CHILDREN'S AND TEENS' CONNECTION

Second Graders Share Diverse Holiday Traditions

BY SHIRLEY RUHE
ARLINGTON CONNECTION

Six students from four second grade classes at Glebe Elementary School gather on Dec. 12 to share their holiday traditions.

PHOTOS BY SHIRLEY RUHE/THE CONNECTION

Jackson Stein

Jackson Stein

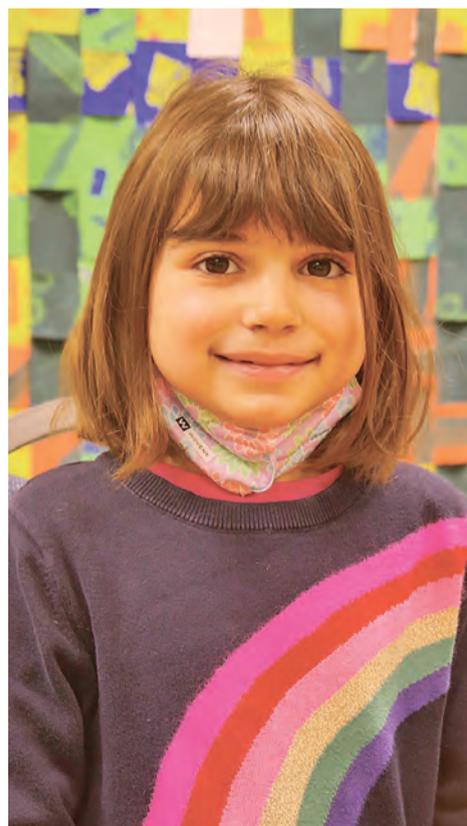

"My favorite part of the holidays is getting to be with my family — my grandma and grandpa and mom and dad and getting to do special stuff." Jackson says he celebrates Hanukkah and Christmas but they don't do too much for Hanukkah. "We have pork, mashed potatoes and sauerkraut for Christmas Eve dinner because my mom says that is to bring good luck in the new year." He continues that Santa comes during the night and "when grandma and grandpa wake up we look first in the stockings which are downstairs where we live and then we open presents." He says they travel two hours to Pennsylvania where his mom's family lives, "and we might go to Hershey Park."

Margot Sokolow

Margot says she celebrates Hanukkah but her grandma likes to see her and her grandma celebrates Christmas. "So when we go to her house in Pittsburgh they have stockings." Margot says that one night for Hanukkah at home her other grandparents come over and they have latkes, and her parents light the family Menorah. "My sister and I also make Menorahs in Sunday School and each of us lights our own, too." Margot says they also travel to a great aunt at the edge

Jamie Borg, principal at Glebe Elementary in Arlington for 18 years, sports her holiday glasses. "I don't wear the fancy ones until later. I don't want the kids to go crazy too early."

Margot Sokolow

of Pittsburgh, and her great aunt celebrates Christmas, too. "She has a bunch of people over and they bring food. My favorite is the jello with pretzels and a bunch of things."

Elisabeth Sass

Elisabeth Sass

Elisabeth is from Germany and celebrates the Feast of St. Nicholas tradition where they put out boots on Dec. 5 and St. Nicholas comes during the night. "Then I wake up on the morning of Dec. 6 and run like crazy to check what is in the boot. This year I got a little Rudolph pin and a huge chocolate." She says they have an Advent calendar, and every door for December has a chocolate behind it. "I usually eat it in the morning before I come to school." Then on Dec. 24 the Christ Child comes and leaves gifts overnight. "I open them on Christmas morning as well as gifts from my mom and dad." This year she is hoping "for something I saw in a magazine, a pet vet. I think I might like to be a vet someday." Elisabeth says her grandpa comes from Reston and her aunt and they have a crispy meat with gravy — "schnitzel I think. I really like it."

Audrey Lewis

Audrey's favorite thing about Christmas is spending time with her mom and dad and her brother and her dog. "My dog's name is Ellington and he gets presents in his stocking like dog toys." Audrey says every year they get a candy cane shaped bottle of chocolates in their stockings. "And the other thing I like best is the presents! ... I really want a lot of things under the tree this Christmas, Barbies. ... On Christmas Eve we have a brunch. A lot of times we have steak and eggs and broccoli and a little bit of rice." Audrey confesses every year she tries to sneak down to see Santa "but every time I fall asleep. Sometimes I wonder if it is the parents or Santa," but she is guessing it is real because there has got to be a Santa. Audrey says this year they are going to London for a vacation over winter break.

Jonathan LeVine

Jonathan says he celebrates both Christmas and Hanukkah so he gets a present every day for 8 days of Hanukkah and then more presents at Christmas. Jonathan says they light the Menorah each day of Hanukkah. "This is to remember when the Jews thought they only had enough oil to last for one day and it lasted six." For Christmas Jonathan says he goes upstairs on Christmas Eve to get ready for bed. "When I wake up I head downstairs to open the presents." This year Jonathan is hoping for legos. Jonathan says they don't have stockings in his house but they do have elves on shelves. "Each day the elf moves to a different spot. He likes causing mischief and messing stuff up, like unrolling the toilet paper." Jonathan says sometimes he travels to see his grandparents and cousins.

Isabelle Wang

Isabelle celebrates Chinese New Year. She says because of the calendar the date moves around. Last year was the year of the tiger "but I don't know what it will be this year." She says one of her siblings goes to a tennis tournament so they celebrate the Chinese New Year after that. "We don't really have presents or parties." But she adds she likes to eat the bao, fried rice and dumplings. Isabelle says they don't really celebrate Christmas but they do have a Christmas tree. "It has ornaments and lights, bows and decorations and a tiger for last year's Chinese New Year." Isabelle says she likes to make ornaments to put on the tree. "I write words in Chinese on pieces of paper like 'peace' and other stuff." She says she really likes to celebrate with her family, and her grandparents come over from China for a couple of days. They speak Chinese and "we play board games."

Water Glows Under The Moon

Moon covers the sun
Water rushing
The ocean glowing Night Approaching

Yellow and Red fades to black
Darkness Clouding the sky
Stars appear
The world falls silent
But this silence is one that is replaced by the sweet sounds of the ocean

Water reacts to the glowing sphere
Ocean burns blue
Trees sing a song in unison
Eyes like cameras flash with life
Unreal this feels Unreal this seems
Once in a lifetime you get to see the moon beam.

How could the Ocean glow so bright?
How does the ocean deepen as you walk through this endless path?
How do the waves never fail to crash in a way that calms me?

My toes sink into the sand water runs back and forth
Waves bigger than you can Fathom

The water engulfs me
I am dry but
The water engulfs me
Present but
The water engulfs me

Water Still

Bright afternoon sun with Clear skies
Clear water
still.
Kids play catch

Shade under the generous trees and huts and
Water rushing
And angry waves crashing and
Birds chirping.
Still.
Reggae plays proudly
in the background
There is a shine
in the smile of this moment
The laughing from the daughter who's father picked her up,
tossed her in the air,
and caught her.
Water, why are you so clear?
Bird, why do you sing?
Daughter, what if he didn't catch you?
Will he catch you the next time?
The water takes me under
The music
ashamed while I am under water
It is quiet
I swim back up and the water is still clear the daughter is still laughing and the birds are still chirping
Still chirping
Still

Puerto Rico

I watch as the sunrise slowly approaches in the sky
Subtle ocean waves crashing
I hear the sound of Spanish speakers conversing outside
The wind sways in the morning air
As the beach starts gaining more and more individuals

I hear the morning birds chirping
I look out my hotel deck window
And see the clear skies
The waves crashing onto shore
So many people are enjoying the fresh air.

As I walk outside, I see the clear sky
The trees sway and dance
The sound of waves crashing onto my feet
Crash, crash, crash

My ears fill with the uplifting Caribbean music,
Kids yelling,
And the colorful birds chirping

The waterfall slowly spilling into the mini pool.

Oh, Puerto Rico, why do you rain so much?
Oh, Puerto Rico, why does it get so dark here?
I wonder as I stare into the Puerto Rican abyss.

The rain hitting my head
Like a drum
The rain hitting my head
As I walk outside
The rain hitting my head
As I continue to sit on the deck enjoying the Puerto Rican galore.

Thumps of Water Amid Fields of Gold

Why do the waves move so predictably?
A thump on the side of the ship,
A slow simple rock of the ship,
Thump, one... two... thump,

The field of reeds is gold in the sunset,
The sun and field so well met upon the eye,
I lean on a rail that holds me still,
Thump, one... two... thump,

I channel out the sounds of the dinner not yet done,
I had but a few bites of my meal,
It still waits upon my tongue,
Amid my annoyance,

The sun is going,
Further away every time,
Every time I look away,
Another inch disappears,

The last birds stop their songs,
They seem done with their mission,
Or perhaps just tired,

Do you think the things of nature tire,
Not of energy,
But the monotony of life?
Do they wish to run away and do something else?

My time to enjoy the world is over,
The sun has almost completely left,
Soon my thoughts will have no light for company,
And I have lived in my mind for long enough to know that isn't wise.

PEDESTRIAN BRIDGE OVER ARLINGTON BLVD. TEMPORARILY CLOSED FOR REPAIRS

Engineers are closing the pedestrian bridge connecting North Fairfax Drive to Fort Myer Drive over Arlington Boulevard, effective immediately, as a result of a bridge inspection on December 8, out of an abundance of caution.

Pedestrian access over Arlington Boulevard will be maintained on the Rhodes Street bridge to the west and North Meade Street to the east.

The restrictions will stay in place until further notice. The Arlington Boulevard multi-use trail will remain open on the north side of the bridge.

Crews had been conducting maintenance work on the bridge's surface. An inspection revealed deterioration of the concrete in some sections of the bridge. The bridge will be temporarily closed while crews work on these repairs.

DONATIONS NEEDED

Pet Food Bank. AWLA has established a Pet Food Bank to serve qualifying residents of Arlington County and the City of Falls Church. In consideration of the effect financial obstacles have on a pet owner's ability to afford pet care, the AWLA Pet Food Bank program's goal is to keep family pets out of shelters. If you are an Arlington County or City of Falls Church resident and are in need of assistance in feeding your pet, follow this link and fill out a pre-registration form. Visit goo.gl/forms/s2FuFdaYWdZm4t-Pw2.

Create a Wildlife Sanctuary. The Audubon at Home Wildlife Sanctuary certification program assists homeowners in restoring their home's natural habitat by providing information on sustainable gardening practices. These practices include using native plants, removing invasive species, reducing use of pesticides and fertilizers, and creating space for native flora and fauna. ARLINGTON, VA

My favorite animal is a cat because they're so cute and I love their little fur. I have two pet cats. Their names are Abner and Wilbur. They're brothers. Wilbur is striped gray with blackish-kind of stripes and Abner is a black cat. One year when they were really little Abner climbed up the Christmas tree! He also ate a bee that year. Wilbur hides when he gets scared. I love them.

Opera NOVA Supports Children's Opera

Annual concert brunch helps opera reach 55,000 children since it began.

A crowd of opera lovers and supporters fills the Washington Golf and Country Club on Sunday, Dec. 11 for the annual Concert Brunch. The proceeds are used to support the children's opera performed by Opera NOVA each year for hundreds of Arlington school children. Emcee Bryan Dawson says Opera NOVA has introduced 55,000 children to musical theater since it was formed.

Miriam Miller, president, founder and inspiration for Opera NOVA, listens as Darcy Monsalve performs "Meine lippen" from Judita. Monsalve is a soprano from Venezuela and is a current student of Italian maestro Vincenzo Spatola. The program ranged from Turkish mezzo-soprano and Fulbright alumna Lori Sen to tenor Israel Lozano, born in Madrid, to Sissel Bakken who performs regularly with the Maryland Lyric Opera Chorus.

Grace Gilday Bohlin, a favorite in her D.C. hometown, entertains the audience with Puccini's "Ch'il bel sogno."

The featured Marcolivia Duo perform "Hava Nagila" which Marc Ramirez, violinist and violist, says is traditionally performed to work the crowd into a frenzy. Ramirez, an Arlington native, says "we hope to do that here." The award winning duo, including his wife Olivia Hajioff, perform music of all styles and periods. Their Sunday program ranged from a cradle song in which Hajioff explains, "He has four notes and I have three," to a replication of bagpipes, their arrangement of a couple of numbers from the Magic Flute and an English version of "Away in a Manager."

THE CONNECTION

Miriam Miller acknowledges the tribute from Emcee Brian Dawson for her inspiration and decades of dedicated pursuit of building and nourishing a local opera in Arlington. Opera NOVA was established in 1962 and has evolved as a resource for the arts reaching the community where they live. The organization serves seniors, children and the diverse Arlington population with the opportunity to have the arts as part of their experience. Arlington is the smallest entity in the United States to have its own opera.

Four performers at the Opera NOVA Annual Brunch on Sunday, Dec. 11 sit at a luncheon table waiting their turn to perform at the Washington Golf and Country Club. Despite the lavish buffet display, most admit they can't eat before a performance. From left: soprano Jenni McGinnis, soprano Elise Jenkins, mezzo soprano Sissel Bakken, and mezzo soprano Lori Sen.

Arlington Post Office Will Be Renamed

The U.S. House today passed legislation introduced by Rep. Don Beyer (D-VA) to rename the post office in Arlington on George Mason Drive (currently designated “Arlington Post Office”) after local letter carrier Jesus Collazos. The bill passed without objection on a voice vote. Collazos immigrated to Northern Virginia from Colombia in 1978 and worked for 25 years as a USPS postal carrier in Arlington. He died of COVID-19 early in the pandemic.

Beyer delivered remarks from the House Floor as Collazos’ family looked on from the House Gallery.

Beyer said:

“Madame Speaker, I rise today to speak in support of my bill, H.R. 7082, which would designate the post office on 2200 North George Mason Drive in Arlington as the Jesus Antonio Collazos Post Office Building.

Jesus was the epitome of the American Dream.

He was born in 1953 in Colombia and grew up in a modest, hard-working family.

Even at a young age, he was passionate about education and wanted to help his community and did so by helping teach literacy while still a high school student.

After graduating high school, Jesus attended the Universidad de San Buenaventura Cali to pursue a degree in accounting.

In 1978, Jesus immigrated to Washington, D.C. to reunite with his mother and sisters in hopes of seeking a better future.

In 1980, Jesus married the love of his life, Luz Miriam, who is here today with their children, Vanessa and Michael.

After working in accounting positions at various hotels, he applied to the United States Postal Service as a letter carrier, where he would embark on a 25-year career.

He made an impression early on and was given a temporary assignment in leadership which turned into a permanent offer.

He ultimately turned it down to remain a mail carrier.

This turned out to be the right decision as Jesus preferred to spend his days outdoors, building relationships on his route, and connecting with the neighborhood.

He fell in love with that neighborhood so much that he waited patiently for the right opportunity to buy his own family home there.

When the day came, his affable personality gave him an advantage over other buyers. So much so, that the seller accepted his offer despite it being the lowest of all the bids.

In 1999, Jesus and Luz moved their family from an apartment into a new single-family home on his mail route, becoming his own mailman.

Motivated by a desire to spend more time with his family and in particular his grandchildren, Jesus retired in February 2019.

At the start of the pandemic, Jesus discovered a lump on the side of his neck that turned out to be an aggressive cancer.

On a Monday in May of 2020, during his first oncology appointment, he was sent to the emergency room for COVID.

He spent the next two weeks in the ICU, suffered a stroke, and on June 6 at 3:45 p.m., took his last breath.

Jesus was one of millions of Americans taken from us by COVID-19, but he was also a treasure to our local community.

He will be remembered by his infectious personality, outstanding work ethic and loyalty to his loved ones.

After his death, the Collazos family immediately began to receive an outpouring of love via messages, calls, cards, and meals from countless family members and friends.

An outdoor memorial service for Jesus was held June 26, 2020 where many came together to honor his memory.

His U.S. Postal Service coworkers opened his outdoor memorial service with a mail truck parade.

We were lucky to have Jesus Collazos in our community.”

Nonprofit Holiday Wish Catalog

The third annual Arlington Nonprofit Holiday Wish Catalog features year-end needs of 30 local organizations.

Wishes include cooking equipment for newly-arrived refugees, shelter for animals in need, medical visits for children without health insurance, and helping elderly residents age in place with dignity, regardless of their ability to pay.

The first two years of the Wish Catalog each raised over $100,000 for local organizations.

For the third year in a row, Arlington Community Foundation is excited to host the Nonprofit Wish Catalog featuring grant ideas of 30 local nonprofits with wishes of up to $5,000 each. Open through Dec. 31, the public is able to view and 'shop' these nonprofit wishes and donate any amount toward any goal, all in one easy-to-navigate (and easy-to-donate) place. https://arlcfc-suite.com/erp/donate/list/grant?grant_cycle_id=1099

One donor, Patricia Rodriguez, shared, "The Wish Catalog makes it fun to give to nonprofits in our community. We are able to donate to our favorite organizations and to learn about others. The website allows us to easily scroll and click, and then provides us with documentation of our contributions."

The nonprofits participating in the Wish Catalog reported that the process is easy, and that both the visibility and the extra funding have a positive impact in the lives of our neighbors.

After the inaugural Wish Catalog was fully funded, then-CEO of Bridges to Independence Samuel L. Kelly Jr. said, "The impact of fully funding Bridges to Independence's wish helped empower 134 local youth to break generational cycles of poverty. Additionally, because the community stepped up this holiday season to fund all the projects, families and youth will be fed, housed, educated, and mentored."

Each year so far, select named and anonymous donors have offered matching dollars. In 2021, simply announcing that a donor was providing a $5,000 match on Giving Tuesday resulted in over $10,000 in contributions that day alone. These "Wish Maker Matchers" act as a catalyst for others to give.

Arlington Community Foundation welcomes donors to match Wish Catalog gifts this year by contacting Christy Cole, Director of Philanthropy, at ccole@arlcfc.org or by calling 703-963-5737

SoberRide Begins Dec. 16

The 2022 Holiday SoberRide program will be in operation nightly from 10 p.m. until 4 a.m. from Dec. 16, 2022 to Jan. 1, 2023 as way to keep local roads safe from impaired drivers during this traditionally high-risk holiday period.

The program is offered by the nonprofit Washington Regional Alcohol Program (WRAP).

Each evening during this six-hour period, area residents ages 21 and older celebrating with alcohol may download Lyft to their phones, then enter a SoberRide code in the app's 'Promo' section to receive their no-cost (up to $15) safe transportation home. A separate Holiday SoberRide promo code will be posted at 9 p.m. on Dec. 16, 23 and 31 on www.SoberRide.com.

Last December and while unquestionably impacted by the then resurging COVID-19 pandemic including the Omicron variant, 461 persons in the Washington-metropolitan area used the free safe ride service rather than possibly driving home impaired. The charity also offers its SoberRide program on St. Patrick's Day, Cinco de Mayo, Independence Day and Halloween.

Sponsors of WRAP's 2022 Holiday SoberRide® campaign include the 395 Express Lanes, Amazon, Anheuser-Busch, Beer Institute, Brown-Forman, Constellation Brands, District of Columbia Association of Beverage Alcohol Wholesalers, Enterprise Rent-A-Car, Foundation of Advancing Alcohol Responsibility, Giant Food, Glory Days Grill, Kendall-Jackson, Lyft, Molson Coors Beverage Company, New Belgium Brewing, Restaurant Association Metropolitan Washington, and the Washington Area New Automobile Dealers Association.

Since 1991, WRAP's SoberRide program has provided 83,678 free safe rides home to would-be drunk drivers in the Greater Washington area. www.SoberRide.com

We Need Your Help Again

We are sincerely grateful and thankful to you for helping in 2021 to save one of America's oldest newspapers, the Alexandria Gazette Packet, publishing continuously since 1784

Thank you to the hundreds of supporters who helped to keep all your Connection Newspapers alive throughout Alexandria, Fairfax County, Arlington County and Potomac, Md. along with affiliated websites and digital media. Now we need help again in 2022.

Each local newspaper's mission aspires to provide greater community service, and we do know that our communities are better off if we continue to publish. Last year's financial support from readers and supporters like you bridged the shortfall before Federal PPP funding arrived, and both made our survival possible. We now await a decision for a grant from Rebuild Virginia in early February that we hope will help us in 2022 and beyond. But we need help to survive the first quarter, always a brutal time for cash flow in weekly newspapers. Thank you.

Please, help save these historical papers.

All gifts will be used to fund our printed newspapers and websites and to meet obligations to our loyal and patient employees, writers, contractors and suppliers.

The ongoing pandemic continues to crush many newspapers across the country, and our newspapers continue to be at risk.

The Northern Virginia area's best read and most trusted source for community news includes the Alexandria Gazette Packet, Mount Vernon Gazette and all Connection Newspapers in the metropolitan region.

The pandemic has hit small businesses hard, which in turn has reduced advertising revenue that keeps these local newspapers alive to provide hyper local news to residents. It feels like no small miracle to be looking forward into 2022.

The pandemic has been a bear, financially and otherwise. Revenue plummeted at the beginning in 2020. Some beloved advertisers have stayed the course supporting us throughout, and many more have done what they can. In the fall of 2021 we saw the return of some advertising for events and Grand Openings, but now omicron clouds the horizon in so many ways. Revenue still remains short of expenses despite our greatly curtailed costs.

Connection Newspapers has been offering these local newspapers to residents for over 200 years. Countless residents have grown up with these papers covering significant moments in the lives of family and children, news, community events, school activities, and even pictures of your dogs and cats. Internet news and large national newspapers cannot provide the local connection or historical connection that local papers like Connection Newspapers and the Alexandria Gazette Packet provide. If your child, dog, mother, father, neighborhood, school has been featured, you understand the value of local community newspapers.

Twenty-Five Years Later

By KENNETH B. LOURIE

I submitted my first column for publication in early Dec. 2009 after having been hired for an advertising sales position 10 months earlier. Previously, I had been in the insurance business for almost 20 years. I always had a writing urge beginning with a story I wrote in first grade about the day I was born, to a Junior High School experience I had writing a last will and testament-type of compilation for the graduating ninth-graders (myself included) to a series of sports columns for my High School newspaper (the Denebola) and finally to a nearly two-year stint writing a column for the "diamondback," the weekly college newspaper for The University of Maryland. Upon graduation, I submitted writing samples around town and was offered a job at a local paper in Prince Georges County. However, upon my acceptance and return from Massachusetts to fill the position, I was devastated to learn the position had vanished due to weak advertising sales (little did I realize how much of a precursor that difficulty would turn out to be) which caused the publisher to reduce the number of pages it printed and with that page reduction went my column.

My columns written then were a preview to what my columns would become years later. The major difference between then and now, other than age, wisdom, and experience, were the curse words, in college anyway. They came naturally to me then and appeared regularly in my content. The editor never censored me. These columns were not spewing hate or anything, more about a college undergraduate trying to navigate the demands and challenges of college life.

Substance/content-wise, my columns are similar to what they were about then: "Everything in general about nothing in particular." There wasn't much information in my columns. Nor do I suppose there was much journalistic substance to what/how I write either. Nevertheless, I developed my own style which continues to this day. In addition to commenting on the minutiae in life we all must endure; I try to work through the trivialities of the day with a wink and a nod to the hope that what doesn't kill us, makes us stronger. As an example: I handwrite these columns with no fatigue in my arm. And for a man of my age/experience, being able to do anything non-stop for an hour is worth mentioning.

Seriously though, this writing thing must be in my DNA. I don't have to think too much about what I'm doing (it shows, right?). I'm able to, as my brother once said: "Churn out the drive!" without much further ado. And I thank our Editor-in-Chief Mary Kimm for giving me the space/opportunity to explore my passion every week; it was her idea to add a picture.

In my writing career at Connection Newspapers (which was the avocation to my full-time advertising sales vocation), I have won multiple writing awards from the various Press Associations that make up the "DMV," (Maryland, Washington, DC, and Delaware) for my weekly editorial columns. Unfortunately, I've never received a literary call-up to the Majors, so to speak. Occasionally I had a column appear in other print media, but the overwhelming exposure came in The Connection. And though I may have toiled in relative obscurity as a result, I loved being able to express myself so personally. As I have so often said, it's not so important that it's me writing about it, rather it's important that it's being written about. Write on.
