we've instilled and the work we've done are at risk. We need to fight for all residents and communities throughout our county.

Q: What are the top issues in your district and what solutions do you propose?

A:

❖ Creating a Fairfax County that works for all (One Fairfax)

❖ Investing in people by supporting the environment, affordable housing, transportation infrastructure, and education

❖ Creating jobs and economic opportunities in all areas of the county

Q: Key ways you differ from your opponents.

A: Having served on the Board of Supervisors for the past 11 years, I am the only candidate with Board experience and who has been a state, regional and countywide leader. I've balanced budgets and created countywide legislative agendas that have made us a progressive national leader in education, job growth, human services, and quality of life, while also ensuring we're protecting our environment and fighting for affordable housing.

I have the knowledge, experience, and relationships it takes to be a successful chairman, and I am excited for the opportunity before us.

The Democratic candidates for the Chair of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, heading for the June 11 Primary election, debate at a live, televised event, hosted by the Fairfax Healthy Communities Coalition. Coalition member and event moderator Pastor Sarah Scherschligt is flanked by candidates Tim Chapman and Alicia Plerhoples on the left, and Jeff McKay, Lee District Supervisor, and Ryan McElveen, At-Large member of the FC Public Schools Board on the right.

Ryan McElveen

Age: 33

Education: Columbia University, Master of International Affairs in Human Rights (2011); Univ. of Virginia, B.A. Anthropology and East Asian Studies (2008); George C. Marshall High School (2004)

Family: Wife Xuan, daughter Sierra

Native of: Raised in the Vienna-Tysons area

Moved to Your District: Lifelong resident of Fairfax County

Prior and current professional, political and civic experiences, community involvement, etc.:

❖ At-large Member, Fairfax County School Board 2012-Present

❖ Assoc. Director, John L. Thornton China Center, the Brookings Institution, 2013 - Present

❖ International Operations and Policy, the Boeing Company

❖ Co-Chair, Revitalization Committee, FC Board of Supervisors.

❖ Communications, Clinton Foundation and Clinton Global Initiative

❖ Researcher, Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations, U.S. Senate

❖ Asst. Director, Univ. of Virginia Center in Shanghai, China

Q: Why are you running?

A: After spending the better part of my time on the School Board as witness to chronically underfunded school system budgets, I decided to run for Chairman when I realized that there was no one else in the race who would be as strong an advocate for our schools and children as I would be.

Since January, I have been saying that we are two Fairfaxes. The development patterns that have been promoted by past Boards of Supervisors have led to the stark divides between the "haves" and "have nots" in Fairfax County. ...

We need to turn our attention to the areas and populations that will benefit from neither Amazon and a growing tech sector nor higher property values. All of our residents need to have a voice. I will purposefully work to narrow that gap and provide more seats at the table, making sure that our diverse community is better represented by our leadership.

Q: What are the top issues in your district and what solutions do you propose?

A: The three most important issues and opportunities that Fairfax needs to address are in the areas of education, innovation and opportunity.

❖ Education: We need to fully fund our schools and implement universal pre-Kindergrarten so that our students enter school ready to succeed.

❖ Innovation: We need to connect all residents to the internet; create transportation networks that accommodate expanded public transit and electric and autonomous vehicles; and preserve green space while investing in a green infrastructure that pushes Fairfax toward a carbon-neutral future.

❖ Opportunity: We need to prepare our community members for the jobs of the future by creating apprenticeships and building innovation labs in schools; develop small-business incubators in vacant office space; and build affordable housing

Changing Political Landscape

Don't miss vote June 11 or before to have a say in the biggest political change in years.

On June 11, 2019 a revolution is scheduled. There will be no blood. Change, massive change, is inevitable, but its effects won't be fully in place for months.

Many of the powers that be in Fairfax County will step down at the end of the year, taking with them decades of historic understanding and institutional knowledge. Voters will choose their replacements, for the most part, on June 11. It's a huge opportunity for voters in Virginia to enact the change they want to see.

First any Virginia voter can participate in the Democratic primary because voters in Virginia do not register by party.

Second almost every candidate is describing themselves as progressive. There are of course degrees of progressive. You'll have to tease out for yourself what matters to you. Is the county on the right track in the things that matter? If you think the county has done enough in affordable housing, is on the right path in terms of criminal justice reform and racial and economic equity, then voting for the few longtime incumbents might be right for you. If your vision of a progressive county is a bit beyond the status quo, then you have other choices.

Every Democratic primary voter in Fairfax County will choose candidates for two critical county wide positions, Chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors and Fairfax County Commonwealth's Attorney.

Early voting has begun already, but the cut-off to register to vote is in less than a week, May 20. You have to register (at your current address) and actually vote to have a say in choices that could define the direction of the county for the foreseeable future. With four or five candidates vying for quite a few seats, a small number of votes could decide. Don't miss out.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Appalled by Vetoes

To the Editor:

According to the National Institutes of Health, deaths from synthetic opioids such as Fentanyl increased 1,000 percent in Virginia from 2012 to 2017. With more than 100 Virginians dying of opioid overdoses every month, the human cost of this crisis is nearly inconceivable. As we continue to lose friends and family members to this crisis, the time has come to say enough is enough.

To combat this crisis, I worked with the Virginia Association of Commonwealth's Attorneys to pass HB 2528 during the 2019 session of the General Assembly. Long sought by prosecutors, HB 2528 would have allowed drug dealers to be prosecuted for second degree murder if the drugs they provide directly contribute to the death of the user.

What many of us do not realize is that many drug dealers under current law can only be charged with distribution. Even if their drugs cause death, they are typically out on bail after a few days.

A dose of Fentanyl the size of a grain of salt is all it takes to kill someone. A drug dealer who sells someone drugs laced with Fentanyl is no less a killer than if he had pointed a gun and pulled the trigger.

HB 2528 sought to give prosecutors another tool to combat the opioid crisis. During this past General Assembly session, I appreciated the support of Attorney General Mark Herring. Unfortunately, Governor Northam decided this last week that repairing his damaged image was more important than getting justice for overdose victims and their families.

Adding insult to injury, the Governor also vetoed a great bill put forth by my Democratic colleague Kathleen Murphy. Delegate Murphy's bill, HB 2042, would have sentenced those convicted of multiple abuses against a family member within a 10 year window to a minimum of 60 days in jail. Spousal abuse is all too common, and ensuring that a wife or husband can have a couple of months without the fear of further abuse is critically important.

Both of these bills would have saved lives, both of these bills were bipartisan, and both of these bills are now dead because of Governor Northam. To say I am extremely disappointed with the Governor would be an understatement. I am appalled.

Five Juveniles Charged with Child Pornography

Five juveniles are facing charges for illicit images of teenage girls found on a social media account. The five boys all live in Fairfax, with two attending Robinson Secondary School, two attending Lake Braddock Secondary School, and one attending W.T. Woodson High School.

On Feb. 13, two victims from Robinson High School told their school administrator they discovered nude images of themselves on an anonymous Snapchat account. The school resource officer then contacted Child Exploitation Unit, which conducted a lengthy investigation culminating in identifying and charging the five juveniles with a total of 10 felony charges on May 8. Nine charges were for possession of child pornography, one charge was for unlawful filming. The victims attended West Springfield High School, Lake Braddock High School, Robinson High School, and South County High School. Although detectives were able to identify and notify some of the victims, many are still unidentifiable.

If images of a pornographic nature appear to be of a person under the age of 18, it is a crime. If you receive unsolicited sexting messages, you should contact police non-emergency number 703-691-2131.

In-custody Death Investigated

Detectives are investigating the in-custody death of 38-year-old inmate Hector Escobar Romero.

Romero was taken from the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center (ADC) to the hospital for medical attention on Sunday, May 5 after being found unresponsive in his cell. He remained in the hospital where he died on May 13. The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner will examine the body, but preliminarily, there are no signs of foul play.

The inmate had been incarcerated at the ADC since March 5. The Fairfax County Sheriff's Office and FCPD are working collectively to gather all information and to thoroughly document the situation. FCPD investigates all Fairfax County Sheriff's Office in-custody deaths.

Fatal Crash in Lorton

A man died as a result of injuries from a crash that occurred at the intersection of Ox Road and Hooes Road in Lorton around 8:40 p.m. May 9. Crash Reconstruction Detectives have preliminarily determined that Brian Beyreuther, 45, of Lorton, was driving a 2018 Ford Escape making a left turn from Hooes Road to southbound Ox Road with the green light. Robert Derifield, 42, of Woodbridge, was traveling north on Ox Road, driving a 2019 Dodge Ram, when he disregarded the red signal and struck the Ford Escape. Beyreuther was taken to a nearby hospital where he died. Derifield was taken to a hospital with injuries that are not considered life threatening. Charges are pending as the investigation continues. Speed appears to be a factor in the crash, according to police.

Anyone with information about this crash is asked to contact Crash Reconstruction Unit at 703-280-0543.

Choosing Swimming Lessons

What can parents do if child is afraid of the water.

BY MARILYN CAMPBELL

The start of summer just around the corner and for some, warm weather is synonymous with trips to a pool or beach. swimming lessons are one the minds of many parents. May is National Water Safety Month, an effort designed to prevent illness, injury and death as a result of contact with the water. Part of a parent's role in ensuring safety for their children is knowing the factors to consider when looking for swimming lessons.

"People are starting get out and enjoy the water," said Aleatha Ezra, of The World's Largest Swimming Lesson, an event on June 20 designed to raise awareness of the importance of knowing how to swim. "We want to emphasis the importance to learning to swim, finding lessons and taking them seriously."

When looking for lessons, parents should inquire about the training of those who will be in charge of teaching their children. "We require all of our swim instructors to pass a certified lifeguard course," said Tommy Hamilton, Regional Manager at Goldfish Swim School of Reston, Falls Church and Alexandria. "In addition to this course all of our instructors also go through at least 40 hours of hands on training on our proprietary curriculum."

In order for lessons to be effective, the student teacher ratio should be as low as possible, advises Hamilton. "We believe that this gives them suitable time in the water practicing their skills as well as enough rest in between each skill," he said. "The small class sizes also allow us to maintain a high standard for safety."

The swim school should assess a child's ability and have a curriculum with a clearly defined plan that allows a child to advance as they gain skills. "For example, we have a progressive curriculum. Our beginner swim classes start with basics like teaching kids to put their face in the water," said Jamel Wright, a swimming instructor for SafeSplash Swim School in Bethesda. "It moves through [phases] like stroke development and advances through competition level as the children are assessed and their swimming skills improve."

Parents should be allowed to observe their child's lessons, said Hamilton. "We love when parents get involved in the progress of their children," he said. "We believe this to be crucial to their growth. We keep our pool deck at a warm 90 degrees so we have large glass windows in our lobby so parents can be comfortable and watch the entire lesson."

Another factor to consider is whether or not there is a lifeguard on duty who can watch those in the water at all times. Water quality should be another concern. "Smell to make sure there are no strong chemical smells, which is not a sign of proper chlorination but rather contamination," said Shannon McKeon, Environmental Health Specialist. "Ask to see water quality reports that should be posted at every public pool."

There are times when a child has an extreme fear of water, but safety experts advise continuing the lessons with an instructor who is able to assist parents in helping a child overcome that fear.

"To cope with swimming fears, we should first relax with slow, deep, nose breathing," said Jerome Short, Ph.D. Licensed Clinical Psychologist and Associate Professor of Psychology at George Mason University. "We can close our eyes briefly and go to a quiet, comfortable place. After we are relaxed, we should watch others who enjoy swimming and imagine doing it ourselves successfully. Then move forward in small steps to shallow water, slowly submerge the body, and practice floating with someone close by to support you. Take a break if there is discomfort but try again soon to make more progress."

Read story books on children who were afraid to swim but were successful, advises Carol Barnaby, LCSW I. "Scared children are already tackling emotional burdens and don't need to see, hear, or feel their parents frustration, she said. "Take your child's fear seriously and acknowledge it. Let them know that you understand that they are scared. Start swim lessons out of the water so that there can be trust established this will make them feel safe and ready to learn."

Barnaby continued, "Let your child know that you believe in them and that you have confidence they will succeed at their goal. Praise all efforts and offer physical reassurance when they leave the water. Children who receive positive reinforcement will try harder even when they are scared. Give your child frequent reassurance that they are safe and help is there."

"We want to emphasis the importance to learning to swim, finding lessons and taking them seriously."

throughout our community.

Q: Key ways you differ from your opponents.

A: I am the only candidate in this race who has experience as an elected official representing all Fairfax residents and overseeing 53 percent of the county budget as a School Board member. I am also the only candidate who, through years of working in international business and think tank environments, has built global networks that can help our county become a model for international business development and investment. Perhaps most importantly, I am an outsider to the Board of Supervisors.

My roles as a FCPS graduate, a Fairfax parent, a School Board member, a global thinker and candidate for Chair have one thread: a dedication to the county that I love. I want to make sure everyone who calls this place home is able to give back to it as I have sought to do and achieve the American Dream.

Q: Why are you running?

A: I am running to improve the quality of life for every Fairfax County resident. I see other municipalities passing us by, whether on environmental action, public transit, living wages, affordable housing, or educational investment.

Q: What are the top issues in your district and what solutions do you propose:

❖ To foster liveable, affordable communities where people who work here can afford to live here

❖ To develop a vibrant economy that creates quality jobs and restores a clean, sustainable environment

❖ To ensure our high quality public schools meet the needs of students in every part of the county, no matter one's zip code.

Q: Key ways you differ from your opponents?

A: I am the only candidate committed to putting voters first by refusing to accept political contributions from real estate developers. That is a conflict of interest.

I am the only lawyer, experienced in bringing private sector, small business to the table.

siders and has relegated the Board of Supervisors to a land use and zoning review board. We can do better.

I want to give a voice to the working class families and underserved communities in Fairfax County, and to address problems that affect everyone. Together, we can create a more equitable prosperity in Fairfax County.

Q: Key ways you differ from your opponents?

A: ❖ Background in business, development and managing large enterprises

❖ I'm no stranger to hard work. My mother and I were homeless for a portion of my childhood. You don't go from youth homelessness to managing a $13 billion agency overnight. I have spent my life building things, solving problems, and serving my community.

❖ I have the real world experience that it will take to help Fairfax County move forward, and I am prepared to take my service to a new level as Chair of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors.

❖ I have spent my career building affordable housing...with the VHDA we made it possible for thousands of moderate income Virginians to buy a home. These experiences uniquely position me to lead Fairfax County towards a brighter future.

Q: Why are you running?

A: I am running for Chair of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors because I want to extend the opportunities for success I've had to all of our Fairfax County neighbors. I love living in Fairfax County, but our community, like the bottom side of a pancake, is not perfect. We are one of the wealthiest counties in the United States, but deep-rooted inequality remains.

These inequalities are rooted in a closed political system that for decades has served only the wealthy and well-connected...stifling competition from out-

Summer Attractions Abound in Area

Lee District Nights

As part of the Fairfax County Concert Series, there are concerts scheduled at the amphitheater in Lee District Park this summer on Wednesdays starting at 7:30. On June 26, The Fabulous Hubcaps are playing, followed by The Nighthawks on July 3. Lee District Park is at 6601 Telegraph Road near Rose Hill.

Workhouse Arts Center Fireworks

On Saturday, June 29 from 5 – 10 p.m., the Workhouse Fireworks will "illuminate the Northern Virginia landscape in an expertly-choreographed display of pyrotechnic light and thunder. Launched from the historic, 55-acre campus, the region's largest pre-Independence Day fireworks show celebrates the history of the nation and honors the courage and sacrifice that have made America a beacon of hope and freedom around the world. A nearly 30-minute fireworks show follows the Rizer Pavilion musical performance by the US Navy Band Sea Chanters."

Springfield Nights

Concerts on the lawn at Burke Lake from July 10 - Aug. 14, every Wednesday at 7 p.m.

National Night Out – Aug. 6

National Night Out is an annual community-building campaign that promotes strong police-community partnerships and neighborhood camaraderie to make neighborhoods safer, more caring places to live and work. Millions of neighbors take part in National Night Out across thousands of communities from all fifty states, U.S. territories and military bases worldwide on the first Tuesday in August. Neighborhoods host block parties, festivals, parades, cookouts and various other community events with safety demonstrations, seminars, youth events, visits from emergency personnel, exhibits and more. <https://natw.org/>

Paving

It's not all fun and games this summer though, the winter weather has caused a few potholes on area roads so paving plans are underway.

As part of the Virginia Department of Transportation's summer paving schedule, VDOT is paving the I-495 Outer Loop from just prior to Route 50 (mile marker 49.73) to the Springfield Interchange (stopping a little short of the bridge over I-395). It started back in November, stopped in mid-December for the winter, then resumed in early April. It's scheduled for completion in mid-August.

Cars on display kick off the Springfield Days weekend.
