Every Year Is Election Year in Virginia

Early voting options expand; you can vote now.

BY SUSAN LAUME AND MARY KIMM
THE CONNECTION

Every year is an Election year in Virginia. And as one of only two states to have Gubernatorial elections the year after the presidential election, Virginia's off year turns out to have national implications.

But this Election matters to local residents for so many reasons, including bond questions and representation in the House of Delegates. In a rare occurrence, every delegate race in Fairfax County is contested by two major party candidates. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Attorney General have been critically important in recent years in directing policy as well. Turnout can be lower in the off year, but given how much easier it is to vote in Virginia now, it shouldn't be.

As calendar pages turn toward the Nov. 2 election day for Virginia's State-wide offices nears, voters have many voting options. Driven by COVID-19 work around considerations, Virginia's legislature has authorized new contactless voting options, including in person early voting, voting by mail and voting by dropping your completed ballot in a secure drop box. Early voting in person begins Sept. 17 at three locations.

County voters should begin thinking about their candidate selections, and how they will place their votes.

On the ballot: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, your member of the House of Delegates, and a School Bond Question for Fairfax County Public Schools.

Sample ballots are posted <https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections/sample-ballots>.

DROP BOXES will be available at Fairfax County early voting locations, and on election day, at all polling places, during voting hours. Voters may return their completed, sealed "mail in" ballots to a secure drop box, without involving the U.S. Postal Service. The drop boxes, located either outside of regular voting rooms or near building entrances, provide a quick, contact-free way to assure one's ballot is received, and without need to affix postage to return it. The Fairfax County Government building also has a secure drop box installed outside, permitting voters to drop off their ballots there 24/7; providing a return option when early voting sites are not open. Drop boxes are available for use on election day at all polling places from 6 am - 7 pm.

Those wishing to vote early, by mail, can

School Bond Question

Shall Fairfax County, Virginia, contract a debt, borrow money, and issue capital improvement bonds in the maximum aggregate principal amount of $360,000,000 for the purposes of providing funds, in addition to funds from school bonds previously authorized, to finance, including reimbursement to the County for temporary financing for, the costs of school improvements, including acquiring, building, expanding, and renovating properties, including new sites, new buildings or additions, renovations and improvements to existing buildings, and furnishings and equipment, for the Fairfax County public school system?

request a ballot starting now. Ballots are sent to requestors as received, beginning 45 days before the election; that's beginning mid-September. Once marked and sealed, ballots may be returned by mail, or to the special secure drop boxes at the early voting locations outside of the mail stream.

Details on voting by mail are available here: <https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/elections/absentee-voting-mail>

EARLY IN-PERSON voting locations are open Sept. 17 - Oct. 30 at three government center sites: Fairfax County, Mount Vernon, and North County.

Any registered Fairfax County voter may vote early at any Fairfax County early voting location.

Early in-person absentee voting is available for the November 2021 General & Special Elections at the following three locations from now through Oct. 30.

McLean 2021, a Sought-After Community

Great family-friendly places, schools, and public safety.

MERCIA HOBSON
THE CONNECTION

In an informal survey, we asked people to name a few places in McLean that mattered to them in 2021, those that made them feel good, proud, and alive, and where stress melted away. “McLean, it’s a great everything — schools, rec center, library. It’s beautiful and safe,” said Melissa Jenkins of McLean.

Here is a sampling of those places.

McLean Central Park area has much to offer.

McLean High School ranked 3rd in Virginia as the best public high school in 2021, according to Niche rankings.

What makes McLean special? The community feel and the neighborhood we chose.

Lewinsville Park is a neighborhood gathering spot according to locals. The athletic fields are great for soccer and baseball. There are basketball and tennis courts and a nearby playground with picnic tables. A large community garden is also available.

The McLean Farmers Market operated by Fairfax County Park Authority features 16 vendors and is held Fridays from 8 a.m. to noon. It is located at 1659 Chain Bridge Rd. at Lewinsville Park and runs through Nov. 12 this year.

Special in the Dranesville District

BY SUPERVISOR JOHN W. FOUST

The Dranesville District includes McLean, Great Falls, Herndon and some areas of Vienna and Falls Church and has about 125,000 residents. It runs from the Arlington County border to the Loudoun County border along the beautiful Potomac River. Herndon is a quintessential small American town with a rich heritage and strong sense of community. It also has a vibrant transit area developing around a new Metro station that will open soon. McLean is an active community with some of the most beautiful neighborhoods in the Metropolitan region. Only a few miles from Tysons and the Dulles Corridor, Great Falls is a semi-rural community where residents actively participate in preserving its history and protecting its environment.

Dranesville includes some of the best County and National parks in the region including Riverbend Park, Great Falls Park and Scotts Run Nature Preserve. The District is also home to numerous excellent public schools including the high achieving and highly regarded Langley, McLean, and Herndon High Schools. Throughout the District, there are excellent libraries and active arts communities. All three communities have outdoor summer concert series and old-fashioned farmers' markets.

The introduction of Metro's Silver Line has provided an alternative to the automobile for Dranesville residents. Expansion of the Silver Line to Dulles Airport and into Loudoun, scheduled to open in 2022, will make traveling that much easier.

The excellent schools, parks and libraries, lovely neighborhoods, active youth sports and arts programs, and its active, interesting, and friendly residents make Dranesville an excellent place to live, raise a family, and do business.

Fairfax County, and especially Tysons and the Dulles Corridor, continue to grow and provide excellent business and employment opportunities for Dranesville residents. Our challenge in the coming years is to ensure that the growth is balanced with expanded public facilities and public services so that future generations will be able to enjoy living in Dranesville as much as the past and current residents have enjoyed making their homes here.

If you are looking to get involved in the community, there are many civic and community organizations always in need of new people. Take a look at the McLean Citizens Association www.mcleancitizens.org and the Great Falls Citizens Association www.gfca.org. Volunteer opportunities can be found at <https://www.volunteerfairfax.org>

I hope you will sign up for my community notices and updates, which provide information on important goings on in Dranesville and the County. Visit my website at <https://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/dranesville/> and subscribe to our newsletter.

Welcome to the Dranesville District. It has been my honor to represent Dranesville residents on the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors for the past 13 years. I look forward to continuing to serve you in the future.

Places I Would Take a Newcomer in Dranesville District

We are fortunate to have many wonderful parks, historical features, and community events in the Dranesville District. The following are some of my favorites.

CLEMYJONTRI PARK:

Since opening in 2006, more than 200,000 visitors have enjoyed this unique playground where children of all abilities can play side-by-side. Equipment allows children who have physical, sensory, or developmental disabilities to have a parallel playground experience of fun and exploration. The park also includes a carousel, picnic pavilion, and a trackless train.

6317 Georgetown Pike, McLean

RIVERBEND PARK:

This park offers over 400 acres of forests, meadows, and ponds. Trails include a 2.5-mile portion of the Potomac Heritage Trail that links national and regional parkland. Kayaking, canoeing, and fishing are all available on the Potomac River. The Outdoor Education Classroom/Picnic Shelter is a great place to have a party.

8700 Potomac Hills, Great Falls

COLVIN RUN MILL HISTORIC SITE:

Colvin Run Mill offers visitors a chance to step back in time. There are tours of the restored mill, which was built around 1811. A general store offers stone ground cornmeal, wheat flour, grits, "penny candy," snacks, and drinks. Trails are available for quiet walks. Live music, craft demonstrations, ice cream making, and seasonal activities are offered from February through December.

10017 Colvin Run, Great Falls

TURNER FARM:

Originally the site of a dairy farm, the 52-acre park offers a unique mix of educational and recreational facilities. Observatory Park offers the public a chance to see the night sky from one of Fairfax County's darkest spots through permanently mounted telescopes. The Analemma Society partners with the Park Authority to provide astronomy programs at the observatory. Equestrians can enjoy a cross country course and a large multi-purpose arena with stadium jumps and dressage makers. Small children can enjoy a tot lot. Under the Park Authority's Resident Curator Program, the historic Turner Farmhouse has been restored and is now occupied by the Turner Farmhouse Foundation, under the direction of Sarah Kirk.

925 Springvale Road, Great Falls

RUNNYMEDE PARK:

The Town of Herndon owns and maintains this 58-acre park. It is the site for many community nature-related events such as the annual NatureFest, the Spring Native Plant Sale, and the Fall Native Plant Sale. Situated near the Sugarland Run Stream, the park attracts over 100 species of bird, deer, fox, and other wildlife. Guided walks are offered to highlight the wildlife on the trails. Two park shelters are available for rent.

196 Herndon Parkway, Herndon

MPAARTFEST:

Every October, the McLean Project for the Arts converts McLean Central Park into a free, one-day festival of the arts. Thousands of area residents attend. Vendor tents display the works of numerous juried artists, which are complemented by the exhibitions of children's and seniors' artwork, an Open Studio demonstration, and performances by local musicians.

McLean Central Park, 1468 Dolley Madison Blvd., McLean

MCLEAN DAY:

Sponsored by the McLean Community Center, McLean Day is held on the third Saturday in May. The festival features live entertainment, carnival rides, exhibitions, and delicious foods for visitors of all ages. The event also includes booths where artisans, local businesses, civic organizations, nonprofit groups, and local officials showcase their wares.

Lewinsville Park, 1659 Chain Bridge Road, McLean

HERNDON FESTIVAL:

Held in late May, the Herndon Festival offers something for the whole family. The festival features two entertainment stages, 10K and 5K races, carnival rides, hands-on arts and activities, food vendors, fireworks, and more. Enjoy four days of fun-filled activities and entertainment.

200 Spring Street, Herndon

GREAT FALLS FREEDOM MEMORIAL:

The Great Falls Freedom Memorial was created in 2004 to honor all who have served our country. The Freedom Memorial hosts annual ceremonies, on Memorial Day, September 11, and Veterans' Day, as well as a 5K race on July 4. It is a special place to pay respects to and remember those who have served and sacrificed for our country.

9830 Georgetown Pike in Great Falls (Behind the Great Falls Library)

HERNDON FRIDAY NIGHT LIVE!:

Friday nights during the summer, Friday Night Live! concerts are held on the Herndon Town Green. Concerts are free and feature popular local and regional acts. Most featured bands play rock and roll covers from classic to modern rock, but country and original music are also included for good measure.

Herndon Town Green, 777 Lynn Street, Herndon

NEWCOMERS GUIDE

The Hunter Mill District: Celebrating Diversity

Nearly 130,000 people call
Hunter Mill District home.

BY WALTER ALCORN
HUNTER MILL SUPERVISOR

Welcome to Fairfax County and to Hunter Mill District! As a long-time resident of our district, I am very happy that you have chosen this area for your home. You and your family will enjoy our vibrant and diverse neighborhoods, as well as our excellent amenities, including great schools, parks, trails, public art, and shopping.

Please take a few minutes to review the information The Connection is providing in this Newcomers Guide. The best asset you will find in Hunter Mill District is our residents. Nearly 130,000 people call Hunter Mill District home, according to the latest U.S. Census data, covering Reston, Vienna, the southwest corner of Tysons and parts of greater Herndon. Hunter Mill is one of nine supervisory districts of Fairfax County, whose total population in the 2020 census came in at 1.15 million.

While Hunter Mill District includes many different neighborhoods and housing options, the one thing in common is an engaged community that cares deeply about our quality of life and helping each other. This is evident with the outpouring of generosity we receive every year when my office hosts Stuff the Bus food donation drives and a Coat Closet for helping our vulnerable neighbors stay warm.

If you love the outdoors, you picked a great place to live! Everywhere you look, you will see residents out and about on bikes and scooters, walking or running on our trails and roads. During the spring, I hope you will register to participate in the Tour de Hunter Mill, an opportunity to bicycle through our District at a leisurely (or faster if you want!) pace with family, friends and neighbors.

Please plan to be involved as much as you can in your new community – join the PTA at your children's schools, contact your faith community about opportunities to volunteer, and find out how to become involved with your homeowner's association (HOA). One of my most important priorities as your supervisor is to provide a transparent and participatory local government, and participation does not happen without an engaged citizenry.

Listed on this page are a number of ways for you to be informed about the many issues we are working in Hunter Mill District in 2021, including defeating COVID-19, reducing traffic and managing development, getting the Silver Line Phase 2 open, combating climate change, rethinking and re-emphasizing public safety and security, voting and more. I look forward to hearing from you.

Lucky To Call Fairfax County Home

BY JEFF MCKAY
CHAIRMAN, FAIRFAX COUNTY
BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Welcome to Fairfax County. You are moving here under unusual and unprecedented times. That said, this last year and a half reminded me why I'm proud to lead Fairfax County as Chairman of the Board of Supervisors and why I have been so fortunate to be able to call it home for all of my life.

In Fairfax County, we take COVID-19 and vaccinating our population seriously. As of Sept. 24, 2021, we are proud to have 81.2% of people over the age of 18 vaccinated with at least one dose and 83.6% of adolescents 12-17 vaccinated similarly with at least one dose. While we have made great strides in slowing the spread of COVID-19, Fairfax County is experiencing a high transmission of COVID-19 cases due to the infectious Delta variant. Unfortunately, there are many (particularly young students) who are not eligible to be vaccinated. We need everyone to do their part and get vaccinated to help protect those who are not able. This is especially important to keeping our students in school. Schedule your appointment at <http://vaccine.gov/>

As we navigated (and continue to navigate) the pandemic, Fairfax County has been on the frontlines of providing the support our residents and businesses need. Thanks to federal dollars, our Board of Supervisors has invested millions to help get people back on their feet through emergency rental and food assistance. We have awarded $87 million in grants for small businesses and non-profits who have been impacted. We deliberately targeted businesses that historically don't have access to these types of funding opportunities, including veteran- women- and minority-owned organizations.

Now, it's time to look to recovery. We will continue to target our efforts to make sure families have the access to assistance they need. This is particularly important in the portions of the County most hit by COVID.

We have exciting projects down the pipeline for our businesses including the Fairfax Founders Fund which will provide capital to entrepreneurs in the County who are focused on emerging technologies and will be targeted towards those who have less access to capital.

In addition, in line with the One Fairfax policy I co-authored in 2017, which puts equity at the center to every decision we make, I convened a Task Force on Equity and Opportunity. It was clear from the inequities of the pandemic coupled with the movement fighting for racial justice that it was time to take the next step. My Task Force looked at systemic obstacles standing in the way of equity and recently provided its recommendations to the Board.

Despite all the uncertainty around us, we are lucky to live in Fairfax County. We have a caring and diverse population and great resources. For example, we have 23,000 acres of parkland, which includes 427 public parks and 325 miles of trails to enjoy when you want to be outside safely. One of my favorite escapes has been Huntley Meadows Park in my neighborhood. It makes me thankful for our continued investment in our greenspaces and efforts to protect the environment.

Navigating this pandemic has not been a straight path forward. We have had to pivot to save lives. Over time we have made significant investments in our infrastructure that have well positioned us to respond. Our sophisticated Health Department, first responders, and County frontline workers are all dedicated to our community. Their work has been exceptional and remind us why a responsive, well-run government is essential in times like these.

As we navigate a world beyond COVID-19, we will continue to fight for what's important: investing in people, programs, education, and creating a Fairfax that works for everyone, just as we have always done. Our community will make it through this together. Fairfax County is a great place to live and work and I hope that you quickly feel at home.

FCPS: Opportunities to Shine in Every Area

BY DR. SCOTT BRABRAND
SUPERINTENDENT, FCPS

Welcome to Fairfax County Public Schools! We are so glad you are here. No matter where you are coming from, or what your children's interests may be, we are confident we can meet your family's needs.

FCPS is home to students from 204 countries, who speak more than 200 languages. Our more than 180,000 students come to us from a variety of backgrounds: 15 percent receive special education services, 19 percent participate in English for Speakers of Other Languages classes and 31 percent are economically disadvantaged.

While here, there are opportunities for students to shine in every area: These past few months alone, we were home to a student who placed 21st in the Scripps National Spelling Bee, multiple National Science Bee winners, a Time for Kids student journalist finalist and an International Society of Bassists solo performance competition winner.

Our students are also having a positive impact on our communities: Some have succeeded in getting historical markers erected to honor Black Virginians, digging into history to find and nominate people worthy of recognition by the state. Students in elementary and high schools alike spent the past year growing produce on school grounds to help supply local food banks amid food security issues exacerbated by the pandemic. This month alone, some have created a guide to help Afghan refugee students acclimate and assist our staff in meeting their needs.

They conclude their time in our district with impressive accomplishments too. FCPS students last year took almost 16,000 advanced placement exams that can result in college credit. They outperformed their Virginia and national peers this year with an average SAT score of 1201; and 214 students from 16 high schools were named National Merit Semifinalists. Those enrolled in our Career and Technical Education program helped build a new home in Springfield that sold for more than $1 million, staffed emergency rescue teams and repaired vehicles.

We still cheer for our students after they graduate too. This summer we had the pleasure of rooting for FCPS grads in the Tokyo Olympics: our Olympian alums competed in swimming, track and rifle shooting.

I truly believe there is a place for everyone within FCPS.

We look forward to your children joining our community and helping them reach their potential and find their passion.

McLean Citizens Association

By ROB JACKSON

When we think of McLean, the first thing that comes to mind is often the suburban character of our many neighborhoods, the countless trees and multiple streams, along with a location that is close to Downtown D.C., Tysons and Montgomery County, Maryland.

A close second in my mind is the people who live here, most especially the many who readily step forward to volunteer for the many organizations serving McLean. McLean is a community populated by many successful and talented people with a wide variety of expertise. Some have lived here their entire lives, but many come from other parts of the United States and from all over the world.

What is fortunate is that so many of them are willing to contribute their time and talents to better the community. Of course, I'm most familiar with those who have volunteered for the McLean Citizens Association, whether it's reviewing a rezoning application, analyzing financial risks of our public pension systems, leading students' efforts at removing invasive plants, serving on our board or committees, or organizing "I Love McLean Day." But volunteers drive our other community organizations, such as PTAs, Friends of the Community Center, the Greater McLean Chamber of Commerce, the many service clubs and places of worship.

In my mind, volunteers make McLean the place where we have chosen to live. I urge all newcomers to consider volunteering to make McLean even better.

THE CONNECTION

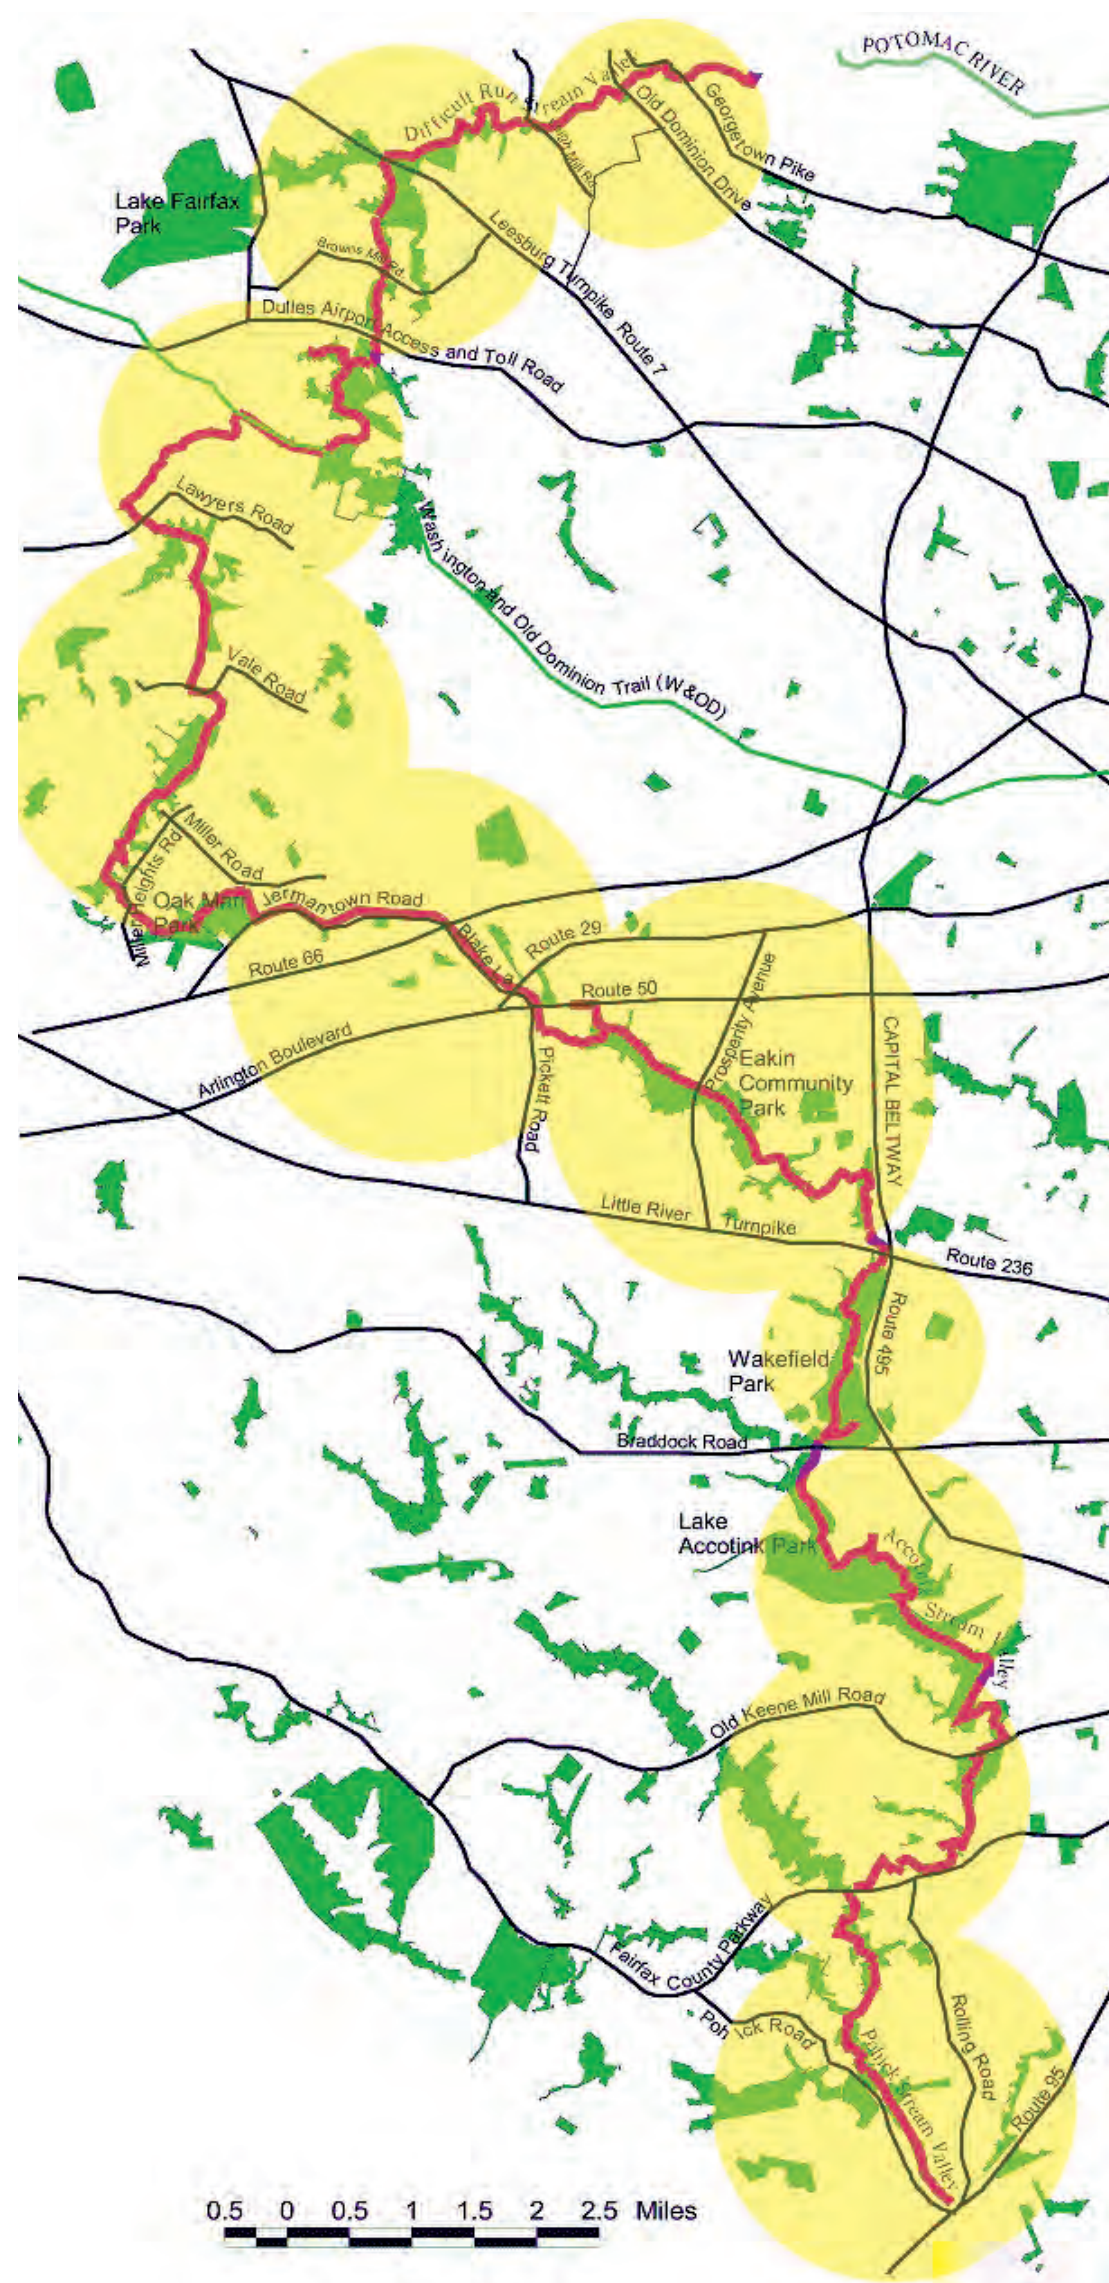

Stretching in a long, meandering ribbon of green, the Gerry Connolly Cross County Trail runs north and south for the length of Fairfax County from the Potomac River to the Occoquan River, linking parks, stream valleys, nature trails. The trail was conceptualized by citizen activists and supported by then Board of Supervisors Chairman Gerry Connolly, for whom the trail is named. In 2000, the Board allocated $900,000 to link what had been green islands of parkland and trails. Today the trail system, over 40 miles long, provides a meandering green oasis within a county undergoing rapid urbanization. The trail helps protect streams and wetlands as it passes along water, meadows, and through development, often linking people as well as parkland.

Most of the Cross County Trail runs through stream valley parkland, including some of the county's best and wildest parks, Great Falls, Wakefield and Laurel Hill. Walking provides a good opportunity to see cross country. PAGE XX

The historic Barrel Bridge, built by inmates, now serves cross county trail users where once a rail line moved materials across the Occoquan Workhouse/Lorton Prison grounds (March 2020).

The trail exhibits the beauty of nature to be discovered in all seasons of the year from dawn to sunset. (Jan. 2021).

The Good Vibes of Vienna

A feel-good community.

The Vienna Presbyterian Church founded in 1874.

The W&OD Trail is a long, narrow park that winds along the former roadbed of the Washington & Old Dominion Railroad and passes through Vienna at mile 12 of its 45-mile length. Its asphalt and concrete trail surface are a welcome source of enjoyment for runners, walkers, cyclists, and skaters.

About the Connection in 2020

This year, 2021 in the time of the pandemic, has been brutal for so many.

More than 21,000 residents of Fairfax County have tested positive for COVID-19, and more than 600 people here have died.

Life is vastly different than it was pre-pandemic. Families of all backgrounds are facing food insecurity and demand at food pantries has skyrocketed.

Thousands of families could be facing eviction. Many small businesses are still in economic crisis, and some employees facing unemployment.

Local newspapers, including the Connection newspapers, are facing an existential threat from the combination of nationwide downturn in newspaper advertising that has been worsening over several years, compounded by the economic crisis of coronavirus.

We turned to GoFundMe at a critical point, and our readers answered, raising nearly $50,000 to get us through a terrible time until we received some PPP funding. We thank all who gave, as well as all who wished us well.

Now, though, we are back to great difficulty. Revenue has not nearly rebounded to pre-pandemic levels, and we are going to need more help to keep going. We have applied for Rebuilt VA funds, but the timing is uncertain and certainly not when we needed it (in the summer). We will renew calls for contributions shortly to try to carry on. We will also likely begin a membership program soon, so watch for new links. Here is the link to the past GoFundMe which is still working. <https://www.gofundme.com/f/save-america-oldest-newspaper>

IN THE MIDST of this, we at the Connection hear the call to continue to serve our communities. We still seek to fulfill our mission by continuing to publish, even with reduced resources. It's still our mission to provide information about where to get help and how to help; to disseminate information about the virus and efforts to stem its spread; to tell the stories of those who are helping, of those who are hungry; of those who have gotten sick with the virus, of those who are caring for the sick; and those who are performing essential jobs, from grocery clerk to firefighter to nurses and doctors. It's still our mission to tell the stories of those working for social and racial justice, and battling income inequality in the time of COVID.

Perhaps most of all, it is still our mission to deliver the local news you need, to help make sense of what is happening in your community, to advocate for community good, to provide a forum for dialogue on local concerns, and to record achievements, milestones and events in the community and people's lives. It is still our mission to cover the normal news of the local communities.

We publish photos and notes about personal milestones and community events, including births, engagements, weddings, anniversaries, awards and obituaries. Tell us: how are you surviving in the pandemic?

We also publish notes about news and events from local businesses. Notes about openings, new employees and anniversaries are welcome.

For many months, there were no calendar listings in our papers. Everything was cancelled. Now there is a return of many face-to-face events. If you are planning an event, we appreciate getting notice at least two weeks ahead of the event, and we encourage photos.

Your community Connection newspaper is published by the independent, locally owned Local Media Connection LLC, serving the suburbs of Metropolitan Washington in Northern Virginia and Potomac, Md. Our flagship paper, the Alexandria Gazette Packet, is one of the oldest continuously publishing papers in the country, beginning publication in 1784.

At the Connection, we suffered a tragedy recently, the unexpected death of our beloved Managing Editor Kemal Kurspahic. He died of a stroke following minor surgery.

Kemal Kurspahic was the legendary wartime editor of the daily newspaper in Sarajevo, Oslobodjenje. You can read some of the story of his life and how we came to be lucky enough to have him in our newsroom for decades in his obituary, <http://www.connectionnewspapers.com/news/2021/sep/22/courage-journalism/>.

nity to view a cross section of the county's topography and development, and to get a glimpse into the changes that have occurred to the land over time. Hikers near the Potomac River can see evidence of early geologic shifts that changed the course of the river and created large rock formations, seeing river rock now high on overlook ridges.

The trail is a haven for wildlife of all kinds, making it attractive for those who desire a leisurely stroll observing nature, as well as those using the trail for faster paced exercise, jogging or cycling. In the Spring, midway on the trail within Wakefield Park, Virginia Bluebells blanket the forest floor with their blue and pink flowers. Tadpoles wiggle in vernal trail pools; and one might spot a fawn stashed napping in tall grasses awaiting its mother's return.

All year, in the southern section, the history of the area comes quickly to mind as the brick watchtowers and dairy silos rise high, marking the past of the former Lorton prison and workhouse that operated from 1910 through 2001, now Laurel Hill Park. Evidence of inmate enterprise remains visible in the old buildings scattered through the park, many made from bricks manufactured from clay taken from the nearby Occoquan River.

The Cross County Trail plays a role in building community too. Regular trail users make new acquaintances and strengthen the bonds of existing ones, using the trail as a meeting place for friends exercising together. The park authority notes that users might

Scan Hardly Believe It

By KENNETH B. LOURIE

Life goes on. My warranty has been extended for another 90 days as all three scans from Sept. 23rd indicated stable and/or no new metastases. News with which I am extremely fond of saying, I can live. Though the radiologist's report that I received lists both non small cell lung cancer and papillary thyroid cancer as "the indication," my endocrinologist feels what I have is thyroid cancer and likely have always had thyroid cancer. I wish I could say that will be for the lawyers to argue. but peculiarities of law and the three-year statute of limitations in Maryland makes a final resolution unlikely. Therefore, I will continue to live with my amazing good fortune and possible misdiagnosis as part and parcel of how I roll.

And how I roll, as you regular readers know is chemotherapy, targeted therapy, immunotherapy and targeted therapy once again - in that order, and diagnostic scans every three weeks in the beginning and eventually and presently, every three months. As such, over these nearly 13 years of being a cancer patient, I figure I've probably had at least 50 CT scans and another 20-plus MRIs, plus an occasional PET scan. The point being that over the years, I've done an awful lot of waiting for scan results with my life/ immediate future hanging in the balance. And 'balance' is exactly what one needs to endure these incredibly anxious situations. Though I'm fairly experienced at this juncture, the actual moment of truth when I receive the email containing my results is oft-putting to say the least and downright heart-stopping to say the most.

However, my personality is perfectly suited for these ongoing challenges. I never presume the worst. I never woe is me. I never bemoan systemic delays in communicating the results to me. As my close friend John would most definitely say: "It is what it is, and it will be what it will be." I never put the proverbial cart before the horse. I can take it. No problem. My wife, Dina, on the other hand, cannot. For her, the results cannot arrive soon enough. Granted, immediate feedback would be much preferred. But, that's never been the process. I can accept it. Dina, not so much.

That being said, I will admit that after all these years/scans/waiting for results, I have become less able to take it all in stride. It's as if a layer of patience and understanding of the process has been worn away with time. Even though I've mostly received good news (unexpectedly given my original "13 month to two year" prognosis - in Feb., 2009), I have had my share of disappointing news. But on the whole, I've been one of the luckier cancer patients. Still, each scan I wait for results is hardly an adventure in wonderland. I am constantly wondering and worrying when the other shoe will drop (the bad news). In fact, opening up the email that contains my scan results literally takes my breath away.

Not to be negative, which I'm not, but during the Team Lourie meeting in late Feb., 2009 when I first met my oncologist and were given all the medical reports/assessments of my recent X-Rays, CT scan, PET scan and surgical biopsy from the pulmonologist, thoracic surgeon, pathologist and internist, it was clear and convincing from all these doctors that I had lung cancer. And my prognosis? Grim, and it was no fairy tale. It was surreal to hear and nearly impossible to process. I have what? When I was told the survival statistics by my oncologist of stage IV non small cell lung cancer patients (me): 2 percent survive beyond two years, my brother asked if there are exceptions. To which my oncologist replied to me: "Could you be the one? Sure." Little did I know that the doctor was being literal. One was the answer. Ever since I heard that, I felt my days were numbered. All these several years later, I'm not exactly counting days, but neither am I counting chickens. I live quarter to quarter and am grateful to do so.
