Realtors Association holds installation ceremony for new board.

The Northern Virginia Association of Realtors (NVAR) installed their 2014 Board on Dec. 5 at a ceremony held at the association's Fairfax headquarters. Outgoing Chairman Jon Wolford of McEneaney Associates hosted the proceedings, which included a number of awards and recognitions in addition to the official swearing in of the new officers.

Mario Rubio, owner of Annandale-based Rubio Real Estate, succeeds Wolford as Chairman of the Board. In his speech to the standing-room-only conference room crowd, Rubio praised his predecessor, paid tribute to two mentors, Rennee Miller and Luis Lama, who had guided him on his career path, and promised to continue leading the association with the high ethical standards for which it is known. Rubio, the first Hispanic Army veteran to achieve this position, declared he is "passionate about this work" and also pledged to continue to seek out ways to serve the community as well as the membership.

In 2004 he established the Rubio Foundation, and in 2009 launched "Mi Casa es Su Casa," holding public seminars, producing radio shows and now an on-line show aimed particularly at educating Spanish-speakers on the ins-and-outs of the real estate and home buying, "empowering them to make better real estate decisions." Rubio also takes the association's obligation to its membership to heart. "NVAR helps improve your bottom line," is part of the mission that Rubio promises to uphold in his new role. Networking, political action, continuing education and an emphasis on communication are some of the lynch pins of Rubio's approach.

Rubio and the 2014 Board of Directors were officially installed by past NVAR Chairman Tom Stevens. The Chairman's Gavel was passed down a line-up of past chairpersons until it reached Stevens at the podium who handed it to the newest Chairman.

During the ceremony, Linda Wolf with Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage of Alexandria was honored with the MRIS Adam D. Cockey, Jr. Community Leadership Award for her numerous charitable activities, presented by MRIS CEO David Charron. Virginia Delegate-elect Marcus Simon (District 53) was named the 2013 Affiliate Member of the Year. The association also welcomed three new members to their Hall of Fame – Susan Holbrook Daly of Springfield, Tom Meyer of Arlington, and George Mills of Burke.

Past Chairman Doris Barrell returned from her home in Florida to accept the honor of Honorary Lifetime Member. Barrell may not still be showing homes, but she is still putting her many years of experience to work for the association's membership. Barrell has taught a number of real estate courses over the years, written textbooks on the subject and is now at work writing the curriculum for the NVAR's online realtor school, Razorsharp. "You don't just stop," she said. "There's a lot to pass on."

After the official business of the day was concluded, the assembly took some time out to relax and reconnect at the reception following the installation, but being realtors, the attendees multitasked with wine glasses in one hand and cell phones in the other.

New Approach to Mental Health

Reforms in wake of tragedy involving state senator's son.

BY MICHAEL LEE POPE
THE CONNECTION

Advocates for mental health services have been calling for improved services and increased funding for years, although the issue has been pushed aside year after year. But now that the son of state Sen. Creigh Deeds (D-25) committed suicide after stabbing his father, a new sense of urgency is emerging in advance of the upcoming General Assembly session. This week, Republican Gov. Bob McDonnell proposed adding $38 million over two years to the existing $250 million budget for community service boards across the commonwealth.

"It makes you wonder why a crisis was needed to initiate the type of funding that we need," said Pamela Barrett, a member of the Fairfax-Falls Church Community Services Board. "We are so far behind other states in mental health crisis response funding as it is, and it's something that the CSBs have been lobbying for and begging for for years."

McDonnell also issued an executive order 68 to convene a task force on improving mental health services and crisis response. The governor described his task force as a group of leaders in the mental health and law enforcement as well as the judicial system and private hospitals. Within minutes of McDonnell's announcement, Governor-elect Terry McAuliffe issued a statement commending the governor, an indication he intends to follow through when he assumes the reins of power next year. But advocates for mental health remain skeptical.

FOR NOW, the issue seems to have newfound momentum — the result of a series of events that unfolded last month, when an emergency custody order was issued for the senator's son but a psychiatric bed could not be located before the order expired. That's why one of the reforms proposed by the governor is allowing magistrates to extend the orders by two hours.

Another proposal would extend temporary detention orders to 72 hours, a proposal that would cost about $1.6 million a year. Funding is also proposed for the Western State Hospital, where Northern Virginia jurisdictions send patients, which would be about $680,000 a year.

"These proposals will make a dent, but this is certainly not going to solve the problem," said Judith Deane of the Arlington Community Services Board. "Northern Virginia jurisdictions put a lot of their own money into this, so in that sense we are better off than many other counties in Virginia. But we still have a lot of need."

Alexandria Community Services Board director Michael Gilmore said when he was director of the community services board that serves rural Bath County and Rockbridge County, the local funding for community services was about $5 per capita when he left a decade ago. In Alexandria, by contrast, the local funding for community services is $125 per capita. That's why a psychiatric bed might be much more difficult to find in the rural stretches of Virginia, where services are few and far between.

"Much of the state is dependent on billing Medicaid to cover the cost of the services they provide," said Gilmore. "But all five of the community services boards up here have much more local funding."

THE PROPOSALS INCLUDE expanding programs for child psychiatry and children's crisis response services as well as crisis intervention team programs, crisis stabilization services and discharge assistance programs. Other proposals include expanding mental health first aid programs, secure assessment centers and suicide prevention efforts. One initiative would spend $1.8 million to create six secure crisis intervention team assessment centers where people can be held safely for evaluation and finding a bed without tying up law enforcement personnel. "That's only $300,000 a center," said Gilmore. "I think it's going to cost a lot more than that."

Helping Homeless Pets Find Homes

Join in the holiday spirit of giving and help save lives with the 'Twelve Days of Adoptables,' a partnership between the Washington Humane Society and the Fairfax County Animal Shelter. These organizations are joining forces to get the word out about some very special pets.

As part of this holiday promotion, twelve special pets will have adoption fees waived in order to help them find homes for the holidays between Dec. 12 and 24. Dogs, cats, and a variety of small animals will be included in the promotion.

This adoption promotion is designed to bring extra attention to those shelter pets that, through no fault of their own, have been waiting many weeks or months to find their new family. Come to either shelter during open hours to learn more about these fee-waived pets.

Follow the Shelter calendar to keep abreast of the latest Shelter happenings and learn more about Shelter programs and animal issues in Fairfax County.

The Fairfax County shelter is at 4500 West Ox Road in Fairfax; phone 703-830-1100.

Andrew P. Bowlus to Become Eagle Scout

On Sunday, Dec. 15, at 5 p.m., Andrew P. Bowlus will receive his Eagle Scout rank at a Court of Honor ceremony being held just for that purpose at the Springfield Church of Christ next to the intersection of Old Keene Mill Rd. and Byron Avenue.

Andrew (resident of Alexandria) is a member of Troop 2215, which was formed in 2007 in Springfield, originally chartered for home schooled, Christian young men. Andrew's Eagle Scout project made a contribution to the local community by building a 20x24 paver patio at Harvester Presbyterian Church (Springfield). Shirley Contracting Company (Lorton) and Lowe's (Woodbridge) made significant contributions to support Andrew's project and the BSA. Andrew has been involved in scouting for seven years and in three different troops around the country due to the fact that his father serves on active duty in the Army. Despite the moves, Andrew was able to complete the requirements for Eagle.

Robert Werth of Springfield Takes Reins of National Transportation Organization

Robert M. Werth, of Springfield, a leader in accessible transportation for more than three decades, has taken the helm of the Taxicab, Limousine & Paratransit Association (TLPA) as its new president.

Werth, a native of Falls Church, is the founder and president of Diamond Transportation Services, Inc., one of the largest wheelchair-accessible fleets in the mid-Atlantic region. He was sworn into office at the TLPA's 95th Annual Convention & Trade Show in Boston, Mass., on Oct. 30. The TLPA presidency is a one-year term. Werth takes over following the presidency of William J. Rouse of L.A. Yellow Cab Co-Op in Los Angeles, Calif.

After receiving his bachelor's degree from Virginia Tech, Werth worked as a social studies teacher in Roanoke, Va., where he also coached basketball and baseball. He later returned to Virginia Tech where he received his MBA. While finishing his graduate studies he became a marketing executive for a minor league baseball team affiliated with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Robert Werth

Werth accepted a position as the General Manager of the Diamond Cab Companies of Arlington and Alexandria in 1980 and later became Vice-President of both Diamond and Yellow Cab. In 1984, Werth established his own company, Diamond Transportation, where he found his true career path serving persons with disabilities. Starting from a single vehicle, Diamond now consists of over 130 vehicles with nearly 230 employees serving more than 300,000 passenger trips each year.

Werth said life has been shaped by his mother's unwavering commitment to civil rights in the 1960s and what he termed her "philosophy of humanism." His commitment to carrying on that philosophy led him to be a part of history when he was asked to attend the historic signing of the landmark Americans With Disabilities Act in 1990.

Happy Holidays, Safely

SoberRide safety net, 1-800-200-TAXI.

Holiday party season is well under way, along with winter weather advisories. It's up to individuals to make good decisions about celebrations that involve alcohol and how to handle transportation.

Plan to abstain. Plan to celebrate at home or someplace where you will be comfortable for some period of time. Plan to bring a designated driver. Plan to take public transportation. And if all of that fails, the Washington Regional Alcohol Project has a safety net for you.

WRAP, a local nonprofit organization, will offer free cab rides to would-be drunk drivers throughout Northern Virginia during the winter holidays.

More than 10,000 died in drunk driving related accidents in 2010. Tens of thousands more were injured. Holidays lead to an increase in impaired driving, the Christmas and New Year season in particular.

The annual Holiday SoberRide program will operate nightly from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. starting Friday, Dec. 13, 2013, and continuing until Wednesday, Jan. 1, 2014 as a way to keep local roads safe from impaired drivers during this traditionally high-risk, holiday period.

EDITORIAL

During these times, area residents celebrating with alcohol can call the toll-free SoberRide phone number 1-800-200-TAXI for a no-cost (up to $30 fare), safe way home. Callers will be responsible for fare amounts over $30. Last December 1,927 people took advantage of this program. On New Year's Eve alone, 387 people call on SoberRide for a safe trip home.

SoberRide is offered in throughout the Northern Virginia and Maryland suburbs. In these areas, local taxicab companies will be providing this no-cost service to local residents age 21 and older who might otherwise have attempted to drive home after drinking.

Since 1993, WRAP's SoberRide program has provided 58,576 free cab rides home to would-be drunk drivers in the Greater Washington area.

We know that many young people over 21 are living at home with parents, or will be visiting for the holidays. Parents, be brave. Have a conversation with your children whether they are under or over 21. Be sure those over 21 have a plan, and are equipped with the SoberRide number.

SoberRide is not available for underage drinkers, but parents still should talk to their children about their plans, and tell them out loud that you expect them not to drive impaired and not to get into a car with an impaired driver. Tell them to call, and you'll come get them if necessary.

It's a good time for a conversation about the risks of drinking to excess beyond drinking and driving as well.

One Year Since Newtown – It's Time for Congress to Act

BY MARTINA LEINZ

A few months ago, I met the father of one of the first-graders murdered at Sandy Hook Elementary School. I expressed how sorry I was for his loss and how grateful I was that he had found the strength to fight for sensible gun laws in an attempt to spare other families the pain he has suffered. What I did not share, because it did not seem appropriate, was just how deeply I was grieving too. None of those children were mine, but they all felt like mine. They were America's children.

I don't believe I am alone in these feelings. The carnage at Sandy Hook Elementary School one year ago (Dec. 14, 2012) was devastating not just to the families and community of Newtown, Conn., but to the entire nation. Twenty first-graders and six educators were murdered by a deranged individual in possession of dangerous weapons that he never should have had. It affected us all.

We will never fully recover from this tragedy as individuals or as a nation but there is much that Congress can do to prevent other tragedies like this from occurring. A critically important step is to enact sensible legislation to require background checks on all gun sales.

Many people incorrectly assume that we already conduct universal background checks on gun purchasers but the Brady law, enacted 20 years ago, only covers about 60 percent of gun sales. It does not cover online purchases, sales through classified ads or transactions by private sellers at gun shows. This leaves the door wide open for criminals, terrorists, domestic abusers and those adjudicated mentally ill to purchase guns without having to pass a background check.

Imagine if the FDA only screened 60 percent of pharmaceutical drugs and allowed the other 40 percent to hit store shelves with no testing, no screening, and no questions asked. It does not sound very safe, does it? Well, that is exactly the scenario we face with gun purchases in this country.

Our children deserve better than 60 percent when it comes to background checks. This is because like FDA testing, when done completely, background checks work. Since President Clinton signed the Brady bill into law, background checks have blocked more than 2 million purchases, keeping guns away from convicted felons and other dangerous people.

It is now time for Congress to finish the job and expand Brady background checks to cover all gun sales. A bipartisan bill, H.R. 1565, the Public Safety and Second Amendment Rights Protection Act of 2013, has been introduced in the House that would do just that. It has already been co-sponsored by 186 Representtatives including Congressmen Connolly, Moran, and Scott of Virginia. None of the Republican Representatives from Virginia have yet co-sponsored this important legislation. Hopefully they will soon.

This is not a partisan issue, nor is it a Second Amendment issue. There is nothing inconsistent with respecting the right for law-abiding citizens to own guns while trying to keep them out of the hands of dangerous individuals. More than 90 percent of Americans support extending background checks including over 80 percent of responsible gun owners and NRA members. It is time for Congress to listen to the public and enact sensible solutions meant to reduce the number of gun deaths. In a country where gun violence kills more than thirty-one thousand people a year, sixty percent is not getting the job done.

To commemorate the lives taken in Newtown and the more than 32 people killed by guns each day in the United States, Congress should act now and require that background checks be conducted on all commercial gun sales. Keeping guns away from dangerous individuals is an important step to curbing the epidemic of gun violence devastating our country.

Martina Leinz is President, Million Mom March, Northern Virginia Chapter, the grassroots wing of the Brady Campaign to Prevent Gun Violence.

Grateful Locally

To the Editor:

Your Op Ed piece ["Shop Locally, Shop in Fairfax," Connection, Nov. 21-27, 2013] prompted me to share my story of how important small businesses are in my community. A few weeks ago, I sustained serious injuries in an accident. I was hospitalized and underwent two major surgeries. Needless to say, when I was released from the hospital, I was in rough shape. So when I wandered into a local salon a few days later to have my hair washed (something I couldn't do at home!), I received a pleasant and unexpected surprise. I had never set foot inside Salon Prive, on Lorton Station Boulevard, ever before. In fact, I never noticed it there when I patronized other shops. And to be quite honest, when I approached the front desk, I was aware that I did not present like a regular patron. I was in whatever comfortable clothes I could pull on with one arm in a cast, and my face was all bandaged up. My hair, af-

Fatal Crash on Franconia-Springfield Parkway

Police responded to the report of a crash on Wednesday, Dec. 4 shortly after 11 p.m. Brian Benjamin Blaine, 30, of Manassas, was driving his 2001 Honda S2000 convertible southbound on the Franconia-Springfield Parkway, approaching Spring Village Drive. Witnesses reported that the Honda seemed to be racing a dark colored, newer model Infiniti. Both vehicles apparently passed each other several times. Blaine lost control of the Honda as it exited the curve just prior to Spring Village Drive. The vehicle traveled off the roadway to the right, struck an embankment and a tree which redirected the car back onto the Parkway. The Honda then rolled over and came to rest, upright, in the southbound lanes of the Parkway. The Honda and the Infiniti did not appear to make contact at any time.

Blaine was transported to Inova Fairfax Hospital and was pronounced dead shortly before 8 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 5.

Speed was a factor in this crash.

NATIONAL BREAST CENTER

While the new floorplan is functionally a “great room,” variances in ceiling height and room width define “use” zones that also gain a degree of privacy.

Opening Up

Open floorplan plus cathedral ceiling equals McLean ranch stylishly re-invented.

BY JOHN BYRD

Assess a circa-1952 ranch on a shady street in McLean with an eye towards maximizing value.

Among the shortcomings: rooms that are too small and dark; a kitchen that hasn't been remodeled in 25 years. A tiny breakfast room. A rear grade too steep for an addition. A front elevation with no visible front door.

And in the plus column: a neighborhood that's gone decisively upscale; a solidly constructed starter house in a “come-back” style. Just enough undeveloped side lot to add useful square footage. An enviably location at the end of a cul de sac.

Bring to this proposition the team of Sarah Wolf, interior designer, and Josh Britton, architectural draftsman — both at Foster Remodeling Solutions — and what's revealed are the skills sets that are transforming so many nondescript mid-century dwellings into the spacious eclectically-designed residences expected of northern Virginia's close-in neighborhoods.

“We're seeing more homeowners preserving and elaborating post-war suburban styles,” said Sarah

Wolf. “The ranch and other smaller-scale dwellings are especially fascinating. They've long been classified as the prototype for the modern production house, yet we're now seeing how inventive design ideas can be applied to achieve architecturally-relevant makeover goals.”

What has turned into a two-phase design process — that will eventually include a second level master suite — began with a single meeting. Wolf had been summoned by homeowners — who had occupied the house for 20 years — “to brainstorm” options for enlarging the kitchen and family room, and re-defining the bare-bones front elevation.

“The previous owners had relocated the original front door to the side sometime in the 1990s,” Wolf said. “So one of the early questions was whether it made sense to revise the front elevation in conjunction with a proposed kitchen enlargement.”

As the meeting progressed, several key points emerged.

Yes, the owners wanted a substantial enlargement to the kitchen and family room, but the existing interior was also too narrow and too dark. Moreover, since the home's leafy half-acre lot backs into a grove of mature trees bordered by a lovely creek, shouldn't the interior makeover be designed to profile the surrounding landscape?

“SUDDENLY, WE ALL SAW the aesthetic opportunity,” Wolf said. “There would be larger windows on all sides. But also a new front-facing family room — with an 11-foot cathedral ceiling dominated by an extensive window wall.”

The window wall would, in turn, help to contextualize a more symmetrical front elevation — one defined by a processional entranceway with double french glass doors and sidelights.

The first challenge, however, was contending with the peculiarities of the lot itself.

“The entire plan depended on adding about 350 square feet on the south side of the house while staying within [Fairfax] County setback requirements,” said project draftsman Josh Britton. “Since the set-back limit runs diagonally on that side of the house, I designed a two-component footprint which steps back from the front elevation.”

Necessity being the mother of invention, the solution makes adroit use of tight tolerances. Space formerly allocated to the old

The 17.5-foot by 13-foot window wall that dominates the new side-facing gable is one component in a re-rationalized front elevation which now features a well-defined entranceway comprised of glass-facing French doors and sidelights.

The custom-designed kitchen island by Foster Remodeling Solutions provide place settings for six, but is also positioned to facilitate both cooking and clean-up tasks while protecting the cook's work triangle. The island's “ice stone” surface complements a mosaic backsplash comprised of marble, glass, chrome and shell.

kitchen/family room combination is absorbed into a gourmet kitchen configuration which gains 130 square feet to the west for a total of more than 450 square foot. The new family room — tapering down to 220 square feet — supplants a former front deck.

Taken as a whole, the floor plan is functionally a “great room.” Clever variances in room width, ceiling height and sightlines differentiate clearly-identified “use” spaces while reinforcing their inherent sense of privacy.

“The slightly narrower width confers a degree of intimacy on the family room,” Wolf said. “On the other hand, the cathedral ceiling and window wall heighten the drama — enticing the eye to move up and out.”

Wolfe's interior design scheme, likewise, balances detailing within a well-integrated whole.

ing lends cohesion to the entire suite which now flows into the revised living and dining rooms.

Large windows facing south and west bring the richly wooded backyard close-in, forming a setting for an eat-in kitchen that is both highly functional and eye-catching.

The kitchen's centerpiece is a food preparation island and dining counter that seats six. The custom built-in is positioned to support both cooking and clean-up tasks while protecting the cook's work triangle. Drawers designed to the chef's requirements called for easy access to a pull-out mixer stand, a roll-out vertical spice rack, and slots specially fitted for everyday china.

The island's “ice stone” surface complements a mosaic backsplash comprised of marble, glass, chrome and shell. Glass pendant lamps and lights contribute further to a palette of lighter tones which are countered by cherry cabinets and more textured elements.

In the family room, the 54-inch stainless steel hearth with gas burner embedded in river rock is both a heat source and a decoratively ornamental focal point.

Flanked by open cubbies featuring glass display shelves, cherry wood cabinetry, and a wine rack abutting a refrigerator, the built-ins define a functionally separate family entertainment zone that includes wide-screen plasma TV mounted above the fireplace.

A more congenial spot for holiday entertaining is hard to imagine.

Holiday Decor: Make It Sparkle

Local designers offer suggestions for home decorating.

BY MARILYN CAMPBELL
THE CONNECTION

It is the season for decking the halls. Whether your style is traditional and colorful, muted and demure or metallic and glittery, three local designers offer distinct holiday decorating ideas to spark your creativity.

Victoria Sanchez, who opened Victoria at Home, a home furnishings boutique and interior design studio on King Street in Old Town Alexandria earlier this month, said the d cor begins with an aroma.

“Holiday scented candles immediately say ‘holiday,’” said Sanchez. “Fresh greens tucked behind artwork and intertwined into tablescapes add a wonderful scent.”

She recommends filling bowls with colorful holiday ornaments and displaying holiday cards to add a touch of nostalgia. “What I love most about the holidays is [that] each ornament and every tradition evokes memories of family, friends and childhood,” said Sanchez.

Designer Sharon Kleinman of Transitions by Sharon Kleinman in Potomac, said Christmas is no time for minimalism. “The Christmas season is the perfect time to go all out decorating the main areas of your home,” she said. “I love the smell of fresh pine, so fill your home with it. Starting at the front entrance, hang a pine wreath on the door.”

Kleinman recommends purchasing fresh wreaths. “Many local nurseries like American Plant and Benke's make some really beautiful ones,” she said. “Local florists are also a good source.” There are a multitude of uses for fresh winter foliage. “Place pine boughs, candles of varying heights and decorative accessories such as painted wooden toys [like] trains, toy soldiers, blocks or colored balls among the pine branches,” added Kleinman.

Another idea, says Kleinman, is to wrap small boxes in colorful paper, top them with brightly colored bows and place them on the mantel. “Decorative stockings hung on the mantel are traditional and a must in my book,” she said. “Stair rails can be wrapped in pine boughs, ribbon and/or tinsel.”

To add splashes of festive Christmas red to a home, Kleinman recommends “Placing pots of poinsettias throughout the house. Personalize your Christmas tree with homemade ornaments, sentimental items, colored bows and lots of tinsel.”

When it comes to holiday tablescapes, Kelley Proxmire and Emily Wallace of Kelley Interior Design suggest adding a touch of shimmer. “Try breaking out of a set color scheme of red, white and green,” said Wallace. “Try popular metallic finishes that could be used in fabric for pillows, gold accessories for the table [like] tiny vases [or] salt and pepper shakers and napkin rings with ‘bling’ metallic finishes.”

Mix decorative objects with foliage to create a warm and inviting table. “Incorporate ‘organic’ items of the season, like greens from pine trees, magnolias, pine cones, and some fruit,” said Proxmire.

Unconventional items can be used as vessels for a wintery, holiday centerpiece. Wallace and Proxmire found a “tortoise shell-like urn É for next to nothing at a consignment store” and used it to hold a centerpiece. “You could buy a new vase or container, but it certainly could also be a vintage find and not necessarily brand new,” said Proxmire.

“Use lots of little LED lights in votive holders, either clear votives or ones with a metallic tone finish,” said Wallace. “This is a case where more is better.”

Making Runners, Walkers Happy

Last-minute holiday gift ideas at local business in Springfield.

BY JANELLE GERMANOS
THE CONNECTION

Metro Run and Walk in Springfield, a locally owned and family-operated store, has a variety of gifts available for runners and walkers at a discounted price, starting with the 13 Days of Christmas sale on Dec. 13.

The sale will feature a new discounted item every day, said Metro Run and Walk owner Helen Russell. Last-minute shoppers can look for holiday gifts all the way up to Christmas Eve.

"The items will vary from stocking stuffers to larger items," Russell said.

Metro Run and Walk shoppers will also find the Semi-Annual Sock Sale, where customers who buy three pairs of socks get the fourth pair free.

"They make great stocking stuffers," Russell said.

In addition to providing running and walking shoes and apparel, employees like John Faith said that owner Helen Russell is dedicated to giving back to the community, making it a great place to shop.

"People like to shop here because they like that we remember their name," Faith said.

Faith, who has been working with the company for 10 years, said he would probably not work at the store if it were an ordinary running shop that didn't give back to the community. Metro Run and Walk sponsors community programs like Run Fit Kids, which encourages students in grades two through eight to become more active.

According to Russell, runner safety products such as bright shirts and other high-visibility material can make good gifts.

"That way, the runner is not going to be missed," Russell said.

Russell said that Metro Run and Walk will provide customers with a personalized and professional shopping experience.

"All of our employees are mature and experienced," Russell said. "The average age is about 50. We have all been running and walking for decades."

Faith also said that Metro Run and Walk has dedicated customers who recognize the great service that this locally-owned business is providing.

Robinson Boys' Basketball Outlasts Edison in Double-OT Thriller

Rams make 14 three-pointers, including eight from senior guard Bynum.

BY JON ROETMAN
THE CONNECTION

The Robinson boys' basketball team knocked down 14 3-pointers and made several key defensive stops while outlasting the Edison Eagles in double overtime on Friday night.

The Rams also caught a break or two along the way.

Robinson senior guard Joe Bynum banked in a 3-pointer to force a second overtime period and junior guard Joey Powell's ill-advised-attempt-turned-clutch 3-pointer sealed the victory as the Rams opened their season with a 95-91 win over Edison during the Red Jenkins Tipoff Classic at W.T. Woodson High School.

ROBINSON LED 90-89 with less than 30 seconds remaining in the second overtime when Powell hoisted up a 3-point attempt from the right wing. While a miss might have given Edison possession with a chance to take the lead, Powell made the shot and gave the Rams a two-possession advantage.

"That was very much a no-no-no-yes shot," Robinson head coach Brian Nelson said. "When I met [Powell] at halfcourt and hugged him, I said, 'That was a terrible decision, but it was an outstanding shot.'"

Edison had two-possession leads at the end of regulation and the first overtime period, but each time Robinson found a way to extend the game.

Edison led 76-72 when Robinson senior guard Jared Steen buried a 3-pointer to cut the Eagles' advantage to one with 11.4 seconds remaining in the first overtime period. After a pair of Edison free throws bumped the lead to three, Bynum banked in a 3-pointer at the other end to force a second OT.

After the game, Nelson joked that Bynum

"called" bank on his clutch 3-pointer. For Bynum, it was one of many memorable moments on a night he scored 28 points and knocked down eight 3-pointers.

"It was just an amazing feeling," Bynum said. "I've never been in that situation before and I just knew I had to have the confidence to take that shot. ... It was probably one of the best games I think I've ever played. I was just feeling it. My teammates had the confidence to pass it to me and I wasn't letting them down. I was just knocking down the shots."

Bynum's final 3-pointer gave Robinson an 89-84 lead with 1:33 left in the second OT.

"Yeah, we got a little lucky when that 3 banks in, but sometimes you make your own luck a little bit," Nelson said. "As hard as our kids fought, we deserve a little break there."

Edison led 66-62 late in the fourth quarter. After a bucket by Robinson senior guard Ashrifi Nai-Tetteh cut the lead to two, the Rams came up with a steal and tied the game at 66-all with a bucket by senior guard Matt Fall. Robinson got another steal and took a brief 68-66 lead with a pair of Fall free throws, but Edison senior Marcus Brumsey Jr. scored at the other end to force overtime.

"I just think we played with heart the whole game," Steen said. "Heart sometimes will overcompensate for the other team's [athleticism]."

Fall scored 22 points for Robinson. Steen knocked down a trio of 3-pointers, went 4-for-4 from the free-throw line in the second overtime period and finished with 15 points. Powell totaled 10 points.

"That game came down to just our kids gutting it out and playing with heart," Nelson said, "and never quitting."

Robinson finished one win shy of reaching the state tournament last season, falling to Wakefield in the Northern Region semifinals. This season, Nelson said the Rams will have a balanced scoring attack to go along with an inside presence from 6-foot-8 senior center Taylor Downey.

"That's something that we emphasize is our depth," Nelson said. "... [Downey has] really worked hard since last year to gain some weight, he's gained some confidence and he's a force for us now. ... He didn't do a lot last year, so when you see him come out as our five-man to open the game, if you remember what you saw last year, you're probably not very impressed. But I think he's in line for a very good season."

EDISON is an athletic team led by standout senior point guard Chief Amoah, senior guard Brumsey and four athletes who transferred to the school this year. Junior guard Tyvez Monroe, who led the Eagles with 24 points and five 3-pointers Friday night, transferred from Bishop O'Connell. Junior forward Damien Jones Jr. (Flint Hill), junior forward Isaiah Lowman (DeMatha) and senior forward Ahmed Hemoh (Potomac) also transferred to Edison this year.

Brumsey finished with 22 points against Robinson, Lowman had 13 and Amoah had 11.

Amoah practiced on Thursday for the first time in three weeks after battling a hip-flexor injury, Edison head coach Terry Henderson said.

Henderson's Eagles reached the state tournament in 2012. The coach said this year's team wants to return to states.

"I think with it being early in the season, first game, that competition is what we needed," Henderson said. "We've had some good scrimmages, but some things came kind of easy to us, so I believe this is a great wake-up call and I think we'll respond well."

Henderson praised Robinson's effort.

"Robinson, they played extremely hard," Henderson said. "In order for them to stay in a game like that with our athleticism, they have to be able to knock down the 3 and they did a great job of doing that tonight."

Robinson improved to 2-0 with a 61-39 victory over Fairfax on Dec. 7 during the Red Jenkins Tipoff Classic. The Rams will host South County on Thursday, Dec. 12.

Edison bounced back with a 58-56 win over Woodson on Dec. 7. The Eagles will host Hayfield at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 13.

"I don't have the most individual talent around, but I have kids who bust their humps in the offseason to make themselves better and that is what shows in a game like this," Nelson said. "When a kid like ... Joe Bynum, who came off the bench for us all year last year, and he comes out ... as a leader, as a captain, in his first opportunity to kind of be the man, he comes out and drops 28, that's a testament to how hard he has worked."

Michael McCarty Elected to the American Academy for Park and Recreation Administration

Michael McCarty, director of Parks and Recreation for the City of Fairfax, has been elected to the American Academy for Park and Recreation Administration. He was inducted in October at the Academy's Annual Meeting during the National Recreation and Park Association Congress in Houston.

The Academy is a group of distinguished practitioners and educators who are leaders in the field of park and recreation. The Academy is limited to 125 active members.

More information on the Academy is available at www.aapra.org.

McCarty, CPRP has over 21 years experience in the field of Recreation and Parks and has been the Director of Parks and Recreation for the City of Fairfax since 2006. McCarty has served twice as the chairman on the Revenue Management and Development School during his nine years on the Board of Regents at Oglebay Resort in Wheeling, W. Va.

Prior to the City of Fairfax, McCarty was the Executive Director of Parks and Recreation in Town of Longmeadow, Mass.

McCarty also served as the Assistant Director of Recreation for the Town of South Windsor where he received the 2003 Outstanding Professional Award from the Connecticut Parks and Recreation Association.

MinuteClinic Opens Walk-in Medical Clinic Inside CVS/pharmacy Store in Fairfax

MinuteClinic, the largest provider of retail-based medical clinics in the United States, has opened a new walk-in clinic inside the CVS/pharmacy store in Fairfax at 3921 Prosperity Ave. It is the twenty-third location in the Northern Virginia.

MinuteClinic nurse practitioners specialize in family health care and can diagnose, treat and write prescriptions for common family illnesses such as strep throat and ear, eye, sinus, bladder and bronchial infections. Minor wounds, abrasions, skin conditions and joint sprains are treated, and common vaccinations such as influenza, tetanus, pneumonia and Hepatitis A & B are available at most locations.

Walk-in camp, sports and college physicals are available daily. In addition, MinuteClinic administers a series of wellness services designed to help patients identify lifestyle changes needed to improve their current and future health, including screenings and monitoring for diabetes, high blood pressure and high cholesterol.

No appointments are required at MinuteClinic and most health insurance is accepted. For patients paying cash or credit, treatment prices are posted at each clinic and on www.minuteclinic.com. The cost for most treatment starts at $79.

MinuteClinic practitioners use a software program that at the conclusion of each visit generates educational material, an invoice and a prescription (when clinically appropriate) for the patient, as well as a diagnostic record that can be sent via electronic health record, fax or mail to a primary care provider with patient permission.

The MinuteClinic walk-in medical clinic in Fairfax operates from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Sunday. For more information, visit www.MinuteClinic.com.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

ter a week in the hospital, was nothing short of a rat's nest mess. I am sure I didn't paint a pretty picture in front of the receptionist. But after asking her if someone had time to wash my hair, a gentleman appeared and immediately whisked me back to the sinks, and on the way told me that there was no charge for the wash. I was dumbfounded. Not only did he take immediate care of me, here he was telling me that the wash was on him. It was this kind of service, and compassion, that makes me grateful for local small businesses. Would a chain salon had been so accommodating? I highly doubt it. At the end of my visit, when I tried to pay for the service, they still wouldn't accept my payment. So, I gave the woman who actually washed my hair a good tip, thanked them all and went on my way. You bet when I need any other salon service, Salon Prive will be my first choice. What a pleasant experience, and I wanted to again convey my sincere thanks to their staff for their kind attention.
